

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

HARPER & BROTHERS, NEW YORK.

Harper's New Monthly Magazine.

Each Number of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE contains 144 octavo pages, in double columns, each year thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every Number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, accurate Plates of the Fashions, a copious Chronicle of Current Events, and impartial Notices of the important Books of the Month. The Volumes commence with the Numbers for JUNE and DECEMBER; but Subscriptions may commence with any Number.

TERMS.—The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers, at $3 00 a year, or 25 cents a Number. The Semi-annual Volumes, as completed, neatly bound in Cloth, are sold at $2 00 each, and Muslin Covers are furnished to those who wish to have their back Numbers uniformly bound, at 25 cents each. Ten Volumes are now ready, bound.

The Publishers will supply Specimen Numbers gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply Clubs of Two persons at $5 00 per year, or Five persons at $10 00.

The Magazine weighs over seven and not over eight ounces. The Postage upon each Number, which must be paid quarterly in advance, is 3 cents.

The circulation of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE is now greater than at any previous time since its publication was commenced, and is still steadily and rapidly increasing. The same plan which has made it so popular hitherto will continue to be pursued. It will aim to present regularly, in more elegant dress and at a cheaper rate, a larger amount of better reading matter than has ever been given to the Public in any similar periodical, either foreign or domestic. Its contents will be made up with constant reference to the wants and tastes of the great body of the American people, rather than those of any particular class or profession. While it will be the endeavor of its Publishers, in all its departments, to combine entertainment with instruction, special care will be taken to exclude every thing that can give just cause of complaint to any interest or any section of the country, and especially every thing that can offend the most fastidious, on the score of taste or morality. A large number of interesting and valuable articles have already been prepared for the next volume; the series of Pictorial Articles, written by the most popular authors and illustrated by the most gifted and popular artists in the United States, expressly for the Magazine, will be continued; the choicest productions of American and European literary talent will be selected for its pages; the variety, interest, and attractiveness of its Editorial Departments will be increased; and nothing will be left undone to merit that large share of public favor with which thus far their enterprise has been received.

Harper's Statistical Gazetteer of the World, particularly describing the United States of America, Canada, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia. By J. CALVIN SMITH. Illustrated by Seven Maps. Complete in one Volume, Royal 8vo Muslin, $5 00; Sheep extra, $5 75; Half Morocco, $6 00.

The general reader, the student, the merchant, and the artisan, will find in this work all the information adapted to their special requirements, brought down, as nearly as possible, to the present day, in a form more commodious and accessible than in any other work of similar character which has ever been offered to the public. The late censuses of the United States of America, Canada, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia, and the returns of Mexico, the States of Central America, South America, Great Britain, and the countries of Continental Europe, and many elaborate and complete works upon Statistics and Geography, and various special branches of science, have been laboriously consulted in the preparation of the present work, and the information contained in them has been arranged and classified in such a manner, as to be readily available to the inquirer.

Harper's Story Books.

A Series of Narratives, Dialogues, Biographies, and Tales, for the Instruction and Entertainment of the Young. By JACOB ABBOTT. Embellished with Numerous and Beautiful Engravings.—

TERMS.—Each Number of HARPER'S STORY BOOKS will contain 160 pages in small quarto form, very beautifully illustrated, and printed on superfine calendered paper.

The Series may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, and Postmasters, or from the Publishers, at $3 00 a year or 25 cents a Number. The Numbers may be had separately.

The two Periodicals, "Harper's New Monthly Magazine" and "Harper's Story Books," will be supplied at $5 00 a year.

The Postage upon "Harper's Story Books," which must be paid quarterly in advance, is 2 cents.

The books, though called Story Books, are not intended to be works of amusement merely to those who may receive them, but of substantial instruction. The successive volumes will comprise a great variety, both in respect to the subjects which they treat, and to the form and manner in which the subjects will be presented; but the end and aim of all will be to impart useful knowledge, to develop the thinking and reasoning powers, to teach a correct and discriminating use of language, to present models of good conduct for imitation, and bad examples to be shunned, to explain and enforce the highest principles of moral duty, and, above all, to awaken and cherish the spirit of humble and unobtrusive, but heartfelt piety.

Though not intended to be of exclusively religious character, they will be so far designed to exert a moral and religious influence, as to adapt them to the use of Sabbath School Libraries.

Xenophon.

Xenophon's History of the Expedition of Cyrus, and Account of the Institution of Cyrus. Translated by EDWARD SPELMAN and Hon. MAURICE COOPER, M.A. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 85 cents.

Ticknor's History of Spanish Literature.

With Criticisms on the particular Works, and Biographical Notices of prominent Writers. 3 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $6 00; Sheep extra, $6 75; Half Calf, $7 50.

The author of this standard historical work has devoted the studies and labors of nearly a life-time to its preparation. In point of comprehensiveness of plan, richness of information, sagacity of criticism, and thoroughness of execution, it may claim pre-eminence over any similar production in the English language; and it is certainly not surpassed by the most celebrated master-pieces of its kind in Continental literature. It gives a complete survey of the origin and development of Spanish literature, traces the progress of intellectual culture in that nation, presents copious biographical sketches of her great authors, with genial comments on their writings, and furnishes a variety of translations from the most celebrated poets. The style of the work is refined and classical, finished with exquisite propriety, and abounding in those subtle graces of expression, which distinguish the pen of the mature scholar. No work issued from the American press has received warmer commendation from European critics, or has done more to diffuse and elevate the fame of our native literature.

Hildreth's History of the United States.

FIRST SERIES.—From the first Settlement of the Country to the Adoption of the Federal Constitution. 3 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $6 00; Sheep extra, $6 75; Half Calf, $7 50.

SECOND SERIES.—From the Adoption of the Federal Constitution to the End of the Sixteenth Congress. 3 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $6 00; Sheep extra, $6 75; Half Calf, $7 50.

As an introduction to the study of American history, this work, by common consent of the most competent judges, has attained the rank of a standard authority. In a terse, compact, and highly perspicuous narrative, the writer traces the progress and workings of American institutions until the close of the administration of President Munroe. The course of legislation since the establishment of our National Independence is minutely described, receiving, from the hands of the author, the degree of attention which its importance demands. In relating the early settlement of the Colonies and the events of the Revolutionary struggle, he crowds a great amount of matter into a narrow compass, leaving no important incident untouched, but never tempted by the interest of the theme into an unnecessary diffuseness. The work is especially valuable as a book of reference, a manual for instruction in American history. In no other way can the student of our annals find such a clear, precise, and copious statement of events, as by consulting these volumes. The accuracy of their details, the acuteness and sobriety of their comments, and the masculine vigor and naturalness of their style, make them equally indispensable to the statesman, the politician, the man of letters, and the general reader.

Hildreth's Theory of Politics.

12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

In this volume Mr. Hildreth engages in a discussion of the foundation of governments, and the causes of political revolutions. It may be regarded as a counterpart to his "History of the United States," unfolding the theoretical principles which, in his view, underlie the progress of social affairs. Eminently acute and subtle, founded on an ingenious and refined analysis, and thoroughly original in their character, the ideas here set forth must attract the attention of thinking men.

Travels in Europe and the East:

Being Sketches and Incidents, with graphic Descriptions of Men, Places, and Things, as seen by the Author in England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Syria, Palestine, and Egypt. By SAMUEL IRENÆUS PRIME. 2 vols. Large 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

These volumes are the records of a year of travel in some of the most interesting parts of the world—Europe, Asia, and Africa—by a writer whose sparkling and brilliant style, keen perception of the beautiful, and active imagination, have lent a charm to his writings, which have won him thousands of admirers and friends. They are not dull and heavy description, but are full of personal incident and adventure, serving, at the same time, to engross and fasten the interest of the reader, while they afford, perhaps, the best view of men and things on his route which has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

History of the Constitution.

History of the Origin, Formation, and Adoption of the Constitution of the United States. By GEORGE TICKNOR CURTIS. To be completed in two large and handsome Octavo Volumes. Vol. I., Muslin, $2 00; Law Sheep, $2 75.

This work, by an accomplished scholar, supplies a want which has never been adequately met in the historical literature of the country. It embraces the period from the commencement of the Revolution to the assembling of the Convention of 1787, showing the causes which rendered the calling of that body inevitable, and which gave the shape and coloring to its decisions; explaining the foundations on which our national liberty and prosperity were then settled by the statesmen to whom the American Revolution gave birth; and presenting a series of graphic memoirs of the principal members of the Convention. In preparing this great national work, Mr. CURTIS enjoyed the encouragement and counsels of DANIEL WEBSTER, who took the liveliest interest in its completion, and urged its importance almost in the last days of his life. Written in a condensed and vigorous style, founded on accurate and persevering historical research, crowding a lively narrative with novel incidents and events, and presenting the characters of the illustrious framers of the Constitution in bold and discriminating portraits, this highly important work is adapted to occupy a distinguished place in the records of American history. It is an accession of sterling merit to our Revolutionary annals, and can not fail to challenge the attention and admiration of our statesmen, scholars, and politicians, no less than the great body of the American people.

The U. S. Grinnell Expedition

in Search of Sir John Franklin. By Dr. E. K. KANE, U.S.N. Richly Illustrated with Maps and Engravings on Steel, Wood, and Stone. 8vo, Muslin, $3 00; Half Calf, $3 75.

This volume forms a fitting memorial of one of the noblest enterprises of the day; one undertaken to subserve no private or selfish ends, but from motives of the most generous philanthropy. It presents a vivid picture of the perils of Arctic navigation, as undergone during that wonderful besetment of almost nine months among the drifting ice in Wellington Channel. No one can read without emotion that journal, written with the thermometer at freezing point, when the vessel might at any moment be crushed by the ice-floes. Still, in spite of the circumstances in which it was written, the general tone is buoyant and hopeful. There can be no doubt that this volume is the most interesting which has yet been produced by any voyagers in the Arctic regions.

Pictorial Field-Book of the Revolution;

or, Illustrations, by Pen and Pencil, of the History, Biography, Scenery, Relics, and Traditions, of the War for Independence. By BENSON J. LOSSING. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $8 00; Sheep extra, $9 00; Half Calf, $10 00; Morocco, gilt edges, $15 00. Liberal allowances made to those who buy to sell again.

A new and carefully revised edition of this magnificent work is just completed in two imperial octavo volumes of equal size, containing 1500 pages and 1100 engravings. As the plan, scope, and beauty of the work were originally developed, eminent literary men, and the leading presses of the United States and Great Britain, pronounced it one of the most valuable historical productions ever issued in America. The prime object of the author in arranging his plan was to reproduce the history of the American Revolution in such an attractive manner, as to entice the youth of his country to read the wonderful story, study its philosophy and teachings, and to become familiar with the founders of our Republic and the value of their labors. In this he has been eminently successful; for the young read the pages of the Field-Book with the same avidity as those of a romance. Such is the universal testimony of parents who have introduced the work into their families.

Its graphic illustrations have not only a charm as embellishments, but a lasting and intrinsic value as delineations of fact. An analysis shows that these illustrations exhibit 245 portraits, 475 autographs of eminent men, 182 celebrated buildings, 62 maps and plans of battles, fortifications, &c., 46 views of battle-fields, 103 views of other historical localities, 96 sketches of curious historical objects, 26 fac similes of manuscripts, 27 medals, seals, &c., 46 views of fortifications, sketches of 12 remarkable trees, 76 monuments, 24 old churches, 6 statues, 57 appropriate initial letters, and about a dozen miscellaneous fancy sketches. There are in all 1100 engravings, including 1500 distinct illustrations of objects described in the text.

A very elaborate Analytical and Chronological Index has been prepared for each volume, by which the student may readily find any name, event, locality, or fact mentioned in the war. For public and private libraries, for constant reference in families, and as a reading-book in households and schools, it has no superior among the many books offered to the public. Explanatory notes are profusely given upon every page in the volumes, and also a brief biographical sketch of every man distinguished in the events of the Revolution, the history of whose life is known. The Supplement of forty pages contains a History of the Naval Operations of the Revolution; of the Diplomacy; of the Confederation and Federal Constitution; the Prisons and Prison-ships of New York; Lives of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, and other matters of curious interest to the student of our history. As a whole, it contains all the essential facts of the early history of our Republic, which are scattered through scores of volumes, often inaccessible to the great mass of readers. It forms a complete Guide-Book to the tourist seeking for fields consecrated by patriotism, which lie scattered over our broad land.

Nothing has been spared to make this Great National Work complete, reliable, and eminently useful to all classes of citizens. Upward of $35,000 were expended in the publication of the first edition. The exquisite wood-cuts, engraved under the immediate supervision of the author from his own drawings, in the highest style of the art, required the greatest care in printing. To this end the efforts of the publishers were directed; and they take great pleasure in presenting these volumes as the best specimen of typography ever issued from the American press.

Lossing's Fine Arts.

Outline History of the Fine Arts; embracing a View of the Rise, Progress, and Influence of the Arts among different Nations, Ancient and Modern, with Notices of the Character and Works of many celebrated Artists. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Goodrich's British Eloquence.

Select British Eloquence; embracing the best Speeches entire of the most eminent Orators of Great Britain for the last two Centuries; with Sketches of their Lives, an Estimate of their Genius, and Notes, Critical and Explanatory. By CHAUNCEY A. GOODRICH, D.D., Professor in Yale College. 8vo, Muslin, $3 50; Sheep extra, $3 75; Half Calf, $4 00.

In this carefully prepared volume, we have an important contribution to rhetorical literature. Containing the speeches of the great British orators, which are regarded as the master-pieces of their respective authors; a memoir of each orator, showing the leading events of his public life, and the distinctive characteristics of his oratory; an historical introduction to each of the speeches, explaining the circumstances of the case; the state of parties, and the exact point at issue; an analysis of the longer speeches in side notes; and a large body of critical and explanatory notes, together with translations of the passages quoted from foreign languages; it leaves nothing to be desired as a text-book of the political and forensic eloquence of Great Britain. The copious and valuable memoirs and notices by the editor make this less a compilation than an original work. The manner in which he has performed his task is a model of accurate and thorough editorship. He has omitted nothing which the most exacting student could demand for the elucidation of the subject in hand, without ever being tempted to indulge in superfluous details. A great mass of attractive information is thus presented, and in a style of singular clearness, strength, and elegance. It is rarely that so much profound scholarship, sound judgment, refined taste, and vigorous expression, are devoted to the critical preparation for the press of the standard productions of other writers.

Alison's History of Europe,

From the commencement of the French Revolution, in 1789, to the Restoration of the Bourbons in 1815. In addition to the notes on Chapter LXXVI, which correct the errors of the original work concerning the United States, a copious Analytical Index has been appended to this American edition. 4 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $4 75; Sheep extra, $5 00.

Alison combines the minutest attention to detail, the utmost carefulness in authenticating facts, with the greatest facility in deducing principles and laying them before the reader. His is by far the most remarkable historical work of the century. It exhibits remarkable diligence, and does impartial justice on higher principles than have yet been announced in history.

Alison's History of Europe,

From the Fall of Napoleon, in 1815, to the Accession of Louis Napoleon, in 1852. A New Series. Publishing in Parts, each Part embracing one of the English Volumes. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents per Number.

The merits of Sir Archibald Alison as a historian need not be commented on in order to call attention to this important work. He brings industry, high culture, indefatigable perseverance, an active and elegant mind, and rare powers of description, to the accomplishment of a task in which he evidently takes a cordial delight. Viewing his work as an elaborate digest of the events of the age, accompanied with frequent vivid and expressive portraiture of conspicuous scenes, it must be regarded as a welcome contribution to our resources on European history, and an indispensable aid to the studies of every intelligent reader.

Alison's Life of Marlborough.

Military Life of John, Duke of Marlborough. With Maps. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

Alison's Principles of Taste.

Essays on the Nature and Principles of Taste. With Corrections and Improvements, by ABRAHAM MILLS. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

We look upon this as, on the whole, the best and most pleasing work which has yet been produced on the subject of Taste and Beauty. The whole of the book is in no ordinary degree instructive.—Edinburgh Review.

Wilkinson's Ancient Egyptians.

A popular Account of their Manners and Customs, condensed from his larger Work, with some new Matter. Illustrated with 500 Wood-cuts. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

In this important work a complete view of Egyptian antiquities is presented, showing the character of the domestic life, political institutions, religious observances, and industrial arts of that remarkable people. It is the product of long and laborious research; it bears the stamp of thoroughness on every page; it is copious without being confused; the descriptive portions are crowded with information, while they are couched in a flowing and attractive style, clothing the hoary and wasted Past in a life-like costume. The volume is illustrated by a multitude of engravings, which make the explanations of the writer perfectly clear to the eye. It will be welcomed by the student of profane history, and no less by the searcher of the Scriptures, as an efficient and most interesting aid in their pursuits.

Burns's Life and Works.

The Life and Works of Robert Burns. Edited by ROBERT CHAMBERS. 4 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $3 00.

Mr. Chambers's edition is the completest presentation of the Scottish poet now, or likely to be hereafter, in existence. The various compositions are here strung in strict chronological order upon the Memoir, that they may render up the whole light which they are qualified to throw upon the history of the life and mental progress of Burns, while a new significance is given to them by their being read in connection with the current of events and emotions which led to their production. The result of this plan is not merely a great amount of new biographical detail, but a new sense, efficacy, and feeling in the writings of the poet himself.

Haydon's Autobiography.

Life of Benjamin Robert Haydon, Historical Painter, from his Autobiography and Journals. Edited and compiled by TOM TAYLOR, of the Inner Temple, Esq. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

This is a work of uncommon interest, describing the artistic career, the personal experience, and the perpetual struggles and difficulties of the celebrated English painter, drawn from his own autobiographical narrative in part, and from his copious journals, with brief editorial comments to preserve the continuity of the story. Haydon was a decided original. His journals give a vivid portraiture of the man, and are marked by deep pathos. They are full of anecdotes of celebrated men, and contain many valuable criticisms upon art. Haydon was in relations with the Duke of Wellington, Lord Brougham, Sir Robert Peel, and other British statesmen, of whom he gives a variety of interesting reminiscences. His anecdotes of Wordsworth, Leigh Hunt, Keats, Shelley, Sir Walter Scott, as well as of several contemporary painters, are attractive features of the book.

Addison's Complete Works.

The Works of Joseph Addison, embracing the whole of the "Spectator." Complete in 3 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $4 50.

The superiority of this edition over any other published consists in its convenience of form, its low price, its accuracy, its neatness of mechanical execution, and, above all, its completeness. It comprises not only all the essays, letters, poems, criticisms, tales, descriptions, and dramatic works of Addison, but also the whole of the "Spectator"; this last being a new and very useful arrangement, inasmuch as many of the finest essays, narratives, and characters in that admirable series were contributed jointly by Addison and others. Care has been taken to designate not only the papers contributed by Addison, but also those furnished by each of the other writers, and, in all other respects, the edition of the "Spectator" comprised in these volumes is as complete and perfect as any ever published.

Addison's Spectator.

The Spectator in Miniature. Selections from the Spectator; embracing the most interesting Papers, by ADDISON, STEEL, and others. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Johnson's Complete Works.

The Works of Samuel Johnson, LL.D. With an Essay on his Life and Genius, by ARTHUR MURPHY, Esq. Portrait of Johnson. 2 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 00.

This is the only complete edition of Dr. Johnson's works which has been published in this country. It will be found to contain much that is valuable in itself, besides many papers of much curiosity, including every variety of subject which a mind so comprehensive as his might naturally embrace.

As an essayist, Dr. Johnson may be placed upon a par with the writers of the "Spectator." Though his works have long stood the test of public opinion, and been known to the general reader, yet many of them from various causes have not been extensively read. Among these causes may be stated the fact, that some of them have never been published in this country, while others have never been contained in any uniform edition of his works. It may also be added that, so far as the works of Dr. Johnson have been published, the price demanded for them has prevented their coming within the reach of the great mass of readers.

Boswell's Johnson.

The Life of Samuel Johnson, LL.D. Including a Journey to the Hebrides. By JAMES BOSWELL, Esq. A new Edition, with numerous Additions and Notes, by JOHN WILSON CROKER, LL.D., F.R.S. Portrait of Boswell. 2 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 00.

The richest dictionary of wit and wisdom any language can boast of; and its treasures may now be referred to with infinitely greater ease than heretofore. Enlarged and illuminated by the industrious researches and sagacious running criticism of Mr. Croker, it is, without doubt—excepting a few immortal monuments of creative genius—that English book which, were the island to be sunk to-morrow with all its inhabitants, would be most prized in other days and countries by the students "of us and our history."—Quarterly Review.

Demosthenes.

The Orations of Demosthenes. Translated by THOMAS LELAND, D.D. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 85 cents.

Dryden's Complete Works.

The Works of John Dryden, in Verse and Prose. With a Life, by Rev. JOHN MITFORD. 2 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 00.

No English poet, perhaps no English writer, has attained, as regards expression, such undisputed excellence. A writer who has deeply studied the principles and structure of our language, confesses that Dryden's practical knowledge of the English language was, beyond all others, exquisite and wonderful.

Burke's Complete Works.

The Works of Edmund Burke. With a Memoir. Portrait. 8 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $4 50.

Shakespeare and Burke are, if I may venture on the expression, above talent. Burke was one of the first thinkers as well as one of the greatest orators of his time. He is without any parallel in any age or country, except, perhaps, Lord Bacon and Cicero.—Sir J. Mackintosh.

Burke on the Sublime and Beautiful.

A Philosophical Inquiry into the Origin of our Ideas of the Sublime and Beautiful. With an Introductory Discourse concerning Taste. By the Right Hon. EDMUND BURKE. Adapted to popular use, by ABRAHAM MILLS, A.M. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents. Of the character of Burke's admirable treatise on the Sublime and Beautiful, a work that has been so long and thoroughly known, and so highly estimated by all who have any pretensions to letters, it would indeed be superfluous, at this day, to enter into an examination. In the present edition several improvements have been made. Objectionable passages have been expunged, and a series of questions added.

Miss Beecher's Domestic Economy.

A Treatise on Domestic Economy, for the use of Young Ladies at Home and at School. By Miss CATHERINE E. BEECHER. Revised Edition, with numerous Additions and illustrative Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This volume is extremely well suited to be used as a text-book in schools for young ladies. It has been examined by the Massachusetts Board of Education, and been deemed worthy by them to be admitted as a part of the Massachusetts School Library. It has also been adopted as a text-book in some of our largest and most popular female schools, both at the East and West.

Miss Beecher's Domestic Receipt-Book.

Designed as a Supplement to her Treatise on Domestic Economy. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

An original collection of receipts is here furnished, which embraces a great variety of well cooked dishes for every-day comfort and enjoyment, and only such as have been tasted by superior housekeepers, and warranted to be the best. The receipts are expressed in language which is short, simple, and perspicuous, yet all directions are given so minutely, that the book can be kept in the kitchen, and used by any domestic who can read, as a guide in every one of her employments in the kitchen. Directions are also furnished in regard to small dinner-parties and evening company, which will enable any young housekeeper to perform her part on such occasions with ease, comfort, and success.

Coleridge's Complete Works.

The Complete Works of Samuel Taylor Coleridge. With an Introductory Essay upon his Philosophical and Theological Opinions. Edited by Professor SHEDD. Complete in 7 Volumes. With a fine Portrait. Small 8vo, Muslin, $7 00 ; Half Calf, $10 50.

VOL I. Aids to Reflection—Statesman's Manual. II. The Friend. III. Biographia Literaria. IV. Lectures on Shakspeare and other Dramatists. V. Literary Remains. VI. Second Lay Sermon and Table-Talk. VII. Poetical and Dramatic Works.

This is the first complete American edition of the works of the great Poet, Philosopher, and Theologian. It is of a very convenient size and shape, and got up on good paper and with clear type, and at a price to bring the whole within the most moderate means. The editor's truly valuable Introduction, when taken together with the masterly essay of Dr. Marsh, places the edition far above any other, not excepting the one in England published by Coleridge's daughter. It ought to find its way into every well selected library in this country.

Blackstone's Commentaries.

Commentaries on the Laws of England: in Four Books; with an Analysis of the Work. By Sir WILLIAM BLACKSTONE, KNT., one of the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas. With the last Corrections of the Author, and Notes. From the Twenty-first London Edition. With copious Notes, explaining the Changes in the Law effected by Decision or Statute down to 1844. Vol. I. By J. F. HARGRAVE, Lincoln's Inn, Barrister at Law. Vol. II. By G. SWEET, of the Inner Temple, Barrister at Law. Vol. III. By R. COUCH, of the Middle Temple, Barrister at Law. Vol. IV. By W. R. WELSLY, Recorder of Chester. Together with Notes, adapting the Work to the American Student. By JOHN L. WENDELL, late State Reporter of New York. 4 vols. 8vo, Law Sheep, $7 00.

In itself the work is inestimable; but the last London edition having been prepared for publication by four distinguished barristers of England who, after each taking a volume of the Commentaries for service, have added copious notes to the text, explaining changes in the law which have been effected in England by decision or statute, down to the year 1844. To the work thus prepared have been added notes, adapting it to the use of the American student, to show the law as it exists in this country under our institutions, and also to point out the diversities of the Common Law, as held in England and in this country, in the few instances in which a difference prevails.

The Orator's Touchstone;

or, Eloquence Simplified. Embracing a Comprehensive System of Instruction for the Improvement of the Voice, and for Advancement in the general Art of Public Speaking. By HUGH M'QUEEN. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

From the pen of a gentleman who has had great experience in the department of popular and forensic eloquence. He here presents the results in a practical and highly attractive form. His book is not a mere collection of dry abstract rules and precepts, but is marked by a warm glow of vitality, which is eloquence in itself. A more original and suggestive work on the subject has never been produced.

The Boyhood of Great Men.

By JOHN G. EDGAR, Author of "The Footprints of Famous Men" and "History for Boys." With Illustrations. 16mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

The child is father to the man, and few great men have ever lived whose boyhood did not give abundant promise of their future eminence. In this volume is given the early life of about fifty of the greatest men whom the world has ever known. They comprise poets and philosophers, sailors and soldiers, painters and sculptors, lawyers and divines, musicians and scholars. More instructive and cheering examples than are contained in these early biographies it would not be possible to find. The boy who reads them without being roused to emulation must be dull indeed.

The Footprints of Famous Men.

By JOHN G. EDGAR, Author of "The Boyhood of Great Men" and "History for Boys." With Illustrations. 16mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

A popular view of the history of several eminent characters, arranged under the heads of Men of Action, Men of Letters, Artists, and Men of Science. Among the persons whose biography is briefly related are Washington, Burke, Pitt, Southey, Moore, Sir Joshua Reynolds, Sir Francis Chantrey, Adam Smith, and others. The work sets forth examples of distinguished excellence, which it commemo- rates in an attractive and encouraging form, with a variety of illustrations, suited to make a pleasing impression on the youthful mind. At the same time, the accurate biographical information which it contains, together with its sound and discriminating comments on eminent public characters, commends it to the attention of all classes of readers. It is one of those books which, on account of its condensation of facts and its popular style, should find a place in every family library.

History for Boys;

or, Annals of the Nations of Modern Europe. By JOHN G. EDGAR, Author of "The Boyhood of Great Men" and "The Footprints of Famous Men." With Illustrations. 16mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

The annals of the modern European nations are here narrated in a concise and agreeable style, somewhat resembling Scott's Tales of a Grandfather. The narrative is remarkably compact without being obscure from its brevity. The language is not let down to the supposed level of a child's comprehension, but, while it is animated, it is uniformly chaste and dignified. It is a good book for beginners in the study of history of all ages. It would be valuable in families as a convenient book of reference, as well as in schools.

Sandwich Island Notes.

With Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

As a mere narrative, this book will abundantly repay perusal; but considered in the light of the information presented, it becomes very valuable and important. It presents the impressions of an American traveler on the condition of affairs at the Hawaiian Islands during the year 1853. The author gives a lively, and apparently a truthful description of scenes that came under his own observation, illustrative of the peculiar manners and customs of the natives. An intelligent correspondent in the Sandwich Islands pronounces the work "the most important and correct view of the islands, as they now are, that has appeared from the American press."

Wood's Natural History.

With 450 Engravings, designed expressly for this Work, by HARVEY. Square 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

This work presents the subject of Natural History in a manner suited to interest and instruct the general mass of readers. It combines accuracy of information and systematic arrangement with brevity and simplicity of treatment. The materials of the work are derived from personal experience, from the most recent zoological writers, and from the private communications of well-informed travellers in almost every portion of the world. The descriptive portions in the various branches of Natural History are marked by vividness and simplicity: numerous original anecdotes are introduced, illustrative of animal habits and peculiarities, in connection with scientific details, and a great variety of spirited engravings give a life-like aspect to the whole volume. It possesses equal interest for juvenile and for mature readers.

Leather Stocking and Silk;

or, Hunter John Myers and his Times. A Story of the Valley of Virginia. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Without a trace of the audacity and extravagance which are so much in vogue with many recent American writers of fiction, this unique story of Virginia life quietly winds its way to the heart of the reader, by its simple touches of nature, its gentle pathos, and the admirable harmony and fidelity of its coloring. The author has a rare perception of the capacities of character for dramatic effect.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Old House by the River.

By the Author of "The Owl Creek Letters." 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This work consists of a series of highly agreeable sketches illustrating the oddities and delights of American life amid rural scenes and summer pastimes. The sketches are all conceived from the stand-point of an introvertive mind, tenacious of old fancies and affections. The object of the book is clearly to excite attention toward the past and its attachments. There is a freshness and beauty in the details that come from the heart and reach the heart of the reader.

Later Years.

By the Author of "The Old House by the River." 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

"Later Years," like "The Old House by the River," consists of sketches, legends, descriptive essays, and the like. It is distinguished by the same sweetness and pathos of sentiment, the same picturesqueness and vigor of description, and the same graceful flow of diction, which have won such a flattering welcome to former productions of the author. He has made his place good among our most natural and forcible writers on rural scenes, and the present work will enhance his enviable reputation. Though selecting prose as his medium for expression, he has the eye and the heart of a poet, and his words will always find an echo among readers of a poetical temperament.

Sallust's Jugurthine War.

History of the Jugurthine War, and of the Conspiracy of Catiline. Translated by WILLIAM ROSE, A.M. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 40 cents.

Thomas's Farm Implements,

and the Principles of their Construction and Use ; an Elementary and Familiar Treatise on Mechanics, and on Natural Philosophy generally, as applied to the ordinary Practices of Agriculture. With 200 Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Obviously this is a book which every intelligent farmer must desire to possess. Written with great clearness and simplicity, and with an avoidance of technical terms and phrases, it would be useful to all classes, on account of its scientific information. The late Mr. Downing, in a review of the first edition of the work, observed : " We should like to see this work printed, bound, and hung up in every work-shop, tool-room, and farmer's book-shelf in the country. It gives the reasons and explains the action of mechanical powers, and the forces of nature generally, with illustrations so directly drawn from the farmer's daily routine, that it gives a direct meaning and value to every point rarely found in text-books."

Utah and the Mormons.

The History, Government, Doctrines, Customs, and Prospects of the Latter-day Saints. From personal Observation during a Six Months' Residence in Great Salt Lake City. By BENJAMIN G. FERRIS, late Secretary of Utah Territory. With numerous Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

This is the fullest and most reliable account that has been published of the history, government, doctrines, customs, and prospects of the Latter-day Saints. The author resided in the valley of the Great Salt Lake for six months, during which time he had ample opportunities to examine the customs and institutions of the eccentric people who claim to be the chosen saints of the "latter days." The historical details which he has gathered and embodied in this volume are quite complete and full of interest. Tracing the progress of the extraordinary imposture from the pretended discovery of the Golden Plates of the Book of Mormon to the present formidable industrial, social, and missionary organization, he describes the portentous steps of folly and crime by which the followers of the miscreant, JOSEPH SMITH, have attained their actual position in the public eye.

The Mother and her Offspring.

By STEPHEN TRACY, M.D., formerly Missionary Physician of the A.B.C.F.M. to China. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A book designed for young married women. It is strictly scientific, and at the same time popular in its character, presenting in an attractive form just the information which such persons desire and need. Dr. Tracy is a scientific and skillful physician, who has an inquiring, observing, and discriminating mind ; and he has had more than ordinary opportunities for learning the wants of those for whom he writes, and to meet them successfully. His book can not fail to exert a healthful influence.

Armenia and Erzeroon.

A Year on the Frontiers of Russia, Turkey, and Persia. By the Hon. ROBERT CURZON. With Map and Wood-cuts. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A most interesting work on Erzeroon and Trebizond, with very many incidental illustrations of the principles of Russian government. Mr. Curzon's descriptions of men and manners are always good ; and his book is fresh, readable, varied, and informing, conveying by its minute pictures of daily life, and its sketches of the country, an apparently truthful idea of Armenia.

Twenty Years in the Philippines.

By PAUL P. DE LA GIRONIERE. Revised and Extended by the Author expressly for this Translation. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A spicy narrative of a life of strange and romantic adventures in the farthest East. The author is a Frenchman of education and ability, who, thrown upon the shores of the Philippine Islands at an early age, takes up his residence among the natives, becomes a sort of Oriental potentate among the barbarians, devotes himself to the welfare of his unique colonies, and at the close of twenty years sets about recording his marvelous career for the benefit of his contemporaries. In a style of uncommon freshness and naivete, he relates the thousand-and-one odd incidents of his life—many of which are droll enough in all conscience—though their truth is attested by the incidental statements of European and American naval officers, who were familiar with the proceedings of the self-inaugurated monarch. His narrative is, moreover, replete with an endless variety of curious and valuable information, and throws much light on a state of society of which, in this western world, we usually have but the faintest conception.

American Principles on National Prosperity.

A Thanksgiving Sermon preached in the First Presbyterian Church, Elizabethtown, November 23, 1854. By KIRWAN. 8vo, Paper, 10 cents.

Parish and other Pencilings.

By KIRWAN. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The effective pen of the famous anti-Catholic polemic is every where to be recognized in this racy volume. A large portion of the work is devoted to familiar narratives, illustrating the leading truths of religion by examples drawn from real life. Among the most interesting papers in the collection are sketches of the Rev. Ashbel Green, Dr. Alexander, and Dr. Miller, which comprises a variety of personal recollections of those eminent men, and exhibit a freshness of feeling and sincerity of admiration which make them valuable specimens of biographical composition. The writings of Kirwan have already gained an extensive popularity, and must always command the attention of the public by their vehement expression of opinion, their glowing religious spirit, and their robust natural eloquence.

Romanism at Home.

Letters to the Hon. Roger B. Taney, Chief-Judge of the United States. By KIRWAN. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Men and Things

as I saw them in Europe. By KIRWAN. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A lively and interesting work of travels, written in a vigorous and attractive style, which is quite sure to secure readers where an ordinary tourist would fail to get attention. The author is an accurate and closé observer, and his volume furnishes evidence that he knows what to observe and what will be likely to prove interesting to the general reader. It is not like an ordinary "book of travels."

Letters to Bishop Hughes.

By KIRWAN. Revised and Enlarged Edition. 12mo.

The Knout and the Russians;

or, the Muscovite Empire, the Czar, and his People. By GERMAIN DE LAGNY. With numerous Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A complete sketch of Russia, full of facts worked up into a very readable form. The author seems well acquainted with his subject, and was evidently connected with Russia some time. He presents a detailed and very lively description of the interior of Russian society, with a lucid exposition of the prominent public institutions. The author's chapters on the army, the nobility, the clergy, the navy, the magistracy, and the finances, are informing and valuable.

The Chinese Insurrection.

A History of the Insurrection in China; with Notices of the Christianity, Creed, and Proclamations of the Insurgents. By DR. YVAN and M. CALLERY. And a Supplementary Account of the most recent Events. Edited by JOHN OXFORD. With Facsimile of Chinese Map and Portrait of the Insurgent Chief. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The Revolution in China is, in all respects, the greatest revolution the world has yet seen. The account of it, as given by Messrs. Yvan and Callery, is spirited, picturesque, and amusing. The actual knowledge of the Chinese which their experience has given them is shown throughout the work. The narrative is animated by traits of Chinese manners, opinions, and ideas, as well as by lively reminiscences of the country, and some of the actors, with whom the authors were perfectly acquainted.

Grote's History of Greece.

12 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents per Volume; Half Calf, $15 00 per Set.

This great work, on which Mr. Grote has so long been engaged, is at length brought to a close. Long meditated, patiently elaborated, and accompanied at each stage with applause and expectation, it will probably never be superseded. It is at once an ample and detailed narrative of the history of Greece, and a lucid philosophy of Grecian history, and is destined to a permanent reputation.

Memoirs of Abernethy.

Memoirs of John Abernethy, F.R.S. With a View of his Writings, Lectures, and Character. By GEORGE MACILWAIN, F.R.S. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

This volume will be read with lively interest far beyond the circle of merely professional readers. Abernethy, while living, became known most widely by the circulation of characteristic anecdotes of his intercourse with patients. But they revealed only one side of his extraordinary character, and the amusing play of his wit and tact; we have here, in a popular form, better means of appreciating his great ability and distinguished character as a man of science, a teacher, and a practitioner. The author writes as a pupil and a friend, with a vigorous and free pen. It is a very instructive, as well as lively and amusing book.

Cæsar's Commentaries on the Wars in Gaul.

The Civil Wars, and the Alexandrian, African, and Spanish Wars. Translated by WILLIAM DUNCAN. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Miss Edgeworth's Novels.

With Engravings. 10 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents per Volume.
The Volumes sold separately or in Sets.

VOL I. Castle Rackrent; Essay on Irish Bulls; Essay on Self-Justification; The Prussian Vase; The Good Aunt.

VOL II. Angelina; The Good French Governess; Mademoiselle Panache; The Knapsack; Lame Jervis; The Will; Out of Debt, Out of Danger; The Limerick Gloves; The Lottery; Rosanna.

VOL III. Murad the Unlucky; The Manufacturers; Ennui; The Contrast; The Grateful Negro; To-morrow; The Dun.

VOL IV. Maneuvering; Almeria; Vivian.

VOL V. The Absentee; Madame de Fleury; Emily de Coulanges; The Modern Griselda.

VOL VI. Belinda.

VOL VII. Leonora; Letters on Female Education; Patronage.

VOL VIII. Patronage; Comic Dramas.

VOL X. Helen.

It is unnecessary at this day to eulogize the works of Miss Edgeworth—they have taken an enduring position in English literature. Sir Walter Scott, with his characteristic frankness, has acknowledged that his original idea when he commenced his career as a novelist, was to be to Scotland what Miss Edgeworth was to Ireland—to portray the peculiarities of manners belonging rather to the generation passing away than to that which now exists, and to give life to the natural scenery, and permanence to the national characteristics of his countrymen.

In depicting the strange varieties of Irish character, whether grave or gay, Miss Edgeworth is confessedly without an equal. Her comic and playful satire ranks her high in the dominions of humor, while it is combined with a sterling common sense, and a power of picturesque description which seldom fail to the lot of the wit or the satirist. Her story-telling powers are admirable.

The whole of the works, as published in this edition, have undergone a careful revision and correction by the author herself.

Miss Edgeworth's Rosamond.

Miss Edgeworth's Harry and Lucy.

Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Miss Edgeworth's Frank.

Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Miss Edgeworth has, in this work, endeavored to convey to the minds of youth important truths through the medium of sprightly and entertaining stories. The beauty and importance of self-control, self-denial, decision, and perseverance, are clearly illustrated by a variety of interesting incidents.

Miss Edgeworth's Moral Tales.

2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Miss Edgeworth's Popular Tales.

Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Half Bound, 75 cents.

A series of tales intended to convey moral instruction in an attractive form. Miss Edgeworth's tales are among the best ever written for this purpose. It is impossible to read one of them without feeling that they were intended and are calculated to soften dispositions, correct errors, and remove prejudices ; while they are so full of interest, merely as tales, as to gain and hold the attention of the most careless reader.

Miss Edgeworth's Parent's Assistant ;

or, Stories for Children. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Edgeworth's Practical Education.

A Treatise on Practical Education. By RICHARD LOVELL EDGEWORTH and MARIA EDGEWORTH. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, 85 cents.

Sparks's American Biography.

Library of American Biography. Edited by JARED SPARKS, LL.D. Portraits, &c. 10 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $7 50. The Volumes sold separately, if desired, at 75 cents each.

VOL. I. Contains the Life of J. Stark, by E. EVERETT; C. B. Brown, by W. H. PRESCOTT; R. Montgomery, by J. ARMSTRONG; E. Allen, by J. SPARKS.

VOL. II. A. Wilson, by W. B. O. PEABODY; Capt. J. Smith, by G. S. HILLARD.

VOL. III. B. Arnold, by J. SPARKS.

VOL. IV. A. Wayne, by J. ARMSTRONG; Sir H. Vane, by C. W. UPHAM.

VOL. V. J. Eliot, the Apostle of the Indians, by C. FRANCIS.

VOL. VI. W. Pinkney, by H. WHEATON; W. Ellery, by E. T. CHANNING; C. Mather, by W. B. O. PEABODY.

VOL. VII. Sir W. Phips, by F. BOWEN; I. Putnam, by W. B. O. PEABODY; Miss L. M. Davidson, by Miss SEDGWICK; D. Rittenhouse, by J. RENWICK.

VOL. VIII. J. Edwards, by S. MILLER; D. Brainerd, by W. B. O. PEABODY.

VOL. IX. Baron Steuben, by F. BOWEN; S. Cabot, by C. HAYWARD, JR.; W. Eaton, by C. C. FELTON.

VOL. X. R. Fulton, by J. RENWICK; H. Hudson, by H. R. CLEVELAND; J. Warren, by A. H. EVERETT; Father Marquette, by J. SPARKS.

This work is one of the most interesting in historical literature. It is second, in importance and value to no series of original works ever printed in this country. Mr. Sparks's labors can not be too highly estimated. His researches have been prosecuted with untiring diligence, and with such success that almost every question within their scope has been definitively settled. The great merits of Mr. Sparks are reverence for truth, soundness of judgment in regard to evidence, and exhausting fullness of detail and illustration.—Griswold's Prose Writers.

Mrs. Sherwood's Roxobel.

8 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 00.

✓ Mrs. Sherwood's Works.

Engravings. 16 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents per Volume. The Volumes sold separately or in Sets.

VOL I. The History of Henry Milner, Parts I., II., and III.

VOL II. Fairchild Family; Orphans of Normandy; The Latter Days, &c.

VOL III. Little Henry and his Bearer; Lucy and her Dhaye; Memoirs of Sergeant Dale, his Daughter, and the Orphan Mary; Susan Gray; Lucy Clare; Theophilus and Sophia; Abdallah, the Merchant of Bagdad.

VOL IV. The Indian Pilgrim; The Broken Hyacinth; The Babes in the Wood of the New World; Katharine Seward; The Little Beggars, &c.

VOL XIV. The Monk of Cimies; The Rosary, or, Rosee of Montreux; The Roman Baths; Saint Hospice; The Violet Leaf; The Convent of St. Clair.

VOL XV. The History of Henry Milner, Part IV.; Sabbaths on the Continent; The Idler.

VOL XVI. John Marten.

This cheap and handsome edition of the works of Mrs. SHERWOOD is certainly one of the most admirable family series, from the pen of a single writer, in the English language. The subjects are exceedingly various, and adapted to different degrees of capacity, from that of opening youth to the matured intellect of riper years; but in all, the sentiments, the spirit, and the influence upon the mind, are such as to command the warmest approbation of every enlightened Christian; while, in their aptitude for the cultivation of the understanding and the improvement of the heart, they challenge competition. These features render the works of Mrs. SHERWOOD peculiarly suitable for the libraries of Sunday-schools.

The Principles of Courtesy.

With Hints and Observations on Manners and Habits. By GEORGE WINFRED HERVEY. A new Edition, with Additions and Corrections. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The design of this work is to illustrate and enforce the duty of courtesy in all its principles and applications. From the opinions of the leading critics of the day, already laid before the public, we gather that the book is unique, original, and, apart from the very important practical theme of which it treats, a curiosity in the literature of the age. The subjects, they tell us, are discussed in a spirit of cheerful, charitable, and liberal ethics.

The Rhetoric of Conversation;

or, Bridles and Spurs for the Management of the Tongue. By GEORGE WINFRED HERVEY. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This volume is intended to be of the same use to all who talk, as the ordinary works on rhetoric are to public speakers and to writers; containing all the instruction as to the proprieties and ethics of talking that the aspirant after colloquial excellence can reasonably require. To the great number of critical judgments in regard to this work which have appeared in the United States, we may be allowed to add one from the London Literary Gazette, a periodical which, according to Christopher North, "stands, beyond dispute, at the head of its own class." "In this volume, by an American writer, will be found much sensible and entertaining counsel and illustrations, historical and biographical. On the art and ethics of talking, it is a comprehensive manual, and no book in the English language has entered so systematically into the subject, and presented so many striking and appropriate hints for practical use."

Cooper's Surgical Dictionary.

A Dictionary of Practical Surgery, comprehending all the most interesting Improvements, an Account of the Instruments and Remedies employed in Surgery, the Etymology and Signification of the principal Terms, &c. With numerous Notes and Additions, derived from the Practice of American Surgeons, together with a Supplementary Index, in which the Science of Surgery is brought down to the present Period, by DAVID M. REESE, M.D., LL.D. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 00.

Cooper's Surgical Dictionary, with the voluminous notes and extensive supplementary Appendix of the American editor, which the venerable author incorporated in his latest London edition, is not only the standard authority in surgery in every college at home and abroad, but, as a book of reference in this science, can never be supplanted by any of the kindred works on the same subject, all of which give evidence that their learned authors have been obliged to draw largely from this great Cyclopedie of Surgery for their authorities, their doctrines, and their facts. The name of Samuel Cooper and his work will be coeval with surgery, so long as this science is cultivated among men.

Stewart on the Diseases of Children.

8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Sheep extra, $1 75.

A newly revised and cheap edition of a well-known and important production, which has so long enjoyed the highest repute among the profession, and will now, no doubt, become equally popular as a work of reference with families.

Chailly's Midwifery.

A Practical Treatise on Midwifery; translated from the French and Edited by GUNNING S. BEDFORD, A.M., M.D. With 216 Engravings. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 75.

This valuable treatise possesses great preference over works of its class in its numerous cases, extensive experience, and the facile mode of their presentation. It also embodies a vast amount of new and important illustration. It has been very generally adopted as a text-book in our medical colleges.

Combe on Infancy.

A Treatise on the Physiological and Moral Management of Infancy. For the use of Parents. By ANDREW COMBE. From the Fourth Edinburgh Edition. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

The Physiology of Digestion,

considered with Relation to the Principles of Dietetics. By ANDREW COMBE. With Illustrations. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

The Principles of Physiology, applied to the Preservation of Health, and the Improvement of Physical and Mental Education. By ANDREW COMBE. With Questions. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents; Half Sheep, 50 cents. An admirable book, which is already introduced into many schools, and which we earnestly wish every young person would read and study.—Miss Sedgwick.

Combe's Constitution of Man.

The Constitution of Man, considered in Relation to External Objects. By GEORGE COMBE. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Moral Philosophy;

or, the Duties of Man considered in his Individual, Social, and Domestic Capacities. By GEORGE COMBE. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A System of Phrenology.

By GEORGE COMBE. With upward of 100 Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Cruveilhier's Anatomy of the Human Body.

Edited by GRANVILLE S. PATTISON, M.D. With 300 Engravings. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 25.

The system of Anatomy by Cruveilhier commends itself to the notice and preference of the student by its decided superiority over most other productions of the kind extant, both as to plan and execution. It is comprehensive without being redundant, and condensed without being superficial. It is admirably adapted to range with the series of "Kane's Chemistry," "Magendie's Physiology," and "Chailly's Midwifery."

Gardner's New Medical Dictionary.

Containing an Explanation of the Terms in Anatomy, human and comparative, Physiology, Practice of Medicine, Obstetrics, Surgery, Therapeutics, Materia Medica, Chemistry, Botany, Natural Philosophy, with the Formulas of the principal Pharmacopeias, and valuable practical Articles on the Treatment of Disease. On the Basis of HOOPER and GRANT. Adapted to the present State of Science, and for the Use of Medical Students and the Profession. 8vo, Sheep extra, $2 50.

A work of reference for the student and practitioner which embodies all the recent important accessions to medical lore, including the departments of chemistry and the collateral sciences. It may truly be deemed a work indispensable to all members of the faculty. In this work the editor has been careful to add the words and phrases recently introduced into medicine from chemistry, physics, and natural science.

Gardner's Farmer's Dictionary:

a Vocabulary of the Technical Terms recently introduced into Agriculture and Horticulture from various Sciences, and also a Compendium of Practical Farming: the latter chiefly from the Works of the Rev. W. M. Rham, Loudon, Low, and Youatt, and the most eminent American Authors. With numerous Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50; Sheep extra, $1 75.

This work has been adopted as a premium by the principal agricultural societies of the state of New York, and is recommended by the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society. It contains much information which the practical agriculturist would vainly seek elsewhere.

Neligan on Medicines.

Medicines, their Uses and Mode of Administration, with a Conspectus of the three British Pharmacopeias: an Account of all the new Remedies, and an Appendix of Formule. With Notes and Additions, conforming it to the Pharmacopeia of the United States, and including all the recent Improvements. By DAVID REESE, M.D. 8vo, Muslin, $1 25; Sheep extra, $1 50.

Professor Neligan, of Dublin, is the highest European authority in Materia Medica and Therapeutics, and his great work has here been Americanized, improved, and enlarged by Doctor Reese, the American editor, adapting the work to students of medicine, and to practitioners in city or country, who will find every thing novel and useful in recent improvement in this new edition.

General Scott's Infantry Tactics;

or, Rules for the Exercise and Maneuvers of the United States Infantry. 8 vols. 24mo, Muslin, $2 50. Published by Authority.

This system of military discipline and tactics is, it is well known, published under the direct authority of the government; besides being the authorized code, this work possesses the advantage of portability, so that it may be conveniently carried in the pocket and used on any occasion.

Paris's Pharmacologia.

Being an extended Inquiry into the Operation of the Medicinal Bodies, upon which are founded the Theory and Art of Prescribing. From the Ninth London Edition. Rewritten, with the latest Discoveries in Physiology, Chemistry, and Materia Medica. With Notes, by C. A. LEE, A.M., M.D. 8vo, Muslin, $1 25; Sheep extra, $1 50.

It is the only treatise in the English language which gives a full and extended view of the philosophy of medical combination, as it is the only one from which can be satisfactorily deduced the true theory and art of prescribing.

The Homes of the New World.

Impressions of America. By FREDRIKA BREMER. Translated by Mary Howitt. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

Miss Bremer kept traveling while she was with us; went west to Minnesota; visited the upper waters of the Mississippi; bivouacked on the prairies; halted at nearly every town, large or small, on the banks of that river down to New Orleans; crossed over to Cuba; saw Mobile, Savannah, St. Augustine, in fact, almost every place in the country. And of almost every step of her way she has given some account, while her work offers a kind of portrait gallery of all the people from whom she received services. She gives us clever pictures of almost every man or woman of note in the country.

Bremer's Novels.

Miss Bremer possesses, beyond any other living writer of her class, the power of realizing to the imagination every individual she introduces. The moral beauty and womanly purity which steadily illuminate her narrative, must receive implicit admiration on all hands.

The Neighbors. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

The Home. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

The President's Daughters. 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents.

New Sketches of Every-day Life. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

The H— Family. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Nina. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

The above novels complete in 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $2 50.

The Parsonage of Mora. 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents.

Brothers and Sisters. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

The Midnight Sun. 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents.

The Easter Offering. 8vo, Paper, 6½ cents.

The Light-House.

Kane's Chemistry;

including the most recent Discoveries, and Applications of the Science to Medicine and Pharmacy, and to the Arts. Edited by JOHN W. DRAPER, M.D. With about 250 Wood-cuts. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Sheep extra, $1 75.

This text-book is undoubtedly the best, because the most comprehensive, in the English language; the additional notes of Professor Draper have been deemed exceedingly valuable. The leading idea of the author has been to present the student an account of the general principles and facts of chemistry, and of its application to pharmacy, medicine, and the useful arts. For its laborious research, accurate analysis, and profound learning, this work stands unrivaled among the productions of its class.

Paine's Institutes or Philosophy of Medicine.

The Institutes of Medicine. By MARTYN PAYNE, A.M., M.D., Professor of the Institutes of Medicine and Materia Medica in the University of New York; member of the Royal Verein für Heilkunde in Preussen; of the Medical Society of Leipsic; of the Gesellschaft für Natur und Heilkunde zu Dresden; of the Montreal Natural History Society, and other learned Associations. With a Portrait. 8vo, Muslin, $2 75; Sheep extra, $3 00.

Intended to supply a vacuum in medical literature, and to set forth the principal objects of the Institutes of Medicine. It surveys all the important facts and principles in the various departments of medicine. It is designed as a text-book for medical schools, but is intended not less for the erudite and experienced. Its whole aim is practical, giving to all the elevated principles of the science an exposition of their indispensable importance to a right treatment of diseases.

Butler's Analogy. By Emory & Crooks.

Bishop BUTLER'S Analogy of Religion, Natural and Revealed, to the Constitution and Course of Nature. With an Analysis, left unfinished, by the late ROBERT EMORY, D.D., President of Dickinson College. Completed and Edited, with a Life of Bishop BUTLER, Notes and Index, by G. R. CROOKS. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This edition contains the original treatise, with a life of the author, by G. R. Crooks, and a complete and accurate analysis of the work, by the late President EMORY, of Dickinson College. The analysis, which is an important feature of the present edition, is drawn up with eminent skill, and must prove an invaluable aid to the student in pursuing the deductions of Bishop Butler. The utility of the volume is increased by the brief explanatory notes of the editor and by a comprehensive index.

Butler's Analogy. By Hobart.

Analysis of Butler's Analogy of Religion, Natural and Revealed, to the Constitution and Course of Nature, with Notes. Also CRAUFORD'S Questions for Examination, revised and adapted to the use of Schools. By CHARLES E. WEST. 18mo, Muslin, 40 cents.

No one can peruse the masterly writings of Butler without great intellectual profit. Of all English authors, his researches in the science of ethics have produced the most precious and the most permanent fruit. As a wholesome discipline, in these days of rash and superficial thought, its value can scarcely be overrated.

Inez.

A Tale of the Alamo. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A very spirited and powerful story, by an American lady. The scene is laid in Texas, and the story illustrates Texas life, the influence of the Jesuits, and human nature in general.

Æschylus.

The Tragedies of Æschylus. Translated by the Rev. R. POTTER, M.A. To which is prefixed an Essay on the Grecian Drama. 18mo, Muslin, 40 cents.

Thackeray's Newcomes.

The Newcomes. Memoirs of a most Respectable Family. Edited by ARTHUR PENDENNIS, Esq. Illustrated by RICHARD DOYLE.

Thackeray's novels are an indispensable portion of every well-selected library. His vivid pictures of real life, his keen perception of the shams and pretense that lurk under an imposing exterior, his biting sarcasm on fashionable follies, his anatomical dissection of character, with the terse and pointed vigor of his style, place him in the front rank of English fiction-writers, and assure a lasting fame to his productions. The personages who have been the subjects of his caustic pen appear like the men and women whom we meet in the daily walks of society, and, by their life-like naturalness, make an indelible impression on the imagination and memory. No popular novelist has succeeded so well in representing the darker shades of human nature without indulging in exaggeration or descriptions of low depravity. His works are no less valuable as an introduction to a knowledge of the world than as an inexhaustible fund of entertainment.

Thackeray's Vanity Fair.

A Novel without a Hero, With Illustrations. 8vo, Paper, $1 00; Muslin, $1 25.

Thackeray's Pendennis.

The History of Pendennis. His Fortunes and his Misfortunes, his Friends and his greatest Enemy. With Illustrations. 2 vols. 8vo, Paper, $1 60; Muslin, $2 00.

Thackeray's Henry Esmond.

The History of Henry Esmond, Esq., Colonel in the Service of Her Majesty Queen Anne. Written by Himself. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.

Thackeray's Rose and the Ring;

or, the History of Prince Giglio and Prince Bulbo. A Fireside Pantomime for Great and Small Children. By MR. M. A. TIRMARSH. Numerous Illustrations. Small 4to, Muslin, 75 cents.

Thackeray's Great Hoggarty Diamond.

8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Thackeray's English Humorists

of the Eighteenth Century. Together with his Lecture on "Charity and Humor." 12mo, Muslin, $1 00; Half Calf, $1 50.

In none of the productions of Thackeray's pen is his admirable genius exhibited to greater advantage than in these exquisite sketches of the English humorists. His fine and subtle criticisms of their literary characteristics are by no means the most valuable feature of the work. He aims rather at giving a faithful portraiture of their personal traits; at presenting them in the familiarity of their homes and habitual haunts; at showing us the men whom we have chiefly known as writers, and enabling the reader to trace their characters in their productions. Such a gallery of intellectual celebrities, with pictures so accurately drawn, so brilliantly colored, and so exquisitely shaded, is not to be found in any language.

Narrative of a Journey round the World.

Comprising a Winter Passage across the Andes to Chili; with a Visit to the Gold Regions of California and Australia, the South Sea Islands, Java, &c. By F. GERSTAECKER. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00. A very entertaining and instructive narrative of personal adventure and experience during a journey of five years. It contains descriptions of the manners and customs of different portions of South America; graphic accounts of society and life in California, shortly after the discovery of gold there; notices of life in the Sandwich and Society Islands; the incidents of a residence in Australia; and adventures in Java. This is one of the pleasantest and most readable of recent books of travel, covering ground which has not been so fully and satisfactorily treated in any other publication.

Home Influence.

A Tale for Mothers and Daughters. By GRACE AGUILAR. 12mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A beautiful story, presenting a lovely, quiet picture of home feelings and manners toned down to a deep, tender sweetness, peculiarly fitted to the fireside of the domestic circle. The book is full of natural purity, scenes of every-day life, and feelings of real every-day people.

The Mother's Recompense.

By GRACE AGUILAR, Author of "Home Influence." 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Stansbury's Interest Tables at Seven per Cent.

Calculated by Months and Days, and by current Days at the rates of 360 and 365 to the Year. Decimally arranged under the head of Time. Each Period of less than a Year having a separate Table by Months and Days, and Days as 360ths, contained on the third of a Page; a Table for a Year being repeated on each two Pages under observation at the same time. Each Day up to 146 having also a separate Table, at 365 to the Year; with a Table of 146 Days, repeated like the Year Table. Together with Factors for calculating Rebate or Discount; and also convenient Time Tables. Royal 8vo, Half Bound, $1 50.

Simplicity of arrangement, accuracy of calculation, and compactness of form commend this work to all who have occasion to refer to such tables. It is true of most interest tables that ready accountant will ascertain the interest on any sum by the old-fashioned method of computation in as little time as the several pages of the table-book can be referred to, and the several amounts added together, and the result thus obtained. Stansbury's tables, however, present on one page the interest on any sum which it may be necessary to find.

Crowe's History of France.

2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

A clear and concise manual of French history, written with thorough impartiality, and a perfect knowledge of the subject.

Barnes's Notes on the New Testament.

For Bible Classes and Sunday Schools. Maps and Engravings. 11 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents per Volume. The Volumes sold separately.

- On the Four Gospels. 2 vols., $1 50.
- On the Acts of the Apostles. 75 cents.
- On the Epistle to the Romans. 75 cents.
- On the First Epistle to the Corinthians. 75 cents.
- On the Second Epistle to the Corinthians, and the Epistle to the Galatians. 75 cents.
- On the Epistles to the Ephesians, the Colossians, and the Philippians. 75 cents.
- On the Epistles to the Thessalonians, Timothy, Titus, and Philemon. 75 cents.
- On the Epistle to the Hebrews. 75 cents.
- On the General Epistles of James, Peter, John, and Jude. 75 cents.
- On the Revelation. 75 cents.

These valuable Commentaries combine a just proportion of the devotional with the critical. The first rank among Biblical critics has been assigned to Albert Barnes. His fame has become European. "I know of no Commentary," says the Rev. Dr. Cumming, of England, "so succinct, full, and impartial. It is fitted to instruct the preacher no less than the Sunday-school teacher. It seems to be his grand effort to unveil solely what 'the Spirit saith to the churches.' I venture to predict that his faithful and lucid comments will find a response in the minds, hearts, and consciences of most Christian readers."

Questions on Barnes's Notes.

18mo, Muslin, 15 cents per Volume. As follows: VOL. I. On Matthew; II. On Mark and Luke; III. On John; IV. On Acts; V. On Romans; VI. On First Corinthians; VII. On Hebrews.

Pursuit of Knowledge under Difficulties;

its Pleasures and Rewards. Illustrated by Memoirs of eminent Men. By GEORGE L. CRAIK. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Pursuit of Knowledge under Difficulties.

Same Work revised, with Notes and a Preface, by Rev. Dr. WAYLAND, President of Brown University. From larger Type than the foregoing Edition. Portraits. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50. This work was originally compiled for the London Society for the Diffusion of Useful knowledge, and consists of brief sketches of a large number of personages who have risen to eminence in the various walks of life, from humble circumstances, and with no other aid than that supplied by their own inherent energies. It is an admirable book for the thoughtful study of the young, and abounds in lessons of perseverance, patience, and hope, which can not be too frequently or profoundly pondered. The notes and hints of Dr. Wayland display the wisdom and sense for which he is conspicuous. The authorship of the work is ascribed to Mr. G. L. Craik, one of the editors of the Pictorial History of England.

Dr. Olin's Travels.

Travels in Egypt, Arabia Petræa, and the Holy Land. 12 Engravings. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $2 50.

Dr. Olin's excellent volumes convey a great amount of information. They are remarkably accurate, and contain the best account of Egypt that has appeared in this country—perhaps in the language. "The work," says Bishop Potter, "is rich in information, pervaded by a lofty spirit, and entitled to entire confidence."

Dr. Olin's Works.

The Works of STEPHEN OLIN, D.D., late President of the Wesleyan University. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

Dr. Olin's style is forcible and his manner earnest, while his language is suggestive and full of thought. Strength and clearness of reasoning, aptness of illustration, and a straightforward purpose are always to be detected in his sermons. The lectures and addresses in the second volume are mostly devoted to topics connected with Christian education. The author's large and comprehensive views of this important subject were both developed and modified by the experience of a quarter of a century, during which he was brought in contact with students of great diversity of mental and moral structure.

Dr. Olin's Life and Letters.

2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

The biography of such a man can not be other than a public benefaction. Its effect must be as salutary as the character of its subject was unworldly and pure. In the present case, the interest of the work is greatly enhanced by the space that is allotted to the correspondence of President Olin, whose letters form almost a connective autobiography.

Irving's Columbus.

Life of Christopher Columbus. By WASHINGTON IRVING. A new Edition, revised by the Author. With a Portrait of the Great Navigator, and a Map. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This is one of the works which are the delight of readers and the despair of critics. It is as nearly perfect as any work can be. Its attraction lies in the charm of finished elegance, which it never loses. The most harmonious and poetical words are carefully selected. Every period is measured and harmonized with the nicest precision.

Life of Oliver Goldsmith.

with Selections from his Writings. By WASHINGTON IRVING. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Lives of Columbus and Vespucci.

The Lives of Christopher Columbus, the Discoverer of America, and Americus Vespucci, the Florentine. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

In a single volume are here presented the lives of the discoverer of America and of the Florentine navigator, who has given his name to the Western Continent. Taken in connection, they form a narrative of the interesting vicissitude which abounded during the whole career of these distinguished navigators, and furnish abundant grounds for forming an opinion upon their respective merits.

Hallam's Constitutional History of England,

From the Accession of Henry VII. to the Death of George II.
8vo, Sheep extra, $1 75; Half Calf, $2 00.

Mr. Hallam is far better qualified than any other writer of our times for the task he has accomplished. He has great industry and great acuteness; his knowledge is extensive, various, and profound; his mind is equally distinguished by the amplitude of its grasp and by the delicacy of its touch. On a general survey, we do not scruple to pronounce the "Constitutional History" the most important book that we ever read.—Macaulay.

This is a production of the greatest value, and distinguished, like his other works, for research, judgment, taste, and elegance.—Chancellor Kent.

Hallam's Literature.

Introduction to the Literature of Europe, during the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Centuries. By HENRY HALLAM. 2 vols.
8vo, Sheep extra, $3 50; Half Calf, $4 00.

This edition will naturally find its way into all libraries. No work on foreign history or politics can be more instructive or useful to American statesmen. The Edinburgh Review pronounces it "the most important contribution to literary history received for many years;" and a writer in the London Quarterly Review says, "To all lovers of literature it will be acceptable; to the young, we conceive, invaluable. We almost wish that we could renew our own youth, in order to profit by its instructions: it would have prevented us from reading a vast number of very bad books, and induced us, perhaps, to read some good ones."

Hallam's Middle Ages.

State of Europe during the Middle Ages.—By HENRY HALLAM.
8vo, Sheep extra, $1 75; Half Calf, $2 00.

The object of this work is to trace the progress of Europe from the middle of the fifth to the end of the fifteenth century; from the establishment of Clovis in Gaul to the invasion of Italy by Charles the Eighth. The plan of this work is more extensive than that of Robertson's, its views more comprehensive, and its information more copious and critical. It is written throughout with a spirit of freedom and liberality that does credit to the author.

Hallam's Historical Works:

comprising the above. 4 vols. 8vo, uniformly bound in Sheep extra, $7 00; Half Calf, $8 00.

Balboa, Cortez, and Pizarro.

The Lives of Vasco Nunez de Balboa, the Discoverer of the Pacific Ocean; Hernando Cortez, the Conqueror of Mexico; and Francisco Pizarro, the Conqueror of Peru. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

There is a singular fitness in presenting, in a single volume, the lives of Balboa, the first European who ever looked upon the waters of the broad Pacific; Cortez, the bold and determined conqueror of Mexico; and Pizzarro, the sanguinary destroyer of the empire of the Incas in Peru. The reader who follows the current of these narratives can not fail to obtain a just notion of the untiring efforts, desperate struggles, and barbarous cruelties which attended the conquest by the Spaniards of the southern portion of this continent.

Lamartine's Girondists.

History of the Girondists; or, Personal Memoirs of the Patriots of the French Revolution. By A. DE LAMARTINE. From unpublished Sources. 3 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 10; Half Calf, $3 60.

The Girondists were the moderate party during the latter part of the French Revolution who vainly endeavored to check the excesses of the Jacobins, and fell victims in the unsuccessful effort. Many of them were men of the most brilliant talents and of lofty virtue. The story of their struggles and their destruction forms one of the most exciting episodes of modern history. Lamartine has done full justice to his stirring theme. His style is brilliant and captivating combining the interest of a romance with the instruction of history.

Lamartine's Constituent Assembly.

History of the Constituent Assembly (1785). By ALPHONSE DE LAMARTINE, Author of the "Girondists," &c.

"Having descended the course of time, even to our own days, in the history of the 'Girondists' and that of the 'Restoration,' I shall now retrace my steps through those years, so full of events and so rapid in their flight, to recount the history of the first French national union, which has been especially designated the 'Constituent Assembly.' This meeting of men, deliberating on the ruins of a worn-out monarchy, was the secular council of reason, the focus of ideas, the echo of speech, the arm of public opinion, brought to the discussion and promulgation of modern creeds with reference to society and the government of nations."—The Author.

Lamartine's Celebrated Characters.

Memoirs of Celebrated Characters. By ALPHONSE DE LAMARTINE, Author of the "History of the Girondists." 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

The essence of many volumes is here condensed and reproduced in the fascinating style of which Lamartine is such a great master. The subjects of the volumes are Nelson—Heloise—Columbus—Palissy the Potter—Roostam—Cicero—Jacquard—Joan of Arc—Cromwell—Homer—Gutenberg—Fenelon—Socrates. An air of beauty is thrown around them all. Whatever is romantic in their histories is set forth with consummate artistic skill, and a fresh and beautiful light is made to play on old facts. The Life of Nelson is, perhaps, the hardest one for a Frenchman, and, above all, for Lamartine, to write justly—and yet it is most admirably done. He portrays the mingled strength and weakness of his character with a master hand, and condenses and narrates the leading events of his life in a story of thrilling interest.

Lamartine's Past and Present.

Past, Present, and Future of the Republic. 12mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

Lamartine's Raphael;

or, Pages from the Book of Life at Twenty. By ALPHONSE DE LAMARTINE. 12mo, Paper, 25 cents.

An extraordinary book; pronounced by eminent critics the chef d'œuvre of the poet, and supposed to be the history of his own early struggles and aspirations. The book is written in admirable style, spirited, poetic, and glowing with the warmth of actual life.

Lamartine's Memoirs of My Youth.

12mo, Paper, 25 cents.

Not less interesting than his Raphael, it abounds in reflections on life and manners which show him to have deeply studied human nature. Some of the scenes in the description of "Graziella" remind one of the inimitable pathos of Sterne.

Additional Memoirs of My Youth.

By ALPHONSE DE LAMARTINE. 12mo, Paper, 25 cents.

Lamartine's Genevieve;

or, the History of a Servant Girl. By ALPHONSE DE LAMARTINE. 12mo, Paper, 12½ cents.

The Stone Mason of Saint Point.

A Village Tale. By ALPHONSE DE LAMARTINE. 12mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Warren's Professional Duties.

Moral, Social, and Professional Duties of Attorneys and Solicitors. By SAMUEL WARREN. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Mr. Warren has handled this delicate and interesting subject with signal ability, and in a spirit indicative of a proper notion of those noble and elevated principles of moral duty which should guide all men in the active intercourse of life. His lectures are not only well calculated to maintain the station and character of the profession, to aid and direct its diligent study, and promote its honorable practice, but many valuable hints and suggestions are given and general practical rules laid down, a strict and faithful adherence to which will be found conducive to success in every pursuit and occupation in life.

Now and Then.

By SAMUEL WARREN, F.R.S. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

A vindication in beautiful prose of the ways of God to man. A grander moral is not to be found than that which dwells upon the reader's mind when the book is closed, conveyed, as it is, in language as masculine and eloquent as any the English tongue can furnish.—London Times.

It has the merit of entralling interest; an interest that is supreme, that is present throughout, that inflames the attention, and renders it breathless with curiosity.—London Sun.

The Lily and the Bee:

An Apologue of the Crystal Palace. By SAMUEL WARREN, F.R.S. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

The Diary of a Physician.

By Dr. SAMUEL WARREN. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 85.

We know of no book in the English language so calculated to rivet the attention and awaken the purest and deepest sympathies of the heart as the Diary of a late Physician. The man who has not read these tales has yet to learn a lesson in the mysteries of human nature.—Oxford and Cambridge Review.

Stephens's Travels in Central America.

Travels in Central America, Chiapas, and Yucatan. By J. L. STEPHENS. With a Map and 88 Engravings. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $5 00; Half Calf, $6 00.

We close this book with regret. From the first page to the last, the animation, the characteristic energy, the buoyant spirit of the author remained undiminished. Our extracts might have been thrice trebled, and yet left the volumes rich in important and original matter. The political details, for instance, from which we have systematically abstained, would in themselves be sufficient to render the work one of high interest and permanent value. Let our friends of the New World send out half a dozen such travelers as Mr. Stephens, and we predict that the records of their wanderings, discoveries, and adventures will do more to elevate the literary character of America than the angry philippics of all the reviewers and newspapers throughout the Union, backed though they may be by an entire phalanx of servile echoes in England.—London Quarterly Review.

Stephens's Travels in Yucatan.

Incidents of Travel in Yucatan. By J. L. STEPHENS. 120 Engravings, from Drawings by F. CATHERWOOD. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $5 00; Half Calf, $6 00.

At once so amusing in their details, and so instructive in their inquiries.—Literary Gazette.

These delightful volumes! It is grievous to quit a store so brimful to overflowing of what we like best.—Athenaeum.

The pleasantest and best work that has lately appeared.—Spectator.

Stephens's Travels in Greece.

Travels in Greece, Turkey, Russia, and Poland. By J. L. STEPHENS. Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75; Half Calf, $2 25.

Very pleasant volumes. Such, indeed, is the spirit of the author's descriptions, and the vivid force and truth of his narrative, that reading his work is like accompanying him on his route, and the reader grows at last to take a personal interest in all his adventures.—Athenaeum.

Stephens's Travels in Egypt.

Travels in Egypt, Arabia Petræa, and the Holy Land. By J. L. STEPHENS. Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75; Half Calf, $2 25.

One of the most brilliant and fascinating books of travel ever published. The account of the visit to the city of Petra, which is excavated in the solid rock, and had not before been visited for centuries by any European traveler, is most deeply interesting.

Shakspeare.

The Dramatic Works of WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE, with the Corrections and Illustrations of Dr. JOHNSON, G. STEEVENS, and others. Revised by ISAAC REED. Engravings. 6 vols. royal 12mo, Muslin, $4 50; Half Calf, $7 50.

This edition of the great dramatic poet contains all the plays, with the notes and explanations necessary for their being understood by the reader.

Drake, Cavendish, and Dampier.

Lives and Voyages of Drake, Cavendish, and Dampier, including an Introductory View of the earlier Discoveries in the South Seas, and the History of the Buccaneers. Portraits. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This volume contains an account of the adventurous voyages of Drake, Cavendish, and Dampier, undertaken at a time when the boundaries between lawful adventure and piracy were not well defined. To these is added a view of discoveries made in the South Seas, and a stirring history of the old Buccaneers who preyed upon the commerce and settlements of the southern portion of the New World.

Rollin's Ancient History.

The Ancient History of the Egyptians, Carthaginians, Assyrians, Babylonians, Medes and Persians, Grecians, and Macedonians; including a History of the Arts and Sciences of the Ancients, with a Life of the Author. By JAMES BELL. Only complete American Edition. Numerous Maps and Engravings. In 2 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $2 75; 1 vol., $2 50.

Rollin's Ancient History is indispensable to any one who wishes to acquire a connected view of the ancient monarchies. The sound moral tone of the work, and its constant regard to the great interests of religion, have gained high and deserved respect for it.

Brewster's Sir Isaac Newton.

Life of Sir Isaac Newton. By Sir DAVID BREWSTER, LL.D. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Newton stands, by common consent, at the very head of philosophers. In this biography are embraced not only the incidents of his long and honorable life, but a full and lucid account of his great discoveries, so explained and illustrated as to be comprehensible to the general reader.

Brewster's Martyrs of Science.

The Martyrs of Science; or, the Lives of Galileo, Tycho Brahe, and Kepler. By Sir DAVID BREWSTER, LL.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The lives of three of the most eminent men of science whom the world has ever known, who suffered neglect and persecution for their resolute devotion to the truth. Their biographies are here written by one of the most distinguished of living men of science.

Letters on Natural Philosophy, addressed to a German Princess. By LEONARD EULER. Translated by HUNTER. With Notes and a Life of Euler, by Sir DAVID BREWSTER; and additional Notes, by JOHN GRISCOM, LL.D. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

This admirable work, by one of the most eminent philosophers of any age, is still further enhanced in value by the notes added by Sir David Brewster, and the additional notes appended by Mr. Griscom. They are full of valuable and instructive matter for every class of readers.

Dickens's Novels.

The inimitable touches of nature in these novels recommend them to readers of the widest variety of tastes, and give them an interest as fresh and vivid at the present moment, as at the time of their original publication. Dickens so wonderfully blends the comic and the pathetic elements of human life, so gracefully alternates from the grave to the gay, so skilfully plays on the changing mood of passion, that he is welcome in all states of feeling, and touches with equal power the secret springs of smiles and tears. The healthy tone of sentiment which pervades his writings, his sympathy with every form of human excellence, his detestation of the false, the artificial, the base, the inhuman, make the reading of his works an admirable moral influence, strengthening our virtue and gratifying our taste at the same time. No man, who heartily relishes the humor of Dickens can fail to exercise a wholesome contempt for the tinsel display in which human vanity so often renders itself ridiculous.

Dickens's Hard Times.

12mo, Muslin, 75 cents. Cheap Edition, 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents.

Dickens's Bleak House.

With a Portrait of the Author, and numerous Illustrations. Handsome Library Edition. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00; Half Calf, $3 00.

Dickens's Dombey and Son.

Dealings with the Firm of Dombey and Son, Wholesale, Retail, and for Exportation. Handsome Library Edition. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00; Half Calf, $3 00.

Dickens's David Copperfield.

The Personal History and Experience of David Copperfield the Younger. Handsome Library Edition. With Illustrations. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00; Half Calf, $3 00.

Dickens's Martin Chuzzlewit.

Life and Adventures of Martin Chuzzlewit. With numerous Illustrations. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents; Muslin, 75 cents.

Dickens's Christmas Tales.

Comprising "A Christmas Carol," "The Chimes," "The Cricket on the Hearth," "The Battle of Life," and "The Haunted Man." Handsome Library Edition. Uniform with Dombey and Son. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents; Half Calf, $1 25.

This volume includes the five exquisite Christmas Tales written by Charles Dickens. Under a somewhat fanciful form, they combine the purest lessons of charity, good-will, and hopefulness, with the inculcation of a resolute purpose to bear and endure all the evils and troubles of life. They embody all the best qualities of the author's genius—his graphic power, pathos, humor, and buoyancy of spirit. Their moral tendency is, throughout, pure and healthy.

Dickens's Child's History of England.

2 vols. 16mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

These delightful volumes will convey to the minds of young persons, and of their elders, also, a more correct idea of English history than they could gain from the perusal of many volumes of a much more formidable size. The incidents selected for narration are just those which are really of the most importance, while the charming simplicity and freshness with which they are presented secure the attention of the reader. If any child complains that history is a dry study, this work should be placed in his hands.

Dickens's American Notes

for General Circulation. 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents.

Mudie's Observation of Nature.

A Popular Guide to the Observation of Nature; or, Hints of Inducement to the Study of Natural Productions and Appearances in their Connections and Relations. By ROBERT MUDIE. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A work admirably adapted to incite the reader to the habit of close and accurate observation of the various natural phenomena taking place around him. It treats of the advantages and pleasures of observing; of the precautions to be taken against being misled; of the nature and offices of the senses; and of the objects which demand and repay observation. Years of thought and attention have been devoted to the collection of the materials for this work; and, while it is valuable for the direct information it conveys, it is still more so for the habits of personal observation which it must induce in the reader.

Hutton's Book of Nature laid Open.

Revised and Improved. By J. L. BLAKE, D.D. With Questions for Schools. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

This volume comprises an account of the mighty works of nature, as seen in the formation of the earth and its inhabitants, the sea and its denizens. From our globe it passes to the other members of our system, and to the worlds that lie beyond. All these subjects are treated in a popular and attractive manner.

Mrs. Somerville's Physical Sciences.

Connection of the Physical Sciences. By MARY SOMERVILLE. From the recently revised Edition. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Few volumes of ten times the bulk contain as great an amount of information as this. It treats of the whole circle of the physical sciences, including the most sublime problems in astronomy, the phenomena of light, heat, electricity, and magnetism. It shows that certain great principles govern the whole natural world, and produce the most diverse appearances. It is written in so clear a manner as to be comprehensible to any reader who will apply himself fairly to master its contents.

Lives of Eminent Painters and Sculptors.

By ALLAN CUNNINGHAM. Portraits. 5 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $2 10.

A series of admirable biographies of the most eminent artists of the English school, written by one who was himself an artist of no ordinary merit.

Turner's Sacred History of the World, attempted to be philosophically considered in a Series of Letters to a Son. 3 vola. 18mo, Muslin, $1 35.

This is a very thoughtful and suggestive work. The first volume treats of the creation and system of the earth, and of the animal and vegetable kingdoms, and of the formation of mankind. The second volume relates to the divine economy, as manifested in the special history of human affairs. The third volume has reference to the means adopted for the perpetuation and support of the human race, to the system of social order, and to the supernatural history of the world. It abounds in bold speculation, ingenious suggestion, and profound investigation; and can not be perused without profit, even though all of its teachings should fail of meeting with implicit credence.

Francis's Orators of the Age :

comprising Portraits, Critical, Biographical, and Descriptive. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Some thirty descriptive sketches of the leading members of the British government during the last score of years. Among the notabilities whose prominent characteristics are delineated, are the late Sir ROBERT PEEL, the Duke of WELLINGTON, MACAULAY, Mr. BRIGHT, and Lord LYNDHURST. The descriptions of the oratory and manner of these celebrated men are given with much vivacity.

The Earth :

its Physical Condition and most remarkable Phenomena. By W. MULLINGER HIGGINS. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This work differs from the two preceding ones in being wholly confined to the earth and atmosphere. It treats of the form, dimensions, and motions of our globe; of the atmosphere, its qualities and uses; of light, electricity, and magnetism; of the interior construction of the earth, and the phenomena observed on land and water. It belongs to a class of books of which one can scarcely read too many, and this is the best of its class.

Scenes in Nature ;

or, Conversations for Children on Land and Water. With a Colored Map of Mountains, and many illustrative Wood-cuts. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

This volume contains a large amount of information upon various branches of natural history, conveyed in a form which can not fail to attract the juvenile reader.

Rambles about the Country.

By Mrs. E. F. ELLET. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A series of sketches, describing some of the most interesting scenery in different portions of the United States, together with the manners and customs, local traditions, legends, and historical incidents connected with them.

Isabel ;

or Trials of the Heart. A Tale for the Young. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A touching narrative, portraying the emotions, trials, and vicissitudes of life as experienced in the limits of the family circle.

Miss Sedgwick's Tales.

Miss Sedgwick has marked individuality; she writes with a higher aim than merely to amuse. Indeed, the rare endowments of her mind depend in an unusual degree upon the moral qualities with which they are united for their value. Animated by a cheerful philosophy, and anxious to pour its sunshine into every place where there is lurking care or suffering, she selects for illustration the scenes of every-day experience, paints them with exact fidelity, and seeks to diffuse over the mind a delicious serenity, and in the heart kind feelings and sympathies, and wise ambition and steady hope. Her style is colloquial, picturesque, and marked by a facile grace, which is evidently a gift of nature. Her characters are nicely drawn and delicately contrasted; her delineation of manners decidedly the best that have appeared.—Prose Writers of America.

Live and Let Live;

or, Domestic Service Illustrated. By Miss C. M. SEDGWICK. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A story of a young girl who goes out to service. She enters different families, and learns many painful lessons. The book is designed to set forth the mutual duties of the employers and the employed, in the relative positions of mistress of a family and domestic servant. Few of either class would not be profited by reading this work.

Means and Ends;

or, Self-training. By Miss C. M. SEDGWICK. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This volume is intended to furnish an answer to the question, "What is education?" It inculcates that physical and economical training, forethought, the formation of sound principles, useful habits, and pleasing manners, are a part of education; that housewifery, cookery, the care of a sick-room, and even taste in dress are essential parts of female education, as well as a knowledge of books, sciences, and accomplishments. The little volume is full of sound common sense, set forth in an attractive form, by illustration rather than by didactic teaching.

A Love Token for Children.

Designed for Sunday School Libraries. By Miss C. M. SEDGWICK. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A book for very young children, inculcating, by means of simple stories, forgiveness of injuries, perseverance in well-doing, and self-sacrifice for the welfare of others.

The Poor Rich Man and the Rich Poor Man.

By Miss C. M. SEDGWICK. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

We recognize in these books feminine skill and delicacy of delineation, with unusual discrimination of character and knowledge of the heart. Another high recommendation is their marked religious tone.—Norwich Courier.

Stories for Young Persons.

By Miss C. M. SEDGWICK. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

There is a sweetness and sociability in her stories we meet with nowhere else.—Newburgh Courier.

Her writings are always well worth reading. The quiet good sense and sterling principles they contain will make them acceptable to maturer minds.—Herald.

Wilton Harvey, and other Tales.

By Miss C. M. SEDGWICK. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The Linwoods.

By Miss C. M. SEDGWICK. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

Things by their Right Names.

By Mrs. BARBAULD. Edited by Mrs. S. J. HALE. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Mrs. Barbauld's writings are all interesting and instructive. Among them all there are none more worthy of attention than those comprised in this volume.

Pictures of Early Life.

By Mrs. E. C. EMBURY. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

No one will require a commendation of a book from this pleasing authoress. This is a collection of narratives, written for and dedicated to "A Daughter," "to illustrate in a simple and pleasing manner some of the most important lessons of early education." Ordinary stories of little merit are sufficiently abundant, but good illustrations, like those in this volume, can be commended to the confidence of all parents as free from sentimentalism, and filled with interest and moral.

The Blind Girl, and other Tales.

By Mrs. E. C. EMBURY. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A book which will absorb with its touching interest. The reader will find profit combined with pleasure, and none can peruse these tales without acknowledging the force of the teachings they inculcate.

Fairy Book Illustrated.

Containing Twelve new Stories, expressly translated for this Work. With 81 fine Engravings, by ADAMS. 16mo, Muslin, 75 cents; Muslin, gilt edges, $1 00.

There is more truth and more philosophy inculcated by these simple tales than can be found in nine tenths of all the crack-brained elaborations that have flooded the world for a hundred years. Instruction and moral amusement was their purpose. The design is distinctly stamped upon them, and clearly indicated by the well-written preface. The present volume is a gem in its way, beautifully printed and elegantly embellished with eighty-one engravings.—Albion.

Scripture Illustrated,

by interesting Facts, Incidents, and Anecdotes. By CHESTER FIELD. With an Introduction, by Rev. JOHN TODD, D.D. 18mo, Muslin, 50 cents; Half Roan, 60 cents.

A collection of anecdotes illustrative of passages of Scripture which are connected with them. The collection is made with great discrimination, and always with the earnest intention of doing good. The book has been heartily commended, particularly to young readers, who will find abundant wisdom in its pages.

Flowers of Fable,

from Northcote, Aesop, Croxall, Gellert, Dodoley, Gay, La Fontaine, Lessing, Krasicki, Herder, Merrick, Cowper, &c. With numerous Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 75 cents; Muslin, gilt edges, $1 00.

A most attractive volume in its mechanical execution, and, in its contents, professing to be the pure wheat, after a thorough sifting out of the bran, to be found in the numerous books of fables. We think the reader will be pleased to find no vulgarity, no low scurrilous expressions or allusions. The purest taste and the most delicate modesty will meet with nothing to offend on the pages of this elegant little volume.

Hazen's Popular Technology;

or, Professions and Trades. Illustrated by 81 Engravings. 18mo, Half Sheep, 75 cents; 2 vols., Muslin, 90 cents.

The above work embraces a class of subjects in which every individual is interested, and with which he should become acquainted. They challenge attention in this country especially, a great portion of the community being engaged in some of the professional or mechanical departments of business as a means of subsistence or distinction. It is a work eminently suited for the perusal of youth.

The Son of a Genius.

By Mrs. HOFLAND. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 81½ cents.

Fascinating in its delineations, admirable in its moral, just as a picture of the mind, a faithful and true portraiture of the results of genius vacillating, unapplied, and turning to ruin, and the same genius supported by sound moral principle, strengthened by judicious exercise and continuous effort, useful and triumphant.

The Young Crusoe;

or, the Shipwrecked Boy. Containing an Account of his Shipwreck, and of his Residence alone upon an uninhabited Island.

By Mrs. HOFLAND. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 81½ cents.

In this delightful story the design of the author has been to display the never-failing goodness of God in his providence, even under the heaviest misfortunes; and to show that there is no situation, however deplorable, in which a person can not, by the exercise of fortitude, ingenuity, and perseverance, increase the comforts and lighten the evils of his condition.

The Pleasures of Taste, and other Stories.

By JANE TAYLOR. Edited by Mrs. S. J. HALE. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

The contents of this volume have been selected from the voluminous writings of Jane Taylor. They are the best productions of one of the best writers of juvenile books.

Historic Tales for Youth;

or, Social Evenings. By Miss M. E. LEE. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

A collection of facts and incidents which, though arranged in the form of fiction, convey a large amount of genuine historical information respecting the countries and persons to whom they relate. The tales are calculated to instruct as well as amuse.

Life and Letters of Thomas Campbell.

Edited by W. BEATTIE, M.D. With an Introductory Letter, by WASHINGTON IRVING. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00; Half Calf, $3 00.

A charming piece of biography. In any hands, the subject could not be without intense interest, and as it has here been treated, possesses a fascination rarely found in any recent production. Free use is made of the letters of CAMPBELL, many of which are of the highest order of epistolary composition, abounding in those delicate and expressive touches which reveal the heart of the man and the genius of the poet in the purest and most beautiful light. The present edition is introduced by a letter of WASHINGTON IRVING to the publishers, in which our admirable countryman relates some personal reminiscences of Campbell with exquisite grace and felicity.

Sydney Smith's Moral Philosophy.

An Elementary Treatise on Moral Philosophy, delivered at the Royal Institution in the Years 1804, 1805, and 1806. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00; Half Calf, $1 50.

Sydney Smith's remarks are always lively, pointed, and apposite, betraying a familiar knowledge of the world, and a quick perception of the bearing and character of current events; while their caustic wit is usually tempered with an inexhaustible fountain of good humor. The work is prefaced by a commendatory letter by Lord Jeffrey, written but a few days before his death, wherein he says that these lectures "will do their author as much credit as any thing he ever wrote."

Cumming's Hunter's Life in Africa.

Five Years of a Hunter's Life in the Far Interior of South Africa. With Notices of the Native Tribes, and Anecdotes of the Chase of the Lion, Elephant, Hippopotamus, Giraffe, Rhinoceros, &c. With Illustrations. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

The writer of this work appears to be a fierce, blood-thirsty Nimrod, whose highest ideal is found in the destruction of wild beasts, and who relates his adventures with the same eagerness of passion which led him to expatriate himself from the charms of English society in the tangled depths of the African forest. Every page is redolent of gunpowder, and you almost hear the growl of the victim as he falls before the unerring shot of the mighty hunter.

Health, Disease, and Remedy,

familiarly and practically considered in a few of their Relations to the Blood. By GEORGE MOORE, M.D. 18mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

A plain, practical, common-sense treatise on hygiene, which will assist the unprofessional to form a sober estimate of physic, and enable him to second the physician's efforts to promote health. Dr. Moore's habits of thought and expression are singularly direct, and he never leaves one at a loss for his meaning.

The Body and the Mind.

The Use of the Body in Relation to the Mind. By GEORGE MOORE, M.D. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

One of the profoundest works on mind and matter which we have seen for many years. It would be impossible, without making an analytical review of the work, to express its merits.—Louisville Journal.

Mayhew on Popular Education.

A Treatise on Popular Education: for the Use of Parents and Teachers, and for young People of both Sexes. Printed and Published in accordance with a Resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Michigan. By IRA MAYHEW, late Superintendent of Public Instruction. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A volume discussing the subject of education in its multifarious aspects and relations with a thoroughness, discrimination, and ability which renders it a work of standard authority in the department to which it is devoted.

Evenings at Home;

or, the Juvenile Budget Opened. By Dr. AIKEN and Mrs. BARBAULD. With 34 Engravings by ADAMS. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Of this volume Miss Edgeworth, herself one of the most successful writers of books for the young, says, "This is one of the best books for young people that has yet appeared in the world, and the scientific and moral lessons are so happily blended as to relieve the attention."

History of the Moors in Spain.

Translated from the French, by M. FLORIAN. To which is added a Brief Account of the Rise and Decline of the Mohammedan Empire, the Literature, Science, and Religion of the Arabs, and the Present Condition of Mohammedanism. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The Moors in Spain present one of the most romantic periods in history. This is treated by M. Florian with rare ability. His descriptions of the Moorish manners and customs are very striking and accurate.

Robinson Crusoe.

The Life and Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe, of York, Mariner; with a Biographical Account of DEFOWE. Illustrated by 50 Engravings by ADAMS. Complete Edition. 12mo, Muslin, 87½ cents; Muslin, gilt edges, $1 00.

Every body has read Robinson Crusoe, and every body will read it so long as our language exists. It is the delight of the young, the relaxation of the middle-aged, and the solace of the aged. It is, to all practical intents, one of the truest books ever written. If the incidents recorded did not actually happen, they ought to have happened. Its moral tone is the purest imaginable. It is one of the few books that every reader wishes had been longer.

Iceland, Greenland, and the Faroe Islands,

an Historical and Descriptive Account of. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A book full of interesting narrative and description, embracing the results of all recent research and observation.

History of Switzerland,

from B.C. 110 to A.D. 1830. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

The historical facts in relation to the land of Tell are fairly and candidly stated; and the philosophical remarks are worthy of all consideration.

Southey's Life and Correspondence.

Edited by his Son, Rev. C. C. SOUTHHEY, M.A. Portrait. 8vo, Paper, $1 50; Muslin, $1 75; Half Calf, $2 25.

A work presenting a charming picture of the domestic habits, literary enterprises, and characteristic moral features of its eminent subject. Mr. Southey's connection with the progress of English literature during the early part of the present century, his strong political predilections, the extent and variety of his productions, and his singular devotion to a purely intellectual life, make his biography one of the most entertaining and instructive records that have been published in this department of letters. The correspondence forms almost a continuous narrative.

Southey's Common-place Book.

Edited by his Son-in-law, JOHN WOOD WARTER, B.D. 2 vols. 8vo, Paper, $1 00 per vol.; Muslin, $1 25 per vol.; Half Calf, $1 75 per vol.

A treasure for the centre-table and the library. It is full of rich and rare quotations. There is hardly a subject on which some striking observations, some memorable facts are not recorded. No scholar, man of taste, or general reader should be without it.

Southey's Nelson.

Life of Lord Nelson. By ROBERT SOUTHHEY. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The Life of Nelson is, beyond all doubt, the most perfect and most delightful of Mr. Southey's works.—Edinburgh Review.

Southey's Life of Nelson will live as long as the English language.—Fraser's Magazine.

Southey's Wesley.

Life of John Wesley; and Rise and Progress of Methodism. By ROBERT SOUTHHEY, LL.D. With Notes, by the late SAMUEL T. COLE-RIDGE, and Remarks on the Life and Character of John Wesley, by the late ALEXANDER KNOX. Edited by the Rev. CHARLES C. SOUTHHEY, M.A. Second American Edition, with Notes, &c., by the Rev. DANIEL CURRY, A.M. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

O, dear and honored Southey (Life of Wesley), the favorite of my library among many favorites! the book I can read for the twentieth time with delight when I can read nothing else at all! this darling book! I never met a human being who, in his mien and aspect, as well as in the whole habit of life, manifested such a stamp and signature of virtue as to make one's judgment of them a matter of intuition, rather than the result of continued examination.—COLE-RIDGE.

The Doctor, &c.

By ROBERT SOUTHHEY. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

What wisdom and poetry lie scattered about the pages! On one we see the amplitude of his learning; on another, the author's peculiar strain of sentiment; his pure Saxon English in a third. The commonplace book of a reader of such out-of-the-way lore as Southey loved could not fail to be replete with amusement, and possibly substantial information. It is a work which, whatever may be its faults, "the world will not willingly let die;" which will take a permanent place upon the book-shelf, and be read and enjoyed when his ponderous epics shall have passed into oblivion.—The Critic.

Autobiography of Leigh Hunt,

with Reminiscences of Friends and Contemporaries. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50; Half Calf, $2 50.

This work abounds with frequent anecdotes of Coleridge, Wordsworth, Shelley, Byron, Keats, Lamb, Hazlitt, and Moore: gives a detailed exposition of Hunt's connection with the Examiner, and his imprisonment for libel; his residence in Italy; his return to England, and his various literary projects; and describes, with the most child-like frankness, the present state of his opinions and feelings on the manifold questions which have given a direction to his intellectual activity through life. Whatever impressions it may leave as to the character of the author, there can be but one opinion as to the fascination of his easy, sprightly, gossipping style, and the interest which attaches to the literary circles, whose folding-doors he not ungracefully throws open.

Men, Women, and Books.

A Selection of Sketches, Essays, and Critical Memoirs from his uncollected Prose Writings. By LEIGH HUNT. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50; Half Calf, $2 50.

There is so much variety, and such agreeable lore of all kinds in them, such a soul of reflection, such brilliant animal spirits, and so cheerful a philosophy, that we may recommend them to people with libraries as well as to those without them. The subjects embrace almost every topic of a pleasurable and refining kind one can think of in the whole round of literature and experience—poetry, love, character, human pursuits, criticism, biography, and fantastic speculations of all conceivable sorts.

The Swiss Family Robinson;

or, Adventures of a Father, and Mother, and Four Sons on a Desert Island. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

The purpose of this story is to convey instruction in the arts and natural history, as well as to furnish entertainment. The adventures of the family shipwrecked on the desert island, and the means employed by them to supply their wants, and to provide even comforts and luxuries, are told in a natural and pleasing manner, not unworthy of the far-famed Robinson Crusoe himself.

The Swiss Family Robinson, continued.

Being the Sequel to the foregoing. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The Percy Anecdotes.

Revised Edition. To which is added a valuable Collection of American Anecdotes, Original and Select. With 14 fine Portraits. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 50.

This has long been celebrated as the most complete and valuable collection of anecdotes ever made. They relate to almost every subject, and afford an inexhaustible fund of amusement and profit. To the original work have been appended a vast number of anecdotes relating to Americans and American topics, drawn from a variety of sources. This collection is honorably distinguished from most works of its general class by the fact, that while it contains the outpouring of wit and humor, the most scrupulous care has been taken to exclude every thing in the slightest degree bordering upon profanity or vulgarity.

G. P. R. James's Novels.

Mr. James is the only conspicuous representative of the school of fiction so singularly illustrated by Sir Walter Scott. His prolific genius has given birth to a whole library of novels, on which the verdict of public opinion has set its seal of approval. In splendor of diction, ease and copiousness of description, and felicity of character-drawing, James has few rivals, and, with these merits, his popularity with the million will sustain the test of time. The historical character of many of his novels makes them agreeable sources of information. They refresh the memory of past scenes, and give a glowing illustration to the incidents of a by-gone age.

James's Chivalry and Crusades.

History of Chivalry and the Crusades. By G. P. R. JAMES. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A volume full of interest and instruction. It unfolds the rise and progress of the institution of Chivalry, and narrates the history of the adventurous attempt to wrest the Holy Land from the power of the Saracens. This true history of the Crusades exceeds in stirring adventure the scenes of the wildest romance.

James's Life of Charlemagne.

Life of Charlemagne. With an Introductory View of the History of France. By G. P. R. JAMES. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Charlemagne was one of the world's great men, and from his time most of the nations of Europe date their origin. In narrating the life of his hero, Mr. James was fully inspired with the greatness of his subject. He has shed light upon the darkness which has long overhung this most interesting and important period of history.

James's Dark Scenes.

Dark Scenes of History. By G. P. R. JAMES. 12mo, Paper, 75 cents; Muslin, $1 00.

These are the compositions in which the author excels, combining historical information with critical acumen. Eight "Dark Scenes of History" have been selected for his themes. They are all of a sanguinary and stirring kind—sad and memorable pictures of by-gone times in various countries. They are treated in a dramatic manner, and with great dramatic effect. The tragical descriptions are full of force.

James's Henry IV.

Life of Henry IV., King of France and Navarre. By G. P. R. JAMES. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 50.

His peculiar power consists in being able to describe with wonderful spirit busy and stirring scenes, to bring out into bold relief pictures of daring and courage, to delineate with a few bold strokes landscape, and occasionally to portray the deeper and finer feelings of human nature, which few succeed in handling well. There are scenes of infinite beauty and touching pathos in his works.

A Hero and other Tales.

By the Author of "Olive," "The Head of the Family," "The Ogilvies," &c. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Three tales are included in this volume: "A Hero," designed to show that true heroism is oftenest found in performing the daily duties of common life; "Bread upon the Waters," inculcating the great lesson that a patient performance of duty brings with it and secures, sooner or later, its own abundant reward; and "Alice Learmont," a fairy story, setting forth the ennobling and redeeming power of maternal love.

The Young Sailor.

A Narrative founded on Fact. By Mrs. MARY S. B. DANA. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A tale depicting the perilous incidents in the life of a sailor, showing the fearful consequences of crime, in contrast with the benign influences of virtue and religion.

Praise and Principle ;

or, For What shall I Live? By Miss M. J. M'INTOSH. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Designed to inculcate the duty of making principle the guide in all the concerns of life, and to inspire in the minds of the young the love of goodness for its own sake, not merely for the advantages it may bring.

Conquest and Self-Conquest ; or, Which makes the Hero? By Miss M. J. M'INTOSH. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

The moral of this volume is, that the noblest conquest is that which one gains over himself; the noblest rule is that of a man over his own desires and passions.

Woman an Enigma ;

or, Life and its Revealings. By Miss M. J. M'INTOSH. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

The scene of this story is laid in France, during the time of the Revolution. Its moral is to be found in the saying of Rousseau, which stands as its motto, "Patience is bitter, but its fruit is sweet."

The Cousins.

A Tale of Early Life. By Miss M. J. M'INTOSH. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A narrative of simple, every-day events in the life of childhood, designed to inculcate the beauty of a patient, forbearing temper.

Miller's Boy's Own Book.

The Boy's Own Book of the Seasons. Comprising the Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter Books. Descriptive of the Season, Scenery, Rural Life, and Country Amusements. By THOMAS MILLER. Embellished by numerous and exquisite Engravings. 4 vols. in one. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75. 4 vols. separately, Paper, 37½ cents each; Muslin, 45 cents each.

Really charming books. The writer is the most successful in describing rural scenery among the writers of the day. His scenes have all the freshness and beauty which characterizes the sketches of Miss Mitford and Washington Irving. The engravings are all exquisite, and those printed in colors surpass every thing hitherto attempted in that line.—Professor Frost.

Wealth and Worth ;

or, Which makes the Man? 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A narrative full of stirring incidents and lively description, the moral of which is, that no amount of wealth, unaccompanied by worth, is sufficient to entitle a person to respect or esteem; while genuine worth may often be found accompanied by poverty.

What's to be Done?

or, the Will and the Way. By the Author of "Wealth and Worth." 18mo, Muslin 45 cents.

This story inculcates the great lesson of life, that where there is a will there is a way, and that the only sure way to success is to act honorably and honestly.

Mayhew's Peasant-Boy Philosopher.

The Story of the Peasant-Boy Philosopher; or, "a Child gathering Pebbles on the Sea Shore." (Founded on the early Life of Ferguson, the Shepherd-Boy Astronomer, and intended to show how a poor Lad became acquainted with the Principles of Natural Science.) By HENRY MAYHEW, Author of "London Labor and the London Poor." 16mo, Muslin, ## Mayhews' Good Genius.

The Good Genius that turned every thing into Gold; or, the Queen Bee and the Magic Dress. A Christmas Tale. By the Brothers MAYHEW. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 45 cents.

A pleasant fairy tale, full of allegories, intended to convey the moral of the uses and importance of industry. The story is replete with action and surprises, and is fitted to attract and retain the attention of youth, and to inculcate upon them sound moral lessons.

Mayhews' Magic of Kindness.

The Magic of Kindness; or, the Wondrous Story of the Good Huan. By the Brothers MAYHEW. Illustrated by GEORGE CRUIKSHANK and KENNY MEADOWS. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 55 cents.

This tale is designed to inculcate the beauty and power of a spirit of kindness and self-sacrificing love in conquering the most determined spirit of cruelty and hatred. The moral of the story is wrought out with surpassing skill.

Mayhews' Image of his Father.

The Image of his Father. By the Brothers MAYHEW. With Illustrations. 18mo, Muslin, 70 cents.

Mayhews' Model Men.

Model Men, Women, and Children. By the Brothers MAYHEW. With Illustrations. 18mo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

Mayhew's London Labor.

London Labor and the London Poor in the Nineteenth Century. A Cyclopedia of the Social Condition and Earnings of the Poorer Classes of the British Metropolis, in Connection with the Country. By HENRY MAYHEW. With Engravings of the Scenes and the Persons described, copied from Daguerreotypes taken by Beard expressly for this Work. Publishing in Numbers. 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents each.

This work exhibits an appalling picture of the lower strata of civilization in London society. Mr. Mayhew's disclosures afford a pregnant commentary on the moral effects of the present intensely competitive system of labor and commerce. His revelations are startling, at times almost incredible, but always instructive. His facts are sustained by ample evidence, and are more impressive for being free from theory or speculation.

Letters to Mothers.

By Mrs. L. H. SIGOURNEY. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 90 cents.

These letters touch upon a great variety of topics of special interest to those to whom they are addressed. The privileges of the mother, the influence of children upon parents, the mutual relation of children and parents, the aims and objects in life to be inculcated, are all treated of in a manner full of grace and fine feeling. No mother can peruse this volume without gaining from it new views of her duties, and new strength to aid her in the performance of them.

Letters to Young Ladies.

By Mrs. L. H. SIGOURNEY. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 90 cents.

Mrs. Sigourney, in her "Letters to Young Ladies," has given evidence to the public that her capacity to impart instruction in matters of domestic economy, and the minor as well as the major morals that should regulate our conduct in our intercourse with the world, is equal to her power to thrill the heart and captivate the senses by her beautiful creations of poetry.—Literary Examiner.

Myrtis, and other Sketchings.

By Mrs. L. H. SIGOURNEY. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Her writings are so pure, so refined, and appeal so directly to the best feelings of the heart, that they will ever hold a prominent place in our literature while these qualities are esteemed. But few modern writers have done more good with the pen, and we trust she may long be preserved for future usefulness.—North American.

Pocahontas, and other Poems.

By Mrs. L. H. SIGOURNEY. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Her writings have endeared her name to the lovers of virtue and song every where. As a writer of verse, she has high moral aims, and though this circumstance, with ordinary talent, might entitle her to consideration, she can add the effectual claim of sterling literary excellence. Her poetry is characterized by ease, tenderness, a chastened fancy, and a delicate susceptibility of whatever is beautiful in nature or charming in truth. It may be described, in one word, as the poetry of refined religious emotion.—Chambers.

Home Pictures.

By Mrs. MARY ANDREWS DENISON. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A series of pictures of home and home scenes, as they may be supposed to have occurred in the life of a girl reared in the country, who becomes the wife of a merchant in the city. The family pass through all the vicissitudes of life—pleasure, misfortune, failure, trials, renewed struggles, ultimately crowned with success. With the main thread of the story are interwoven many episodes, such as occur in every life. The whole forms a pleasing and instructive volume.

Bryant's American Poets.

Selections from American Poets. By WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This volume of selections from the works of American poets is made by the most eminent of their number. It furnishes, as far as can be done in the compass of a single volume, proofs that our countrymen have not been wanting in the cultivation of the divine art.

Mackenzie's Life of Paul Jones.

2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

There is scarcely a more stirring life in the whole compass of literature than that of Paul Jones; and the important part he played in giving force and almost life itself to the American navy, then in its earliest infancy, renders his history peculiarly interesting and attractive. His life should be familiar to American readers; and, in the elegant, forcible, and graphic style of Commander Mackenzie, it can not fail to be universally read.

Mackenzie's Life of Commodore O. H. Perry.

With an Appendix, containing a Reply to J. Fenimore Cooper's Account of the Battle of Lake Erie. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

This is a fine piece of biography; it is both a just and true delineation of the character of that gallant and heroic commander, and a noble tribute to his memory.—Rev. Dr. Cogswell.

Mackenzie's Year in Spain.

Engravings. 3 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

One object of the writer proposed by the publication of this work was to attract the attention of his countrymen to a country which, though inferior to none in interest, had been comparatively neglected by tourists.

Mackenzie's Spain Revisited.

Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

There is a freshness in the author's descriptions exceedingly delightful; and Spain, though he has visited it before, and told of his impressions, is a new land to most travelers.

Mackenzie's American in England.

2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

These volumes contain the account of a visit by Captain Alexander Slidell Mackenzie to Great Britain, with the impressions attending his tour; also, his opinions on men and things, as contrasted with those of America. The graphic power and brilliancy of this popular writer imparts a peculiar charm to every thing that emanates from his pen.

The Soul and the Body.

The Power of the Soul over the Body, considered in Relation to Health and Morals. By GEORGE MOORE, M.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Although necessarily treading the path of metaphysical research and inquiry, the author has invested his subject with so much beauty of illustration and fascination of style as to arrest the attention of every reader. It abounds with suggestions of the highest importance to the happiness of our physical and moral being.

Man and his Motives.

By GEORGE MOORE, M.D. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Andrews's Latin-English Lexicon,

founded on the larger German-Latin Lexicon of Dr. WM. FREUND. With Additions and Corrections from the Lexicons of Gesner. Faccioliati, Scheller, Georges, &c. Royal 8vo, Sheep extra, $5 00.

The opinion of scholars, both in this country and Great Britain, is unanimous in its favor, as the best lexicon yet published in any language. It constitutes the most valuable philological and historical index of the language, in its successive periods, that has been given to the world. Its excellence, in every essential quality of a Latin Lexicon, can not be too highly estimated. The unequalled fullness in the vocabulary, the philosophical arrangement of the definitions, the abundant references to the Roman authors which support these definitions, the designation of the words as classical or otherwise, with the period to which each word belongs, and the nice attention to the quantity of syllables which runs through the whole, altogether constitute a group of excellences which place this lexicon far above any other of the kind.

The beauty of the typography, which is clean, neat, and judiciously varied, has met with unqualified approbation. The lexicon has already, to a great extent, superseded those in common use, as the cheapest and most acceptable aid to the acquisition of the noble language of Virgil and Cicero.

Halleck's British Poets.

Selections from British Poets. By FITZ-GREENE HALLECK. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

This selection has been made with great care from the whole field of British Poetry. The production of the great bards who have adorned our noble mother-tongue are presented in chronological order, the selections made from each author standing together. The utmost care has been taken to choose the passages of the highest poetical excellence and of the purest moral aim. Not a line has been admitted which can offend the nicest taste or the most modest delicacy. This collection includes the choicest gems of English poetry.

Mary Barton.

By Mrs. GASKELL. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

English literature can boast of no living female prose writer who combines a style of such blended sweetness and strength as the author of "Mary Barton."

North and South.

By the Author of "Mary Barton." 8vo, Paper, 37½ cents.

Equally remarkable with "Mary Barton" for its keen perception of character and motives, its fine touches of humanity, its comprehensive and genial sympathies, and the combined terseness and grace of its style.

Cranford.

By the Author of "Mary Barton," "North and South," &c. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

The Moorland Cottage.

By the Author of "Mary Barton," "Cranford," &c. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Mackenzie's Works.

Novels and Miscellaneous Works of Henry Mackenzie: comprising "The Man of Feeling," "The Man of the World," "Julia de Roubigné," &c. With a Memoir of the Author, by Sir WALTER SCOTT. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Of Mackenzie's works Professor Wilson, the famous "Christopher North," of Blackwood's Magazine, thus speaks: "The beautiful visions of his pathetic imagination had stamped a soft and delicious, but deep and indelible impression on my mind long before I had heard the name of criticism. The very names of the heroes and heroines of his delightful stories sounded in my ears like the echoes of some old romantic melody, too simple and too beautiful to have been framed in these degenerate, over-scientific days."

Brande's Encyclopedia.

A Dictionary of Science, Literature, and Art: comprising the History, Description, and Scientific Principles of every Branch of Human Knowledge; with the Derivation and Definition of all the Terms in general use. Illustrated by numerous Engravings on Wood. 8vo, Sheep extra, $4 00.

This valuable work, for accurate information upon a vast variety of subjects, brought up to the present day and carefully digested, is unrivaled and unequalled. Clear and authentic, copious without prolixity, it does not furnish a bald explanation of facts and terms, but a development of principles well illustrated and explained. While it is sufficiently full and copious to supersede the necessity for the more gigantic works of an encyclopedic character, no mere cyclopædia can supply its place.

Crabb's English Synonyms

explained. With copious Illustrations and Explanations, drawn from the best Writers. 8vo, Sheep extra, $2 00.

This work is well calculated to facilitate the inquirer in his researches into the power, origin, and meaning of our language. It consists of a patient examination of words in all their bearings, and a collection of remarks on the peculiar uses of each, that are highly valuable. Wherever the English language is spoken, this book will prove of utility, and, next to the Bible and Dictionary, should have a place in every household.

Hale's History of the United States,

from their first Settlement as Colonies to the Close of the Administration of Mr. Madison in 1817. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents. A valuable compendium, and useful as an introduction to the study of larger and more complete works. It embraces the whole period of our history, both colonial and independent.

A Year with the Franklins;

or, to Suffer and be Strong. By Miss E. J. CATE. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A domestic story of that character which captivates the attention by the simple and unsophisticated style of its narrative, and elevates the soul by its tone of purity and resignation.

Liddell and Scott's Greek-English Lexicon,

based on the German Work of FRANCIS PASSOW. With Corrections and Additions, and the Insertion, in Alphabetical Order, of the Proper Names occurring in the principal Greek Authors, by HENRY DRISLER, M.A. Royal 8vo, Sheep extra, $5 00.

The work of Liddell and Scott is esteemed by scholars as incomparably the best Greek lexicon ever published. It is constructed on the true principles of lexicography, and presents, besides the clear and consistent signification of each word, its history, the changes it has undergone, and especially its usage in each of the great eras of the language. On the score of completeness, accuracy, comprehensiveness, and scholarship, the work is not to be named in comparison with Donnegan, or any other Greek-English lexicon. Its publication was hailed with great satisfaction by all professors and teachers of the Greek language, and has done much to advance Greek learning among us.

A significant testimonial to its value is to be found in the fact that, from its first appearance, this lexicon was adopted in the English schools to the exclusion of all others, received the stamp of public approbation, and was awarded the palm of decided superiority over the only other lexicons of equal pretension that were then in use.

Professor Drisler has not only carefully prepared the work, but has added largely to its value, especially by the insertion of all the proper names in their alphabetical order.

Yonge's English-Greek Lexicon :

containing all the Greek Words used by Writers of good Authority, in Chronological Order, for every Word used; explaining the Construction, and giving the Declension or Conjugation of each Word when Irregular, and marking the Quantities of all doubtful Syllables. Edited, with large Additions, by HENRY DRISLER, M.A. Royal 8vo, Sheep extra. (In press.)

This is the first really accurate and complete work of the kind that has been given to scholars either on this or the other side of the Atlantic, and is the only separate English-Greek Dictionary ever published in this country. It must at once displace those dictionaries which, notwithstanding their defects and inaccuracies, have hitherto held their places in academies and colleges because there was no better. The work has been carefully and faithfully revised and corrected by Prof. Drisler, of Columbia College; and, as there was no English-Greek part to his edition of Liddell and Scott's Dictionary, this edition of Yonge's English-Greek Lexicon is necessary to complete that incomparable Dictionary.

A Greek-English and English-Greek Lexicon,

Harrison's Latin Grammar.

An Exposition of some of the Laws of the Latin Grammar. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This is not a mere school-book, but a substantial and most acceptable contribution to philological science—adapted, at the same, for use in college classes. The book abounds in acute distinctions.

Robinson's Greek Lexicon of the Testament.

A Greek and English Lexicon of the New Testament. A new Edition, revised, and in great part rewritten. Royal 8vo, Muslin, $4 50; Sheep extra, $4 75; Half Calf, $5 00.

The excellence of this edition of the "Greek and English Lexicon" is found in many particulars: 1. It embodies the results of the labors of the best lexicographers and grammarians down to the present time, together with the author's own materials, accumulated during his whole professional life, and including his personal explorations in the land of the Bible; 2. It is marked by the presiding influence of good judgment in the combination and use of these materials; 3. It combines the qualities both of a Concordance and Commentary. How completely the first edition supplied a great want in the theological literature of the day readers will readily judge, from the fact that three rival editions of it were speedily reprinted in London and Edinburgh, besides two subsequent abridgements.

Buttmann's Greek Grammar.

For the use of High Schools and Universities. Revised and enlarged by his Son, ALEXANDER BUTTMANN. Translated from the 18th German Edition, by EDWARD ROBINSON, D.D., LL.D. 8vo, Sheep extra, $2 00.

Buttmann's Grammar still retains its place as the Classical and National Greek Grammar of Germany. Two large editions of the translation made from the thirteenth edition have appeared in this country. The present, made from the eighteenth edition of the original, brings the subject of Greek Grammar down to the close of 1849. The objections formerly sometimes made to the comparative meagerness of the Syntax are now done away. In its present form, the Syntax is perhaps surpassed in symmetry and fullness by no other one of a like character; while few, if any, can compare with it in clearness, precision, and practical utility.

Buttmann is unquestionably one of the most accurate and reliable of grammarians. His grammar is surpassed by none of the recent works in accuracy, brevity, and adaptation to the wants of a student.

Fowler's English Language,

in its Elements and Forms. With a History of its Origin and Development, and a full Grammar. Designed for use in Colleges and Schools. New and revised Edition. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Sheep extra, $1 75.

A profound treatise on the philosophy of Grammar. It treats of the English language in its elements and forms, giving a copious history of its origin and development, and ascending to the original principles on which its construction is founded. There is no work on the subject that is better adapted for a text-book in collegiate instruction, for which purpose it is especially designed by the author. At the same time, it forms an invaluable aid to more advanced students in the niceties of our language, and may be of service to the most practical writers, by showing them the raw material out of which they cunningly weave together their most finished and beautiful fabrics.

Virgil.

The Eclogues, Georgics, and Aeneid of Virgil. The Eclogues translated by WRANGHAM; the Georgics, by SOTHEBY; and the Aeneid, by DAYDEN. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Webster's Royal Octavo Dictionary.

Exhibiting the Origin, Orthography, Pronunciation, and Definition of Words. To which are added a Synopsis of Words, differently pronounced by different Orthoepists; and Walker's Key to the Classical Pronunciation of Greek, Latin, and Scripture Proper Names. A new Edition, revised and enlarged, by CHAUNCEY A. GOODRICH, D.D., Professor in Yale College. With the Addition of a Vocabulary of Modern Geographical Names, with their Pronunciation. This Edition contains all the Words in the Quarto Edition, and also an arrangement of Synonyms under the leading Words—a new and important feature, and not to be found in any other Work. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 50.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THIS EDITION AS A SCHOOL DICTIONARY ARE,

1. It has been made a Dictionary of Synonyms—a new and very important feature, not to be found in the same form in any similar work.
2. Several thousand additional words have been incorporated in this edition, embracing all the terms given in the recent edition in the quarto form.
3. The Synopsis and Walker's Key to the classical pronunciation of Greek, Latin, and Scripture proper names have been revised with much care and greatly improved; also, a complete Vocabulary, giving the pronunciation of modern Geographical names, has been added.
4. Great attention has been given in the revision to the pronunciation. A large number of words having been respelled, it will now be found to be a complete Pronouncing Dictionary.
5. The utmost care has been given in every department of the work to render it the most perfect and satisfactory ever offered to the public. Considering its comprehensiveness, its numerous essential improvements, and its general utility, combined with its portability, it will be found one of the most indispensable and cheapest books of the times.

It is the most complete work of the kind yet published. The definitions are clear and concise, presenting briefly the various meanings and shades of meaning belonging to each word. It contains an immense number of words connected with every department of literature, art, and science not to be found in the ordinary dictionaries. The pronunciation is satisfactorily indicated, and, in most cases, the synonyms of the words defined are added—a great advantage to persons engaged in literary composition. Further, the work includes a synopsis of words differently pronounced by different orthoepists, Walker's Key to the pronunciation of Greek, Latin, and Scripture proper names, and a vocabulary of modern geographical names, with their pronunciation.

Proudfit's Plantus.

"The Captives." A Comedy of Plautus. With English Notes for the use of Students. By JOHN PROUDFIT, D.D. 18mo, Paper, 37½ cents.

"The Captives" has generally been esteemed a masterpiece of the father and prince of Roman comedy. It is free from the immoralities which a rude and licentious age has impressed on most of his productions; it contains much to illustrate the deeply interesting subject of ancient slavery; its plot possesses unusual variety and interest; and it abounds in the most beautiful and impressive moral sentiments.

Anthon's Classical Series.

* * * THE plan proposed in the following series is to give editions of all the authors usually read in our schools and colleges, together with such elementary and subsidiary works as may be needed by the classical student, either at the commencement or at particular stages of his career.

The advantages which this series promises to confer are the following : the latest and best texts ; accurate commentaries, putting the student and instructor in possession of the opinions of the best philologists ; together with all such subsidiary historical and archaeological information as may serve not only to throw light upon the meaning of the author, but also to give rise, in the young student, to habits of correct thinking and to the formation of a correct taste.

Many of the works at present used in our classical schools are either miserably edited reprints of antiquated editions, swarming with errors, not only in the typography, but in the matter itself ; or else they are volumes fair to the view, indeed, as far as regards mere mechanical execution, but either supplied with meager and unsatisfactory commentaries, or without any commentaries at all.

Anthon's Latin Lessons.

Latin Grammar, Part I. Containing the most important Parts of the Grammar of the Latin Language, together with appropriate Exercises in the translating and writing of Latin. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

The object of this work is to make the young student practically acquainted, at each step of his progress, with those portions of the grammar which relate principally to the declension of nouns and conjugation of verbs.

Anthon's Latin Prose Composition.

Latin Grammar, Part II. An Introduction to Latin Prose Composition, with a complete Course of Exercises, illustrative of all the important Principles of Latin Syntax. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

The present work is intended to elucidate all the important principles and rules of the Latin Syntax. These two parts form a Grammar of the Latin language, possessing this decided advantage over other grammars, in its containing a Complete Course of Exercises, which have a direct bearing on each step of the student's progress.

A Key to Latin Composition

is published, which may be obtained by Teachers. 12mo, Half Sheep, 50 cents.

Anthon's Latin Syntax.

Latin Lessons, Part II. Containing Latin Syntax, with Reading Lessons, and Exercises in double translation, on the Basis of Kühner's. 12mo, Sheep extra. (Uniform with "Latin Lessons, Part I.") In press.

Zumpt's Latin Grammar.

From the Ninth Edition of the Original, adapted to the use of English Students. By LEONHARD SCHMITZ, Ph.D. Corrected and enlarged, by CHARLES ANTHON, LL.D. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents. A book which well deserves its great celebrity, and the high esteem in which it is held. It is the best Latin Grammar in existence, and ought to be in the library of not only every Latin student, but every Latin scholar.

Zumpt's Abridgment.

12mo, Sheep extra, 50 cents.

Anthon's Latin Versification.

In a Series of Progressive Exercises, including Specimens of Translation from English and German Poetry into Latin Verse. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This work contains a full series of rules for the structure of Latin verse, accompanied by a complete course of exercises for practical application, and renders this hitherto difficult branch of study comparatively easy and pleasant of attainment. It forms the fourth and concluding part of the Latin lessons.

A Key to Latin Versification

is published, which may be obtained by Teachers. 12mo, Half Sheep, 50 cents.

Anthon's Latin Prosody and Metre.

From the best Authorities, Ancient and Modern. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

In this volume, which may be regarded as the third part of the Latin lessons, the young scholar will find every rule for the determination of quantity and pronunciation, not only at the commencement, but also throughout the several stages of his academic career.

Anthon's Cæsar.

Cæsar's Commentaries on the Gallic War, and the First Book of the Greek Paraphrase; with English Notes, Critical and Explanatory, Plans of Battles, Sieges, &c., and Historical, Geographical, and Archaeological Indexes. Map, Portrait, &c. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

The present edition of Cæsar is on the same plan as the Sallust and Cicero of the editor. The explanatory notes have been specially prepared for the use of beginners, and nothing has been omitted that may tend to assist the student to a thorough comprehension of the work. A Greek paraphrase is given at the close, partly as a literary novelty, and partly as an easy introduction to Greek studies. The illustrations, embracing plans of battles, sieges, bridges, &c., will prove of great use to the learner.

Anthon's Eneid of Virgil.

With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory, a Metrical Clavis, and an Historical, Geographical, and Mythological Index. Portrait and many Illustrations. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 25.

The text is illustrated with elaborate notes in plain English, some etymological, some historical, some critical, but all tending to introduce the student to an intimate acquaintance with the poet, and to make an intellectual pleasure of labors which, under the old plan, were a mere mechanical drudgery. This is the best edition of Virgil, not for the learner only, but for the library, which has yet been published.

Anthon's Elegiacs and Georgics of Virgil.

With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 25.

In this edition of Virgil's pastoral poems, that elegant ancient author is more fully and clearly annotated and explained than he has ever yet been in any language.

Anthon's Sallust.

Sallust's Jugurthine War and Conspiracy of Catiline. With an English Commentary, and Geographical and Historical Indexes. New Edition, corrected and enlarged. Portrait. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

The commentary includes every thing requisite for accurate preparation on the part of the student, and a correct understanding of the author.

Anthon's Horace.

The Works of Horace. With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory. A new Edition, corrected and enlarged, with Excursions relative to the Vines and Vineyards of the Ancients; a Life of Horace, &c. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 25.

This work enables the student to become familiar with the beauties of the poet. The plan pursued by Professor Anthon affords just the aid required to make his studies easy and agreeable, and to attract him still further on in the path of scholarship.

Anthon's Cicero.

Cicero's Select Orations. With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory, and Historical, Geographical, and Legal Indexes. An improved Edition. Portrait. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

The text of this edition is based upon that of Ernesti; and the notes are comprehensive and copious, laying open to the young scholar the train of thought contained in the Orations, so as to enable him to appreciate, in their full force and beauty, these brilliant memorials of other days, and carefully and fully explaining the allusions in which the orator is fond of indulging.

Anthon's Cicero de Senectute,

De Amicitia, and Paradoxa, and the Life of Atticus by Nipos. With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

Anthon's Cicero's Tusculan Disputations.

With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

While the English notes, whether critical or explanatory, are as copious and comprehensive as the most abstruse commentary, they are, at the same time, so simple and so luminous as to be within the scope of the most ordinary intellect.

Anthon's Tacitus.

The Germania and Agricola, and also Selections from the Annals of Tacitus. With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory. Revised and enlarged Edition. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

The notes are all that notes can be—copious, but not diffuse, luminous, and replete with varied and most entertaining knowledge.

Anthon's Cornelius Nepos.

Cornelii Nepotis Vitæ Imperatorum. With English Notes, &c.
12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

This is by far the best edition that has yet been published. It is prepared in that very style which will encourage the student to alacrity and perseverance, by giving him the requisite amount of aid and information.

Anthon's Ovid.

Selections from the Metamorphoses of Ovid. With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory. 12mo, Sheep extra. (In press.)

Anthon's Juvenal.

The Satires of Juvenal. With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory. 12mo, Sheep extra. (In press.)

Anthon's Terence.

Terentii Comœdæ, with English Notes, Metrical Tables, and an Essay on the Scanning of Terence, &c. 12mo, Sheep extra. (In press.)

Anthon's First Greek Lessons,

containing the most important Parts of the Grammar of the Greek Language, together with appropriate Exercises in the translating and writing of Greek, for the use of Beginners. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This work is intended to render the study of the Greek inflections more inviting to beginners, and better calculated, at the same time, to produce an abiding impression.

Anthon's Greek Prose Composition.

Greek Lessons, Part II. An Introduction to Greek Prose Composition, with a complete Course of Exercises illustrative of all the important Principles of Greek Syntax. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

The present work forms the second part of the Greek Lessons. The object of the editor has been to make the student more fully acquainted than could be done in an ordinary grammar with all the important principles of the Greek Syntax. In order to impress these principles more fully upon the mind of the pupil, they are accompanied by exercises explanatory of the same. This is the only mode of familiarizing the student with the niceties of Greek construction, and has never been carried out to so full an extent in any similar work.

Anthon's Greek Grammar.

For the use of Schools and Colleges. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This is a progressive Greek Grammar. Nothing has therefore been omitted the want of which might in any degree retard the student's progress; and yet, at the same time, the work has been brought within such limits as to render it easy of reference, and to exhibit a concise outline of the leading principles of Greek philology.

Anthon's New Greek Grammar.

From the German of Kühner, Matthiae, Buttmann, Rost, and Thiersch; to which are appended Remarks on the Pronunciation of the Greek Language, and Chronological Tables explanatory of the same. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

In order to render this grammar more useful to the student, recourse has been had to the writings of the latest and best of the German grammarians; and the present work will be found to contain all the information on the subject necessary to be known by the student of Greek. It contains more numerous and complete exemplifications of declension and conjugation than any that has preceded it.

Anthon's Greek Prosody and Metre.

For the use of Schools and Colleges; together with the Choral Scanning of the Prometheus Vinctus of Æschylus, and Oedipus Tyrannus of Sophocles, to which are appended Remarks on the Indo-Germanic Analogies. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This work aims to give what is permanently useful in a simple and inviting style. The Appendix, containing remarks on the analogies of language, will be found interesting to every scholar. This work, like the others of the series, has been republished in England, and forms the text-book at King's College School, London, as well as in other quarters.

Anthon's Greek Reader.

Principally from the German of Jacobs. With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory, a Metrical Index from Homer and Anacreon, and a copious Lexicon. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

This Reader is edited on the same plan as the author's other editions of the classics, and has given universal satisfaction to all teachers who have adopted it. That plan supposes an ignorance of the pupil of all but the very first principles of the language, and a need, on his part, of guidance through its intricacies, aiming to enlighten that ignorance and supply sufficient guidance.

Anthon's Xenophon's Anabasis.

With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory, a Map arranged according to the latest and best Authorities, and a Plan of the Battle of Cunaza. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 25.

Among the materials employed are some which have never as yet been made use of in preparing any American edition of the Anabasis. The text is based upon that published by Prof. Long, of the London University, though in many instances conformed to the editions of Schneider.

Anthon's Xenophon's Memorabilia of Socrates.

From the Text of Kühner. With Explanatory Notes, &c., by D. B. HICKIE, LL.D. First American Edition, corrected and enlarged. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

Prof. Anthon, in the preparation of this work, has rendered a service to the cause of education for which every classical student, and every person who desires to possess a thorough acquaintance with ancient literature will be duly thankful. It has been his object to bring together, within a reasonable compass, whatever may tend to heighten the interest of the original work or furnish the student with collateral stores of information.

Anthon's Homer.

The First Six Books of Homer's Iliad, to which are appended English Notes, Critical and Explanatory, a Metrical Index, and Homeric Glossary. New and enlarged Edition. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 25.

The present work contains what is useful to the young student in furthering his acquaintance with the classical language and noble poetry of Homer. The Glossary renders any other Homeric dictionary almost useless.

Anthon's Euripides.

The Hecuba, Hippolitus, Medea, and Bacchae of Euripides. With English Notes, Critical and Explanatory. 12mo, Sheep extra. (In press.)

Anthon's Manual of Greek Antiquities.

From the best and most recent Sources. 12mo, Sheep extra, 87½ cents.

Anthon's Manual of Roman Antiquities.

From the most recent German Works. With a Description of the City of Rome, &c. 12mo, Sheep extra, 87½ cents.

These manuals, in a moderate space, comprise an amount of knowledge on the subject of Roman and Greek antiquities which is of great value to the young student, and most convenient as books of ready reference to the more advanced scholar.

Anthon's Mythology.

Manual of Greek and Roman Mythology. 12mo, Sheep extra. (In press.)

Anthon's Manual of Greek Literature.

With a Critical History of the Greek Language. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

Neither teacher or student should be without this manual. It will enable them to take a far higher interest in their lectures and readings in classical literature. Its brevity and comprehensiveness render it of great value to the general reader.

Smith's Dictionary of Antiquities.

A Dictionary of Greek and Roman Antiquities, from the best Authorities, and embodying all the recent Discoveries of the most eminent German Philologists and Jurists. First American Edition, corrected and enlarged, and containing also numerous Articles relative to the Botany, Mineralogy, and Zoology of the Ancients, by CHARLES ANTHON, LL.D. Royal 8vo, Sheep extra, $4 00.

As a dictionary, this is the best aid to the study of classical antiquity which we possess in our language. Valuable as it must be to the student of ancient literature, it will be of scarcely less service to the student of ancient art, for the illustrations have been selected with care and judgment.

The articles are admirably done ; they are terse in style, and pregnant, yet not cumbrously so, with accurate knowledge—the best and latest authorities are constantly cited. It is a work much wanted, and is invaluable to the young student, and, as a book of reference, it will be most acceptable on the library table of every scholar.

Smith's Antiquities Abridged,

by the Authors. 12mo, Half Sheep, 90 cents.

Anthon's Classical Dictionary.

Containing an Account of the principal Proper Names mentioned in Ancient Authors, and intended to elucidate all the important Points connected with the Geography, History, Biography, Mythology, and Fine Arts of the Greeks and Romans, together with an Account of the Coins, Weights, and Measures of the Ancients, with Tabular Values of the same. Royal 8vo, Sheep extra, $4 00.

The scope of this great work is very extensive, and comprises information respecting the most important branches of classical knowledge. Here may be found a complete Encyclopedia of Ancient Geography, History, Biography, and Mythology. The department of the Fine Arts forms an entirely new feature ; embracing biographies of ancient artists, and criticisms upon their productions. The work is not only indispensable to the classical teacher and student, but eminently useful to the professional man, and forms a necessary part of every library that aims to be complete.

Smith's New Classical Dictionary

of Greek and Roman Biography, Mythology, and Geography. Edited by CHARLES ANTHON, LL.D. Royal 8vo, Sheep extra, $2 50.

The numberless inaccuracies of Lemprière have caused his great work to go almost into disuse, and the present edition of Smith's Dictionary, with the improvements of Dr. Anthon, whose reputation is now world-wide as a scholar, will find its way into the hands of every school-boy who has money to purchase it, and a teacher with sense enough to tell his pupils what books are indispensable to them.

Anthon's Latin-English Dictionary.

A Latin-English and English-Latin Dictionary, for the use of Schools. Chiefly from the Lexicons of Freund, Georges, and Kaltenschmidt. Small 4to, Sheep, $2 00.

A valuable work, well adapted for the use of schools. No American scholar could judge more accurately of the wants of our schools in this department, or more ably supply them than Dr. Anthon. The characteristics of a good lexicon are every where apparent. The word to be defined is printed in distinct capitals, which greatly facilitates the work of the student who has to make frequent reference to his dictionary. The quantity of the text-word is also carefully marked, and the different parts of the word given, while, if it be a derivative word, its Greek or Latin root or original is also given; and the definitions are brief, comprehensive, and correct.

Riddle and Arnold's English-Latin Lexicon,

founded on the German-Latin Dictionary of Dr. C. E. GEORGES. First American Edition, carefully revised, and containing a copious Dictionary of Proper Names from the best Sources. By CHARLES ANTHON, LL.D. Royal 8vo, Sheep extra, $4 00.

There is no such Thesaurus of Latin equivalents for English expressions; all others are meagre in the comparison. It is the only English-Latin Dictionary that a student can consult with a reasonable hope of finding what he wants, or with any certainty of being able to trust what he finds; and, as such, it must supersede every similar work now in use in schools and colleges in the United States, as it has already done in England.

Anthon's Ancient and Mediæval Geography.

For the use of Schools and Colleges. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Sheep extra, $1 75.

Findlay's Classical Atlas,

to illustrate Ancient Geography. Comprised in 25 Maps, showing the various Divisions of the World as known to the Ancients. With an Index of the Ancient and Modern Names. 8vo, Half Bound, $3 25.

This atlas will be found to answer all the purposes of the student. It is undoubtedly the best collection of maps, for its size, that has hitherto appeared, and the interesting information contained in the introduction renders the work doubly valuable.—CHARLES ANTHON, LL.D., Columbia College.

Spencer's Greek New Testament,

with English Notes, Critical, Philological, and Exegetical, on the Gospels and Acts; Maps, Indexes, &c. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00; Sheep extra, $1 25.

An attempt to furnish such matter in the notes as will render the historical books of the New Testament suitable for general use in colleges, academies, and theological seminaries. The notes are principally devoted to the settling of the text, the critical meaning of the original Greek, the illustration of geography, history, and antiquities of the New Testament, together with the exegesis of the more important passages relating to the cardinal doctrines of the Gospel. Each book has a brief introduction prefixed; and there are several maps, copious indexes, &c., attached.

Salkeld's Roman and Grecian Antiquities, including a Sketch of Ancient Mythology. With Maps, &c. 12mo, Muslin, $7½ cents.

The merits of this work consist in the systematic order and arrangement of the subject, and in the full information given, not only upon Roman and Grecian antiquities, but upon the kindred topic of heathen mythology.

Salkeld's First Book in Spanish;

or, a Practical Introduction to the Study of the Spanish Language. Adapted to every Class of Learners; containing full Instructions in Pronunciation; a Grammar; Reading Lessons, &c. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

I can with truth say that I have never met with a work professing to teach any foreign language which combines so many excellent qualities, and is so well adapted for all classes of learners. It contains all that the pupil needs, and in a very convenient compass. The judicious arrangement of your work especially pleases me.—Don JULIO CIRILO DE MOLINA, formerly Professor of the English, Spanish, and French Languages in the Cities of Madrid, Paris, and London.

Mrs. Markham's History of France,

from the Conquest of Gaul by Julius Caesar to the Reign of Louis Philippe. With Conversations at the end of each Chapter. For the use of Young Persons. Edited by JACOB ABBOTT. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

The History of France, by Mrs. Markham, is a very clear, succinct, and entertaining narrative. It seems well adapted to its purpose of communicating a distinct and connected idea of the progress of events of which that most remarkable country has been the scene. A very full and carefully executed map of France, not contained in the original work, has been provided for this edition; and in respect to all places of any importance mentioned in the work, there are notes of reference to facilitate finding them upon the map.

Tytler's Universal History,

from the Creation of the World to the Decease of George III., 1820. 6 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $2 70.

The object of the work is to furnish a regular plan for the important study of history, and to unite with the detail of facts so much of reflection as to aid the mind in the formation of rational views of the causes and consequences of events, as well as the policy of the actors. The author has also endeavored to give due share of attention to the state of the arts and sciences, the religion, laws, government, and manners of nations, which he has treated in distinct sections and at particular periods.

Horace and Phædrus.

The Odes, Satires, and Epistles of Horace, translated by PHILIP FRANCIS, D.D. With Versions of various Odes, by MILTON, DRYDEN, POPE, ADDISON, BYRON, and others. To which are appended the Fables of Phædrus, with the Appendix of GUDIUS. Translated by C. SMART, A.M. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Parker's Outlines of General History.

Designed as the Foundation and Review of a Course of Historical Reading. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

These Questions on History have been constructed upon the plan suggested by Sir WALTER SCOTT in his letter to Lord MONTAGUE, where he says, "For this species of instruction, I do not so much approve of tasks and set hours for serious reading, as the plan of endeavoring to impart a taste for history to the youths themselves, and suffering them to gratify it in their own way. The knowledge which we acquire at freewill, and by spontaneous exertion, is like food eaten with an appetite—it digests well, and benefits the system ten times more than the double cramming of an alderman." The design of this work is to lay the substratum for a course of historical reading, which may be either spontaneously or systematically assigned. In a word, to present a panoramic view of history, giving its outlines in an abbreviated form, divested of minor and tedious details, and thus inspire a love of study. The work is equally adapted to schools and families.

Parker's Aids to English Composition,

prepared for the Student of all Grades, embracing Specimens and Examples of School and College Exercises, and most of the higher Departments of English Composition, both in Prose and Verse. A new Edition, with Additions and Improvements. 12mo, Muslin, 80 cents; Sheep extra, 90 cents.

The public have so long been familiar with this excellent volume, that it is unnecessary to say any thing in its praise. It is replete with most valuable and instructive matter, admirably adapted to students, and indispensable to all who appreciate the advantages of acquiring elegance in diction and literary composition. It is just such a work as every man who attempts to prepare any thing for the press ought to possess and study.

Parker's Geographical Questions,

adapted for the use of Morse's, Woodbridge's, Worcester's, Mitchell's, Field's, Malte-Brun's, Smith's, Olney's, Goodrich's, or any other respectable Collection of Maps: embracing, by way of Question and Answer, such Portions of the Elements of Geography as are necessary as an Introduction to the Study of the Maps. To which is added a concise Description of the Terrestrial Globe. 12mo, Muslin, 20 cents.

These Questions embrace none of the tedious and uninteresting details of geography. They are designed to simplify the study of this important science, by means of the useful and important process of classification. There are few questions among them that can not be answered from any respectable atlas; they will prove useful and convenient on this account, as they may be used without subjecting a class of pupils to the expense frequently attendant on a required uniformity of maps. These Questions are already used in some of the leading schools in New England.

Cicero's Offices, Orations, &c.

The Orations, translated by DUNCAN; the Offices, by COCKMAN; and the Cato and Lelius, by MELMOTH. Portrait. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 25.

✓ Robertson's Discovery of America.

History of the Discovery of America. By WILLIAM ROBERTSON, LL.D. With an Account of his Life and Writings. With Questions for the Examination of Students, by JOHN FROST, A.M. Engravings. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 50. Abridged, 18mo, 45 cents.

The most interesting and fascinating work of this historian, which joins the wonders of romance and the most exquisite graces of style to the philosophy of history. It is a model of historical excellence, and can not fail to delight and instruct; and there is, perhaps, no book in the language better adapted for the purpose of private tuition, or as a class-book in establishments for education.

Robertson's Charles V.

History of the Emperor Charles V.; with a View of the Progress of Society in Europe, to the Beginning of the Sixteenth Century. With Questions for the Examination of Students, by JOHN FROST, A.M. Engravings. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 50. Abridged, 18mo, 45 cents.

His writings are equally remarkable for their elegance and perspicuity. In his History of Charles V., the knowledge displayed by the historian, and the enlarged and liberal spirit of his philosophical inquiries are not the least worthy of commendation.—Chambers.

Robertson's Scotland and Ancient India.

History of Scotland and Ancient India. A History of Scotland during the Reigns of Queen Mary and King James VI till his Accession to the Crown of England. With a Review of the Scottish History previous to that Period. Included in the same Volume is a Dissertation concerning Ancient India. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 50.

Keightley's History of England,

from the earliest Period to 1839. With Notes, &c., by an American. 5 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $2 25.

The History of England has been generally applauded for its ability and candor. It is the best work for youthful readers upon the subject, and is likely to take the place of all others with the great mass of readers.

Lowry's Universal Atlas.

Constructed and engraved from the most recent Authorities. 4to, Half Roan, $5 00.

This atlas contains one hundred Maps of the various countries of the world, with a convenient and copious Index. These Maps are constructed on proportional scales, which are distinguished by precise indications, and afford every facility for ready and accurate comparison of different portions of the earth's surface. They are executed with remarkable neatness, and, embodying the latest geographical discoveries, will be found highly valuable, both for seminaries of learning and the private student.

The Tragedies of Sophocles.

Translated by T. FRANCKLIN, D.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Goldsmith's History of Greece.

Abridged by the Author. Edited by the Author of "American Popular Lessons." 18mo, Half Sheep, 45 cents.

Goldsmith's History of Rome.

Abridged by the Author. Edited by H. W. HERBERT. 18mo, Half Sheep, 45 cents.

Few writers have equaled, and still fewer excelled, the elegant and graceful style of Goldsmith. Those who may read these works will not only inform themselves of the leading facts of Grecian and Roman history, but may, at the same time, imbibe from their perusal a love of the beautiful in diction and expression—as necessary in the culture of the mind as the knowledge of events.

Goldsmith's Poetical Works.

Illustrated by Wood Engravings, from the Designs of C. W. Cope, A.R.A., Thomas Creswick, J. C. Horsley, R. Redgrave, A.R.A., and Frederic Tayler, Members of the Etching Club. With a Biographical Memoir, and Notes on the Poems. Edited by BOLTON CORNEY. 8vo, Muslin, gilt edges, $1 75; Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, $3 00.

Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield.

18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Clarke's Elements of Algebra :

embracing also the Theory and Application of Logarithms; together with an Appendix, containing Infinite Series, the General Theory of Equations, and the most approved Methods of resolving the higher Equations. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 00.

The object of this treatise is to present to the student a full and systematic textbook of practical and theoretical elementary algebra. Within a brief compass, the author has embraced a more comprehensive view of the science than is to be found in any similar work. The work has been extensively adopted in numerous academies and schools in different sections of the country.

Comte's Philosophy of Mathematics.

Translated from the Cours de Philosophie Positive, by W. M. GILLESPIE, A.M. 8vo, Muslin, $1 25.

We rejoice that an American scholar has undertaken and so ably executed a translation of a work which has been so favorably received and so highly commended by the first scientific men of Europe. For comprehensiveness of scope, for clearness of statement and exposition, for breadth of inquiry and depth of thought, we esteem it superior to any work in this department of science with which we are acquainted.—Evangelical Review.

The Tragedies of Euripides.

Translated by Rev. R. POTTER, M.A. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 30.

Morse's School Geography.

A new System of Geography, for the use of Schools. Illustrated by more than 50 Cerographic Maps, and numerous Engravings on Wood. 4to, Half Bound, 50 cents.

This popular new school geography, entirely original in its plan, is extremely beautiful in its pictorial embellishments, lucid and simple in its adaptation to the purposes of popular instruction, as well as by far the cheapest of all works of the kind ever produced. Since its publication over half a million copies have been printed.

The Public School Society of the city of New York have unanimously adopted Morse's School Geography into their extensive schools, and it has been generally introduced into those of Philadelphia and elsewhere.

The superiority of this Geography over all others, consists in,

1. The Arrangement is such that the Map, Questions on the Map, and Description of each country are on the same page, or on pages directly opposite, enabling the pupil to refer readily from one to the other, without the inconvenience of two books, or even the necessity of turning the leaf.

2. The Maps are more numerous, and generally on a larger scale than in any other School Geography.

3. The Exercises on the Map are so framed as to present a connected view of the great features of each country.

4. The Descriptions are a series of short paragraphs, written in concise style, and confined to the most interesting and characteristic matter.

5. The correct Pronunciation of difficult names is indicated by dividing into syllables, accenting, &c.

6. The General and Comparative Views at the end of the volume are on the plan first introduced by the author in 1820, and since adopted by many other School Geographies. They are regarded as well fitted to exercise and strengthen the judgment.

7. The new art of Cerography is applied for the first time to the illustration of a work of this kind, and enables the publishers to sell it at a very low price.

The whole work is the result of long and careful study, and is intended to impress upon the mind of the student such outlines of geography as will form the best foundation for farther and extensive acquisitions.

Morse's North American Atlas.

Containing the following beautifully colored Cerographic Maps: North America, Canada East, Canada West, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New York and Vicinity, City of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin, Wisconsin South, Maryland, Delaware, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Indian Territory, Northern Texas, New Mexico, Florida, Louisiana, Texas, California, Mexico, Central America, Yucatan, West India Islands. Folio, Half Roan, $2 75.

For general accuracy, beauty of appearance, and compactness as well as economy, these Cerographic maps have been universally considered as unrivaled. They have been prepared with great care, chiefly from new and original materials, collected, during some years, by Samuel Breeze, from a correspondence embracing more than 2000 letters and several hundred local manuscript maps.

Docharty's Institutes of Algebra.

Being the First Part of a Course of Mathematics, designed for the use of Schools, Academies, and Colleges. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This is a very comprehensive treatise on the beautiful science to which it is devoted. Commencing with the simplest elements of algebra, in a form adapted to the comprehension of the youngest learner, it unfolds the subject in its more advanced principles, including all that is necessary in a regular collegiate course. The language is uniformly elegant and concise, the principles are stated with rigid exactness, and illustrated by a profusion of opposite examples. A better manual for practical use was never presented to the attention of teachers and students.

Docharty's Arithmetic.

A Practical and Commercial Arithmetic: containing Definitions of Terms, and Rules of Operations, with numerous Examples. The whole forming a complete Treatise for the use of Schools and Academies. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This is one of the few works designed for elementary instruction in which the subject is presented in a truly scientific form, and the consecutive parts developed in a manner entirely suited to the recitation room. The definitions are concise and exact, the rules explicit, and the explanations lucid and exactly where they should be. The algebraic notation conduces much to the compactness and simplicity of the operations, and prepares the pupil to enter upon the study of the higher branches of mathematics. The concise, beautiful, and masterly manner in which the Second Part, Commercial Arithmetic, is treated greatly enhances the value of the work for those who are preparing to enter the counting-room or broker's office. As a complete treatise on commercial matters there is nothing that can compare with it.

Haswell's Engineering.

Engineers' and Mechanics' Pocket-book, containing United States and Foreign Weights and Measures; Tables of Areas and Circumferences of Circles, Circular Segments, and Zones of a Circle; Squares and Cubes, Square and Cube Roots; Lengths of Circular and Semi-elliptic Arcs; and Rules of Arithmetic. Mensuration of Surfaces and Solids; the Mechanical Powers; Geometry, Trigonometry, Gravity, Strength of Materials, Water Wheels, Hydraulics, Hydrostatics, Pneumatics, Statics, Dynamics, Gunnery, Heat, Winding Engines, Tonnage, Shot, Shells, &c. Steam and the Steam Engine; Combustion, Water, Gunpowder, Cables and Anchors, Fuel, Air, Guns, &c., &c. Tables of the Weights of Metals, Pipes, &c. Miscellaneous Notes, Dimensions of Steamers, Mills, Motion of Bodies in Fluids, Orthography of Technical Terms, &c., &c. Eighth Edition and Eighteenth Thousand. With Additions. 12mo, Pocket-book form, $1 25.

Indispensable to every mechanic; it is, in fact, a condensed encyclopedia of scientific and practical mechanical information.

Ovid's Metamorphoses and Epistles.

Translated by DRYDEN, POPE, ADDISON, CONGREVE, and others. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Loomis's Course of Mathematics and Astronomy.

The Course of Mathematics by Prof. Loomis has now been for several years before the public, and has received the general approbation of teachers throughout the country. The following are some of the institutions in which this Course has been introduced, either wholly or in part : Dartmouth, College, N. H. ; Williams College, Mass. ; Amherst College, Mass. ; Yale College, Conn. ; Trinity College, Conn. ; Wesleyan University, Conn. ; Hamilton College, N. Y. ; Hobart Free College, N. Y. ; New York University, N. Y. ; Rochester University, N. Y. ; Dickinson College, Penn. ; Jefferson College, Penn. ; Alleghany College, Penn. ; Lafayette College, Penn. ; St. James's College, Md. ; Emory and Henry College, Va. ; Bethany College, Va. ; South Carolina College, S. C. ; La Grange College, Ala. ; Transylvania University, Ky. ; Cumberland College, Ky. ; Western Reserve College, Ohio ; Oberlin College, Ohio ; Asbury University, Ind. ; Illinois College, Ill. ; Shurtleff College, Ill. ; McKendree College, Ill. ; Knox College, Ill. ; Missouri University, Mo. ; Beloit College, Wisconsin.

Elements of Algebra.

Designed for Beginners. Sixth Edition. 12mo, pp. 260, Sheep extra, 62½ cents.

This volume is intended for the use of students who have just completed the study of arithmetic. It is believed that it will be found sufficiently clear and simple to be adapted to the wants of a large class of students in our common schools. It explains the method of solving equations of the first degree, with one, two, or more quantities ; the principles of involution and of evolution ; the solution of equations of the second degree ; the principles of ratio and proportion, with arithmetical and geometrical progression. Every principle is illustrated by a copious collection of examples, and a variety of miscellaneous problems will be found at the close of the book.

A Treatise on Algebra.

Twelfth Edition. 8vo, pp. 384, Sheep extra, $1 00.

This treatise is designed to contain as much of algebra as can be profitably read in the time allotted to this study in most of our colleges, and those subjects have been selected which are most important in a course of mathematical study. Particular pains have been taken to cultivate in the mind of the student a habit of generalization, and to lead him to reduce every principle to its most general form. It is believed that, in respect of difficulty, this treatise need not discourage any youth of fifteen years of age who possessed average abilities, while it is designed to form close habits of reasoning, and cultivate a truly philosophical spirit in more mature minds.

Elements of Geometry

and Conic Sections. Ninth Edition. 8vo, pp. 226, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

The arrangement of the propositions in this treatise is generally the same as in Legendre's Geometry, but the form of the demonstrations is reduced more nearly to the model of Euclid. The propositions are all enunciated in general terms, with the utmost brevity which is consistent with clearness. The short treatise on Conic Sections, appended to this volume, is designed particularly for those who have not time or inclination for the study of analytical geometry.

Trigonometry and Tables.

Eighth Edition. 8vo, pp. 344, Sheep extra, $1 50.

The Trigonometry and Tables, bound separately. The Trigonometry, $1 00; Tables, 50 cents.

This work contains an exposition of the nature and properties of logarithms; the principles of plane trigonometry; the mensuration of surfaces and solids; the principles of land surveying, with a full description of the instruments employed; the elements of navigation, and of spherical trigonometry. The tables furnish the logarithms of numbers to 10,000, with the proportional parts for a fifth figure in the natural number; logarithmic sines and tangents for every ten seconds of the quadrant, with the proportional parts to single seconds; natural sines and tangents for every minute of the quadrant; a traverse table; a table of meridional parts, &c.

Elements of Analytical Geometry, and of the Differential and Integral Calculus. Sixth Edition. 8vo, pp. 278, Sheep extra, $1 50.

This treatise constitutes the fourth volume of a course of mathematics designed for colleges and high schools. The first part treats of the application of algebra to geometry, the construction of equations, the properties of a straight line, a circle, parabola, ellipse, and hyperbola; the classification of algebraic curves, and the more important transcendent curves. The second part treats of the differentiation of algebraic functions, of MacLaurin's and Taylor's theorems, of maxima and minima, transcendental functions, theory of curves, and evolutes. The third part exhibits the method of obtaining the integrals of a great variety of differentials, and their application to the rectification and quadrature of curves, and the cubature of solids. All the principles are illustrated by an extensive collection of examples. The work was prepared to meet the wants of the mass of college students of average abilities.

Practical Astronomy.

An Introduction to Practical Astronomy, with a Collection of Astronomical Tables. 8vo, pp. 497, Sheep extra.

This work furnishes a description of the instruments required in the outfit of an observatory, as also the methods of employing them, and the computations growing out of their use. It treats particularly of the Transit Instrument and of Graduated Circles; of the method of determining time, latitude, and longitude; with the computation of eclipses and occultations. The work is designed for the use of amateur observers, practical surveyors, and engineers, as well as students who are engaged in a course of training in our colleges. The tables which accompany this volume are such as have been found most useful in astronomical computations, and to them has been added a catalogue of 1500 stars, with the constants required for reducing the mean to the apparent places.

Recent Progress of Astronomy,

especially in the United States. A thoroughly revised Edition of this work is now in course of preparation.

This volume is designed to exhibit, in a popular form, the most important astronomical discoveries of the past ten years. It treats particularly of the discovery of the planet Neptune, of the new asteroid, of the new satellite, and the new ring of Saturn, of the great comet of 1843, Biela's comet, Miss Mitchell's comet, &c.; of the parallax of fixed stars, motion of the stars, resolution of the nebulae, &c.; the history of American observatories, determination of longitude by the electric telegraph, manufacture of telescopes in the United States, &c.

M'Clintock's First Book in Latin.

Containing Grammar, Exercises, and Vocabularies, on the Method of constant Imitation and Repetition. With Summaries of Etymology, and Syntax. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This volume has been, perhaps, more largely sold within the last few years than any other Latin elementary book. It is at once philosophical and practical. In the hands of good teachers it can not fail to give pupils a thorough knowledge of the elements of Latin.

M'Clintock's Second Book in Latin.

Containing Syntax and Reading Lessons in Prose; forming a sufficient Latin Reader, with Imitation Exercises and a Vocabulary. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

The Second Book gives the Syntax in an enlarged form. Its reading lessons are taken wholly from Cicero and Cæsar, on the principle that none but the best writers should be read by beginners. The notes are ample, without giving the pupil too much aid. There is no better Latin Reader than this, even for classes that have not studied the "First Book."

M'Clintock's First Book in Greek.

Containing a full View of the Forms of Words, with Vocabularies and copious Exercises, on the Method of constant Imitation and Repetition. Revised Edition. With brief Summaries of the Doctrine of the Verb, and of the Rules of Syntax. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This is "Greek made easy," not by leaving out the hard parts, but by presenting the difficulties one at a time, and in the order most consonant to nature and reason. The book has been very widely introduced into the better class of schools.

M'Clintock's Second Book in Greek.

Containing Syntax, with Reading Lessons in Prose; Prosody and the Dialects, with Reading Lessons in Verse. Forming a sufficient Greek Reader, with Notes and copious Vocabulary. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This is a "Greek Reader," formed on the plan of giving the pupil no more to read than he can thoroughly master. All the Syntax and Prosody that are needed for the reading are given in the volume. The extracts in prose are from Xenophon; those in verse from Homer and Anacreon.

M'Clintock's Introduction to Writing Latin.

Containing a full Syntax, with copious Exercises for Imitation and Repetition. 12mo. (In press.)

Intended for higher classes in schools and lower classes in colleges.

M'Clintock's Introduction to Latin Style.

Principally translated from Grysar's "Theorie des Lateinischen Stiles." 12mo. (In press.)

This work will supply a want which has long been felt in our high schools and colleges.

Duff's Book-keeping.

The North American Accountant: embracing Single and Double Entry Book-keeping, practically adapted to the Inland and Maritime Commerce of the United States. Exemplifying all Modern Improvements in the Science, with a new and certain Method of detecting Errors and proving the Ledger. Embracing an improved Plan of Instruction, complete in two parts. 8vo, School Edition, Half Sheep, 75 cents; Mercantile Edition, Muslin, $1 50. A book of instruction, to give a clear and satisfactory insight into the very useful science upon which it treats, through all its gradations, from the simplest style suitable to the retailer, to that required for the most varied and complicated commercial business. It should be in possession of every practical accountant as a useful assistant, as well as in the hands of every one desirous of becoming an accomplished book-keeper.

Hackley's Algebra.

A Treatise on Algebra. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 50. A School Edition, 8vo, Muslin, $1 00.

In this work will be found all that is contained in our best text-books, treated with unusual clearness and fulness; and, in addition to this, many ingenious methods and much valuable matter that has never before been offered to the American student, and which the author has collected from the wide field of modern French, German, and English publications. It is the happy combination of theoretical and practical algebra, which renders this work so welcome to teachers and private students, and so serviceable to the cause of thorough instruction.

Hackley's Geometry.

An Elementary Course of Geometry, for the use of Schools and Colleges. 8vo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This work exhibits several important new features; the definitions of angles and parallel lines serve greatly to increase the clearness and brevity of the depending demonstrations; exercises for the student at intervals, and appendices containing new and elegant matter, from the best living mathematicians of Europe, give scope for learners of the best capacity; while the simple text affords a short, highly-improved, and sufficient means of preparation for the study of all the higher branches of mathematics. Its practical character fits it peculiarly for the use of the school-room.

Bigelow's Useful Arts,

considered in connection with the Applications of Science. With numerous Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

A book for every body, and which will be read, at least partly, by every body who can get it. It describes the machinery, apparatus, and processes of the arts which minister to the necessities, conveniences, comforts, and luxuries of life. It is a perfect encyclopedia of useful knowledge.

Thucydides.

History of the Peloponnesian War. Translated by WILLIAM SMITH, A.M. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Draper's Text-Book on Chemistry,

for the use of Schools and Colleges. Carefully revised, with Additions. With 300 Illustrations. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

This is a work which has been used in our best schools and colleges. As a practical manual of instruction it is admirably adapted—it is clear, concise, and well arranged. The author's experience in teaching has enabled him so to apportion the subjects of the lectures as to do equal justice to each, and he has followed the best method and order in treating them. Without this practical knowledge as a teacher, no extent of scientific learning could have produced so perfect a class-book. But this is not its only merit. It is not a mere popular compendium ; it is a complete view of the science of chemistry, particularly of the science as it now is, its nomenclature, definitions, and doctrines, with the latest discoveries which have been made in it, and it explains the mode of experimenting so clearly, that the student would find no difficulty in using the apparatus without other guidance.

Draper's Text-Book on Natural Philosophy,

for the use of Schools and Colleges. Containing the most recent Discoveries and Facts, compiled from the best Authorities. With nearly 400 Illustrations. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

The plan of this work resembles that of the author's "Text-book on Chemistry," being based upon his Lectures, and embodying the most important recent improvements introduced into the several branches of Natural Philosophy, either as respects new methods of presenting facts, or the arrangement of new discoveries. In this sense the work is to be regarded as a compilation from the best authorities, adapted to the use of schools and colleges ; enriched by the notes and illustrations of the author—the fruit of his valuable experience and ripe scholarship. The work is illustrated by many wood-cuts, supplying, in a measure, the want of apparatus or other means of illustration.

Chaptal's Chemistry

applied to Agriculture. With a Preliminary Chapter on the Organization, Structure, &c., of Plants, by Sir HUMPHREY DAVY ; an Essay on the use of Lime as a Manure, by M. PUVIS ; with Introductory Observations to the same, by Prof. RENWICK. Translated and Edited by Rev. WILLIAM P. PAGE. 18mo, Half Sheep, 50 cents.

An able and complete manual on the subject of Chemistry, freed from all technicalities, being expressly prepared for popular use ; the work, therefore, can not fail of proving acceptable among the farming community, and all who are in any manner interested in the culture of the soil.

Livy's History of Rome.

Translated by GEORGE BAKER. Portrait. 5 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $2 25.

Herodotus.

Translated by REV. WILLIAM BELOE. Portrait. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 35.

Gray's and Adams's Geology.

Elements of Geology. Engravings. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

The object of this work is to present the science of geology in form and style suited not only to the instruction of classes, but to the wants of the general reader. It incorporates more of American geology than any preceding work which is designed for the use of students, and is very fully illustrated. Some of the topics presented are the geological agencies, water, fire, and vitality; the principles of Zoology which pertain to fossils; paleontology; history of the earth, including a description of the various geological formations with their included fossils; theories of the earth; age of the world; relations of geology to natural theology, and the connection of geology and revelation. As a book of instruction it has no superior; and it is adapted equally to the wants of the home student and to the recitation room of the academy.

Gray's Natural Philosophy.

Elements of Natural Philosophy. Designed as a Text-book for Academies, High Schools, and Colleges. Illustrated by 360 Wood-cuts. 12mo, Sheep extra, 75 cents.

Teachers of high schools and academies will find Prof. Gray's "Elements of Natural Philosophy" a very desirable text-book. The work is divided into short sections, each of which is prefaced by a series of unnumbered propositions, embracing a lucid analysis of what the section contains, thus enabling the learner to arrange and systematize his knowledge of the subject. Numerical questions are appended to the several sections, while all the topics are very fully illustrated by diagrams, explaining articles of apparatus and the experiments performed by means of them. The author has not followed in the beaten track of "School Philosophies," but has introduced, to an unusual extent, the discoveries and applications of modern science. The most important principles, which are to be carefully committed to memory, are made deservedly prominent, being enunciated as formal propositions at the beginning of each section, and subsequently illustrated and explained.

Griscom's Animal Mechanism and Physiology;

being a plain and familiar Exposition of the Structure and Functions of the Human System. Designed for Families and Schools.

Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents; Half Roan, 50 cents.

The design of the present volume is to render easy and agreeable the study of human anatomy and physiology, by exhibiting the subject in all its bearings and connections. The work describes the various organs, and their functions and adaptations. The arrangement of the subjects treated of is new; but the peculiar mode of teaching them is, with some variations, that which has been so successful in the hands of Sir Charles Bell, Dr. Arnott, and a few other modern writers.

Hazen's Popular Technology;

or, Professions and Trades. Illustrated by 81 Engravings. 18mo, Half Sheep, 75 cents; 2 vols., Muslin, 90 cents.

The above work embraces a class of subjects in which every individual is interested, and with which he should become acquainted. They challenge attention in this country especially, a great proportion of the community being engaged in some of the professional or mechanical departments of business as a means of subsistence or distinction. It is a work eminently suited for the perusal of youth.

Potter's Principles of Science, applied to the Domestic and Mechanic Arts, and to Manufactures and Agriculture. With illustrative Cuts. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents. Dr. Potter has here produced a work of very general interest; a book to be desired by all classes of readers, and to some indispensable. As a clear and comprehensive view of the connection between science and art, it has no equal.

The School and the Schoolmaster.

Part I. The School; its Objects, Relations, and Uses. With a Sketch of the Education most needed in the United States, the present state of Common Schools, the best Means of improving them, and the consequent Duties of Parents, Trustees, and Inspectors, &c. Part II. The proper Character, Studies, and Duties of the Teacher, with the best Methods for the Government and Instruction of Common Schools, and the Principles on which School-houses should be Built, Arranged, Warmed, and Ventilated. By ALONZO POTTER, D.D., and GEORGE B. EMERSON, A.M. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A volume of great value to both pupil and teacher. Two well-known instructors have combined the results of their experience and observation. The work treats of the objects and relations of the school; discusses the present condition of common schools, and the best means of their improvement; the character to be maintained, the studies to be pursued, and the duties to be performed by the teacher; the best methods of instruction and government; and the proper method of constructing school houses. In fact, there is hardly a topic connected with the subject of common schools which is not here considered.

Potter's Political Economy:

its Objects, Uses, and Principles; considered with reference to the Condition of the American People. With a Summary for the use of Students. 18mo, Half Sheep, 50 cents.

Potter's Hand-Book

for Readers and Students, intended to assist private Individuals, Associations, School Districts, &c., in the Selection of useful and interesting Works for Reading and Investigation. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Olmsted's Astronomy.

Letters on Astronomy, in which the Elements of the Science are familiarly explained in connection with Biographical Sketches of the most eminent Astronomers. With numerous Engravings. Revised Edition, including the latest Discoveries. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The name of Professor Olmsted is at once associated in the mind of every one who hears it with such objects as that of which this work treats. It is in the form of letters—a mode of conveying instruction which, when well followed, as in this case, possesses peculiar advantages. This work, whether used as an elementary one by beginners, or as a "refresher" by adults, is one of the best which has ever been published in this country.

Renwick's Natural Philosophy.

Illustrations of Natural Philosophy. Selected principally from DANIELL'S Chemical Philosophy. 18mo, Half Sheep, 75 cents.

This work contains treatises on the sciences of statics and hydrostatics, comprising the whole theory of equilibrium. It is intended for the use of those who have no knowledge of mathematics, or who have made but little progress in their mathematical reading. Throughout the whole, an attempt has been made to bring the principles of exact science to bear upon questions of practical application in the arts, and to place the discussion of them within the reach of those connected with manufactures.

Renwick's Chemistry.

First Principles of Chemistry; being a familiar Introduction to the Study of that Science. With Questions. Engravings. 18mo, Half Sheep, 75 cents.

The principle by which the author has been governed was to admit few, if any, technical terms in the text, supplying their place with as plain language and intelligible explanations as possible. In a word, more information or instruction will be found in this little work than can be collected from many publications of greater pretensions and of four times its bulk. It has been very extensively introduced.

Renwick's Mechanics.

Applications of the Science of Mechanics to Practical Purposes. Engravings. 18mo, Half Sheep, 90 cents.

Prof. Renwick is remarkably successful in explaining the principles of this science, in their practical application to the comprehension even of those who have not made great advance in mathematics; his work is far more complete than any manual existing on the subject.—Prof. COGSWELL.

Renwick's Life of De Witt Clinton.

With a Selection of his Letters. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Professor Renwick has written a most judicious and able life of this illustrious statesman, and it is the only one in any degree adapted to popular reading.

Renwick's Jay and Hamilton.

Lives of John Jay and Alexander Hamilton. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This attractive volume is ever likely to obtain an uncommon share of public notice, not only from the ability with which it is written, but from the universal interest in the subjects of it.—American Review.

Smith's Mechanics.

An Elementary Treatise on Mechanics, embracing the Theory of Statics and Dynamics, and its Application to Solids and Fluids.

With Illustrations. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Sheep extra, $1 75.

This work is the product of much careful study, and is a felicitous condensation of all that has been developed by Whewell, Pierson, Franceur, and Gregory, in this important branch of scientific research. The author is widely known as a professor of mathematics and astronomy in the Wesleyan University, and his experience as a teacher has induced him to adopt the analytical in preference to the geometrical method of investigation, as being more universal in its application, shorter in practice, and more exact in results. It also tends to invest the study with additional interest to the student.

Whewell's Astronomy and General Physics, considered with reference to Natural Theology. 12mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

The distinguished reputation of Professor Whewell was materially extended by the production of this beautiful treatise, which formed one of the prize essays of the Bridgewater series.

Whewell's Elements of Morality, including Polity. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

We have read the work through with growing gratitude to the author for the distinctness of his definitions, for the transparency of his statements, for his accuracy in the use of terms, and for the minuteness and thoroughness of his analysis of moral ideas and conceptions.—North American Review.

Abercrombie on the Intellectual Powers.

Essay on the Intellectual Powers. Inquiries concerning the Intellectual Powers and the Investigation of Truth. With Questions. By JOHN ABERCROMBIE, M.D., F.R.S. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents; Half Bound, 50 cents.

A volume calculated to render essential service to intellectual, medical, and theological scholars. It is a publication of no ordinary value—one of the few which long outlive the year of its appearance—and will be the more prized in proportion as its contents are known.

Abercrombie on the Moral Feelings.

The Philosophy of the Moral Feelings. With Questions. 18mo, Muslin, 40 cents; Half Bound, 50 cents.

No man will rise from the perusal of this book without feeling an increased love of virtue, and a more solemn sense of responsibility as a moral being.

Abercrombie's Miscellaneous Essays:

consisting of the Harmony of Christian Faith and Christian Character; The Culture and Discipline of the Mind; Think on these Things; The Contest and the Armor; The Messiah as an Example. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Lee's Elements of Geology,

for popular use; containing a Description of the Geological Formations and Mineral Resources of the United States. Engravings. 18mo, Half Sheep, 50 cents.

This work is prepared for the use of schools, but is no less adapted to the general reader. It presents a clear and systematic account of the changes which have taken place upon the earth's surface, and the causes by which they have been brought about, and gives a full account of the geological structure and mineral resources of the United States.

Homer.

Iliad and Odyssey of Homer. Translated by POPE. Portrait. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 35.

Upham's Disordered Mental Action.

Outlines of Imperfect and Disordered Mental Action. By T. C. UPHAM. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

These works are the fruits of many years' labor, and they prove their author to be a cautious and profound thinker, a perspicuous and eloquent writer.

Upham's Mental Philosophy

Elements of Mental Philosophy; embracing the two Departments of the Intellect and Sensibilities. 2 vols. 12mo, Sheep extra, $2 50.

An Abridgment of the above Work, designed as a Text-book in Academies. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 25.

Professor Upham has brought together the leading views on the most important topics of mental science, and exhibited them with great good judgment, candor, clearness, and method. Out of all the systematic treatises in use we consider the volumes of Prof. Upham by far the best we have.

Upham's Catharine Adorna.

Life of Madame Catharine Adorna: including some leading Facts and Traits in her Religious Experience. Together with Explanations and Remarks tending to illustrate the Doctrine of Holiness. 12mo, Muslin, 50 cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 60 cents.

A curious piece of religious biography of the fifteenth century, revealing the character and experience of a distinguished female, remarkable for her intellectual and religious attainments. It is a work that will doubtless find many readers, being full of interest and elegantly written.

Upham's Madame Guyon.

Life and Religious Opinions of Madame Guyon: together with some Account of the Personal History and Religious Opinions of Archbishop Fenelon. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

This work is at once one of the most charming and most instructive specimens of biographical literature in our language. The admirable autobiography of Madame Guyon is the basis of the work, and to this the accomplished pen of Professor Upham has added numerous facts, derived from her own writings and from other sources, which enable the reader to obtain a complete view of her history, and to estimate aright her rare intellectual endowments, high attainments, and the beautiful purity of her character. Not the least attractive portion of the work consists in the notices which are given in the course of the narrative of the personal history and religious sentiments of the amiable Fenelon. It is valuable, also, as it throws much light upon the ecclesiastical history of the period in which these personages flourished.

Upham's Life of Faith:

embracing some of the Scriptural Principles or Doctrines of Faith, the Power or Effect of Faith in the Regulation of Man's Inward Nature, and the Relation of Faith to the Divine Guidance. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

The thanks of the Church are due to Professor Upham for putting fairly within its reach the most orderly and philosophical development of what he is pleased to call the "Principles of Interior Life" and the "Life of Faith," which the world, perhaps, has ever known.—Biblical Repository.

Upham's Interior Life.

Principles of the Interior or Hidden Life. Designed particularly for the Consideration of those who are seeking Assurance of Faith and perfect Love. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Upham on the Will.

Philosophical and Practical Treatise on the Will. By T. C. UPHAM. 12mo, Sheep extra, $1 25.

This work is one of great value to the literary and religious community. It indicates throughout not only deep and varied research, but profound and laborious thought, and is a full, lucid, and able discussion of an involved and embarrassing subject. The style is perspicuous, and often elegant; the work adds much to the reputation of its author, and entitles him to rank among the ablest metaphysicians of our country.

Sacred Meditations.

By Mrs. P. L. UPHAM. 48mo, Muslin, 25 cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 31 $\frac{1}{2}$  cents.

Henry's Philosophy.

Epitome of the History of Philosophy: being the Work adopted by the University of France for Instruction in the Colleges and High Schools. Translated from the French, with Additions, and a Continuation of the History, by C. S. HENRY, D.D. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

We have had hitherto no work in our vernacular embracing a comprehensive, and, at the same time, elementary and didactic view of the history of philosophical opinions, including those of Cousin, Jouffroy, Kant, Spinoza, &c. The present work is designed to supply that want. Besides an appendix, bringing down the subject to the present time, the editor has added some notes and illustrations as elucidatory of the text.

Campbell's Philosophy of Rhetoric.

Revised Edition. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

It is a work which is incomparably superior to all similar works, not only in depth of thought and ingenious, original research, but also in practical utility to the student.

Lewis's Platonic Theology.

Plato contra Atheos. Plato against the Atheists; or, the Tenth Book of the Dialogue on Laws, accompanied with Critical Notes, and followed by extended Dissertations on some of the main Points of the Platonic Philosophy and Theology, especially as compared with the Holy Scriptures. By TAYLER LEWIS, LL.D. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

No more acceptable or timely contribution to the cause of sound classical education could possibly have been made than this. The leading objects of the work, even paramount to its relation to education, seems to have been to furnish an antidote to the progress of atheism of the present age. The work has been introduced as a text-book in Harvard University.

Boyd's Rhetoric.

Elements of Rhetoric and Literary Criticism, with copious Practical Exercises and Examples: including, also, a succinct History of the English Language, and of British and American Literature, from the earliest to the present Times. On the Basis of the recent Works of ALEXANDER REID and R. CUNNELL; with large Additions from other Sources. Compiled and arranged by J. R. BOYD, A.M. 12mo, Half Bound, 50 cents.

This is a valuable school-book. It contains, in a small compass, the cream of the more labored compilations of Blair and Watts, and has thus to the student saved labor in the acquisition of useful knowledge. This work is highly recommended by the secretary of state.

Boyd's Eclectic Moral Philosophy:

prepared for Literary Institutions and general use. By J. R. BOYD, A.M. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

In connection with the natural results of his inquiries on the wide range of topics embraced in a system of moral science, the author has given to the public the views of distinguished writers, interweaving them with his own, under every division of the general subject. As an eclectic, presenting the views of such writers as Dugald Stewart, Abercrombie, Beattie, Whewell, Chalmers, the Dicks, Paley, J. A. James, Wayland, and Barnes, in systematic form, it is a rich and interesting work.

Mills's Literature.

The Literature and Literary Men of Great Britain and Ireland. By ABRAHAM MILLS, A.M. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $3 50.

The plan of this work is of a very comprehensive character. It embraces the whole field of English literature, from the origin and formation of the Anglo-Saxon language to the close of the seventeenth century. Account is given of nearly all the noteworthy poets, historians, novelists, dramatists, divines, and philosophers in Great Britain and Ireland during the space of more than twelve centuries, with critical notices of their writings, and choice extracts sufficiently numerous to give a fair impression of the genius and peculiar style of each individual. Such a compendium must be a treasure to all who desire to have the gems of British literature made accessible without labor, and without the expense of a large library.

Mill's Logic,

Ratiocinative and Inductive; being a connected View of the Principles of Evidence, and the Methods of Scientific Investigation. By J. S. MILL. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50.

It is excellent throughout in its plan, in its illustrative examples, and in its execution every way—in a word, it is perfect of its kind. To most young persons composition is the most painful task in the culture of the mind, and so it must be as long as they are required to write out their thoughts before they have been taught to think. Your book provides a remedy for this very defective system; it teaches the pupil how to take the first step in the difficult art of thinking, and then encourages and leads him on until he can do without a guide.—Rev. Dr. COGSELL.

Guthrie's Cicero,

Cicero's Three Dialogues on the Orator. Translated. Revised and corrected, with Notes. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Whately's Logic.

Elements of Logic: comprising the Substance of the Article in the Encyclopedia Metropolitana. With Additions, &c. The only complete American Edition. By RICHARD WHATELY, D.D., Archbishop of Dublin. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

Whately's Rhetoric.

Elements of Rhetoric: comprising an Analysis of the Laws of Moral Evidence and of Persuasion. With Rules for Argumentative Composition and Eloquence. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

Maury's Principles of Eloquence.

With an Introduction, by Bishop POTTER. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents. This manual is decidedly the best which has yet appeared upon the subject, and is, as it were, an excellent emblem of the oratory on which it chiefly dwells; admirable in its arrangement, full of good sense in much of its detail, with a felicitous and judicious application of the principles of Cicero and Quintilian to his subject.

Russell's Juvenile Speaker:

comprising Elementary Rules and Exercises of Declamation, with a Selection of Pieces for Practice. By the Rev. FRANCIS T. RUSSELL, Professor of Elocution in Trinity College. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents; Half Bound, 70 cents.

The object of the present work is to present the first principles of elocution as they apply to the practices of boys in declamation; to reduce every principle to immediate practice by the introduction of appropriate exercises; to illustrate the principles of gesture; and to furnish young speakers with a supply of suitable pieces for a more extended application of the rules of elocution.

Noel and Chapsal's French Grammar.

A new System of French Grammar; containing the First Part of the celebrated Grammar of these Authors. Arranged with Questions and a Key in English. Also, an Abridgment of the Syntax and Grammatical Analysis of the same Authors. To which are added, Lessons in Reading and Speaking, Forms of Drafts, Advertisements, &c. Designed to facilitate the Student in the use of the French Language, 1st. By making it a Medium of Communication between Himself and Teacher. 2d. By enabling him to Read, Write, and Speak it on all Occasions. By SARAH E. SAYMORE. Revised and corrected, by Prof. C. P. BORDENAVE. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents

The Grammar of Noel and Chapsal is universally considered to be well adapted for use in our academies. The form of question and answer adopted by Mrs. Seaman, with the translated key at the end, are evident improvements.

The Odes of Pindar and Anacreon.

Pindar, translated by Rev. C. A. WHEELWRIGHT. Anacreon, translated by T. BOURNE. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Abbott's Young Christian Series.

The Young Christian Series. By JACOB ABBOTT. Very greatly improved and enlarged. With numerous Engravings. Complete in 4 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00 each. The Volumes may be obtained separately.

The Young Christian.

The Way to do Good.

The Corner Stone.

Hoaryhead and M'Donner.

The present edition of Abbott's Young Christian Series is issued in a style of uncommon neatness, and is illustrated with numerous spirited and beautiful engravings. It is superfluous to speak of the rare merits of Mr. Abbott's writings on the subject of practical religion. Their extensive circulation, not only in our own country, but in England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Germany, Holland, India, and at various missionary stations throughout the globe, evinces the excellence of their plan, and the felicity with which it has been executed. In unfolding the different topics which he takes in hand, Mr. Abbott reasons clearly, concisely, and to the point; but the severity of the argument is always relieved by a singular variety and beauty of illustration. It is this admirable combination of discussion with incident that invests his writings with an almost equal charm for readers of every diversity of age and culture.

Abbott's Franconia Stories.

Franconia Stories. By JACOB ABBOTT. Beautifully bound, engraved Title-pages, and numerous Illustrations. Complete in 10 vols. 16mo, Muslin, 50 cents each. The Volumes may be obtained separately.

Malleville.

Wallace.

Mary Erskine.

Mary Bell.

Beechnut.

Rodolphus.

Ellen Linn.

Stuyvesant.

Caroline.

Agnes.

This charming series of connected stories is complete in ten volumes. Each volume is an entirely distinct and independent work, having no necessary connection of incidents with those that precede or follow it, while yet the characters of the scenes in which the stories are laid are substantially the same in all. They present peaceful pictures of happy domestic life, and are intended not chiefly to amuse and entertain the children who shall peruse them, but to furnish them with attractive lessons of moral and intellectual instruction, and to train their hearts to habits of ready and cheerful subordination to duty and law.

Pleasing pictures of still life in the country, which the young will gladly read, and gather much useful knowledge, while they find pleasure in the story.—Presbyterian.

The pleasing simplicity of style in which these volumes are written, the amusing anecdotes related, and the little sketches of scenery so naturally introduced, can not fail to secure for them the warm approbation of that class of readers for which they are prepared.—Toronto Globe.

The most attractive tales for children which have been issued from the press for years.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Abbott's Summer in Scotland.

A Summer in Scotland. By JACOB ABBOTT. With Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A pleasant and agreeable record of observations made during a summer's residence and traveling in the land of Bruce and Wallace.

Abbott's Marco Paul Series.

Marco Paul's Voyages and Travels in the Pursuit of Knowledge. By JACOB ABBOTT. Beautifully illustrated. Complete in 6 vols. 16mo, Muslin, 50 cents each. The Volumes may be obtained separately.

In New York.

On the Erie Canal.

In the Forests of Maine.

In Vermont.

In Boston.

At the Springfield Armory.

The design of these volumes is not simply to present a narrative of juvenile adventures, but also to communicate, in connection with them, a knowledge of the geography, scenery, and customs of the sections of country over which the young traveler is conducted. Marco Paul makes his journeyings under the guidance of a well-informed tutor, who takes care to give him all the information of which he stands in need. The narrative is rendered still further attractive by the introduction of personal incidents which would naturally befall the actors of the story. No American child can read this series without delight and instruction. But it will not be confined to the juvenile library. Presenting a vivid commentary on American society, manners, scenery, and institutions, it has a powerful charm for readers of all ages.

Abbott's Kings and Queens.

Kings and Queens; or, Life in the Palace: consisting of Historical Sketches of Josephine and Maria Louisa, Louis Philippe, Ferdinand of Austria, Nicholas, Isabella II., Leopold, Victoria, and Louis Napoleon. By JOHN S. C. ABBOTT. With numerous Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00; Muslin, gilt edges, $1 25.

This work contains more information respecting the political and social condition of the several monarchies of Europe than any other in our language of the same magnitude. The whole Eastern Question is presented, briefly yet comprehensively, in its bearings upon Europe and Asia. The character of Nicholas, his career, his gigantic intellectual power, his ambition, his aggrandizement; Turkey, her geographical strength and her national decrepitude; the Hellespont, the Bosphorus, Constantinople, the Black Sea, the Crimea, Sevastopol; Austria, her hopes, her fears, her conglomeration of nations; Spain, in her degradation; Louis Napoleon, his character, his wonderful rise, and his resources; in fine, the general condition of Europe, is presented.

Abbott's Napoleon Bonaparte.

The History of Napoleon Bonaparte. By JOHN S. C. ABBOTT. With Maps, Wood-cuts, and Portraits on Steel. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $ ; Sheep, $ ; Half Calf, $ .

The Memoir of Napoleon, which attracted such universal attention as it appeared in the pages of Harper's Magazine, is reproduced, with the original illustrations, in these two handsome volumes, including copious additions, and a careful revision by the author. In this important contribution to the biography of one of the most prominent historical characters of modern times, Mr. Abbott has taken an independent point of view, made himself master of the subject by assiduous personal research, and, refusing to yield to the influence of early impressions and foreign traditions, has presented an estimate of the illustrious man to whom he has devoted his studies which cannot fail to soften prejudices, remove misapprehensions, and purify and exalt the fame of Napoleon in the eyes of all impartial and intelligent readers.

Abbott's Illustrated Histories.

The Volumes of this Series are printed and bound uniformly, and are adorned with richly illuminated Title-pages and numerous Engravings. 16mo, Muslin, 60 cents per Volume; Muslin, gilt edges, 75 cents per Volume; Library Sheep, 75 cents per Volume. The Volumes may be obtained separately.

Cyrus the Great.	Alfred the Great.
Darius the Great.	William the Conqueror.
Xerxes.	Mary Queen of Scots.
Alexander the Great.	Queen Elizabeth.
Romulus.	Charles I.
Hannibal.	Charles II.
Pyrrhus.	Josephine.
Julius Cæsar.	Maria Antoinette.
Cleopatra.	Madame Roland.
Nero.

A series of volumes containing severally full accounts of the lives, characters, and exploits of the most distinguished sovereigns, potentates, and rulers that have been chiefly renowned among mankind, in the various ages of the world, from the earliest periods to the present day.

The successive volumes of the series, though they each contain the life of a single individual, and constitute thus a distinct and independent work, follow each other, in the main, in regular historical order, and each one continues the general narrative of history down to the period at which the next volume takes up the story; so that the whole series will, when completed, present to the reader a connected narrative of the line of general history from the present age back to the remotest times.

The narratives are intended to be succinct and comprehensive, and are written in a very plain and simple style. They are, however, not juvenile in their character, nor intended exclusively for the young. The volumes are sufficiently large to allow each history to comprise all the leading facts in the life of the personage who is the subject of it, and thus to communicate all the information in respect to him which is necessary for the purposes of the general reader.

Such being the design and character of the works, they would seem to be specially adapted, not only for family reading, but also for district, town, school, and Sunday-school libraries, as well as for text-books in literary seminaries.

The volumes already issued have had a wide circulation in all parts of the country—more than one hundred and seventy-five thousand volumes having been already sold. The plan of the series, and the manner in which the design has been carried out by the author in the execution of it, have been highly commended by the press in all parts of the country. The whole series have been introduced into the school libraries of several of the largest and most influential states.

This series of historical narratives is scarcely inferior in interest to Sir Walter Scott's "Tales of a Grandfather."—N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.

Mr. Abbott's design to write a succession of histories for the young is admirable, and worthy of all encouragement; and the manner in which he has executed the work thus far is most excellent. Let him be encouraged to proceed till he has reached the last volume of history, that the coming generation may turn from the world of romance to that of reality, and learn that what is and has been is as brilliant in character as glorious in description, and as captivating in detail as that which the genius of fiction ever created.—N. Y. Observer.

The style of illustration might be advantageously adopted in histories designed for old as well as young readers; the literary execution, also, is a plain, clear narrative of facts, interspersed with reflections.—London Spectator.

Abbott's Mother at Home.

The Mother at Home; or, the Principles of Maternal Duty familiarly Illustrated. By JOHN S. C. ABBOTT. With numerous Engravings. 16mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

This book treats of the important questions of maternal responsibility and authority; of the difficulties which the mother will experience, the errors to which she is liable, the methods and plans she should adopt; of the religious instruction which she should impart, and of the results which she may reasonably hope will follow her faithful and persevering exertions. These subjects are illustrated with the felicity characteristic of all the productions of the author.

Abbott's Child at Home.

The Child at Home; or, the Principles of Filial Duty familiarly Illustrated. By JOHN S. C. ABBOTT, Author of "The Mother at Home." Beautifully embellished with Wood-cuts. 16mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

The duties and trials peculiar to the child are explained and illustrated in this volume in the same clear and attractive manner in which those of the mother are set forth in the "Mother at Home." These two works may be considered as forming a complete manual of filial and maternal relations.

Hume's History of England.

History of England, from the Invasion of Julius Cæsar to the Abdication of James II., 1688. By DAVID HUME. A new Edition, with the Author's last Corrections and Improvements. To which is prefixed a short Account of his Life, written by Himself. With a Portrait of the Author. 6 vols. 12mo, Cloth, $ ; Sheep, $ ; Half Calf, $ .

As a historian, Hume is generally and deservedly popular. The beauty of his diction, and the clearness of his narration, render his history a most fascinating work. No English history has yet been found worthy to supplant that of Hume.

Macaulay's History of England,

History of England, from the Accession of James II. By THOMAS BABINGTON MACAULAY. With an original Portrait of the Author. Volumes I. and II., Library Edition, 8vo, Muslin, cents per volume; Sheep extra, $ per volume; Half Calf, $ per volume.—Cheap Editions, 8vo, Paper, cents per Number; 12mo (uniform with Hume), Muslin, cents per volume; Sheep extra, cents per volume; Half Calf, $ for both volumes.

The two volumes already published bring the history down to the accession of William and Mary. The vivid and fascinating style of the author renders his history one of the most interesting works ever written, while his laborious research and candid statement of facts give it the highest historical value. Those who read Hume should compare his views with the far more just and liberal ones of Macaulay. There can be no doubt that when this history is completed, it will exceed in value, as well as in interest, any other work upon the interesting period of English history of which it treats.

Gibbon's Rome.

History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire. By EDWARD GIBBON. With Notes, by Rev. H. H. MILMAN and M. GUIZOT. With Maps and Engravings. 4 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $5 00. —A new Cheap Edition, with Notes, by Rev. H. H. MILMAN. To which is added a complete Index of the whole Work, and a Portrait of the Author. 6 vols. 12mo (uniform with Hume), Muslin, $ ; Sheep, $ ; Half Calf, $ .

Gibbon's great work is acknowledged to be a master piece of historical composition. It was the work of the author's life. To its preparation he brought unwearyed industry and unbounded learning. It is replete with wit, philosophy, and eloquence. In it, for the first time, has been bridged over the abyss between ancient and modern times. Notwithstanding the exceptions which have been taken to various portions of the work, all competent critics acknowledge that, for general accuracy and impartiality, it has no rival in historical literature.

Everett on Practical Education.

Importance of Practical Education and Useful Knowledge: being a Selection from the Orations and Discourses of EDWARD EVERETT, President of Harvard University. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This work was originally prepared for the Massachusetts District School Library. The greater portion of the addresses refer to the subject of education considered in its various aspects. They are marked throughout by the ripe scholarship and glowing eloquence which characterize all the productions of their author. The glossary appended contains a large amount of valuable information.

Travels of Mungo Park.

With the Account of his Death, from the Journal of Isaaco, and later Discoveries relative to his lamented Fate, and the Termination of the Niger. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Mungo Park was one of the boldest and most successful of the explorers of Central Africa. His romantic adventures, the dangers he encountered, the strange people with whom he came in contact, together with his tragic fate, invest his life with the most thrilling interest.

Ferguson's Roman Republic.

History of the Progress and Termination of the Roman Republic. By A. FERGUSON, LL.D. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This abridgment of the History of the Progress and Termination of the Roman Republic is written in a clear and glowing style. It is full of apt illustrations and just remarks, while it lays bare the causes which led to the downfall of the republic. It should be carefully read by all republicans. It is a story full of warning and instruction.

The Satires of Juvenal and Persius.

The Satires of Juvenal, translated by CHARLES BADHAM, M.D., F.R.S. With an Appendix, containing Imitations of the Third and Fourth Satires, by Dr. SAMUEL JOHNSON. To which are appended the Satires of Persius, translated by the Rt. Hon. Sir W. DRUMMOND. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

American Husbandry ; }

being a Series of Essays, &c., designed for its Improvement. By WILLIS GAYLORD and LUTHER TUCKER. 2 vols. 18mo, Half Sheep, $1 00.

This work comprises much useful matter, well worthy the careful perusal of the agriculturist. It presents especially the great advantage to be derived from the rotation of crops, and from the cultivation of roots.

The Farmer's Instructor ;

consisting of Essays, Practical Directions, and Hints for the Management of the Farm and the Garden. By the late Judge BUEL. 2 vols. 18mo, Half Sheep, $1 00.

These volumes combine a vast amount of practical information upon various topics which interest the farmer; such as the properties of the different kinds of soil; the best mode of cultivating crops of various kinds; the management of cattle and sheep; of the garden, dairy, and bees; the raising of fruit, and the like.

The Farmer's Companion ;

or, Essays on the Principles and Practice of American Husbandry. With the Address prepared to be delivered before the Agricultural and Horticultural Societies of New Haven County, Connecticut. And an Appendix, containing Tables, and other Matter useful to the Farmer. By the late Judge BUEL. To which is prefixed an Eulogy on the Life and Character of BUEL, by AMOS DEAN. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This is the last and most important work of the author, who was one of the most successful cultivators in the country. It contains his latest and most matured views upon the various subjects of which it treats. The clearness and simplicity of its style adapt it to all classes of readers.

A Treatise on Agriculture ;

comprising a concise History of its Origin and Progress; the present Condition of the Art, Abroad and at Home; and the Theory and Practice of Husbandry. By JOHN ARMSTRONG. With Notes, by JESSE BUEL. To which is added a Dissertation on the Kitchen and Fruit Garden. 18mo, Half Sheep, 50 cents.

This is a treatise covering the whole subject, forming a complete manual of husbandry in a very small compass. Its value is much enhanced by the notes appended by the late Judge Buel.

Herschel's Natural Philosophy.

A Preliminary Discourse on the Study of Natural Philosophy. By Sir JOHN HERSCHELL. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

Sir John Herschell, in his admirable Discourse on Natural Philosophy, has added a greater number (than Professor Playfair) of illustrations from still more recent discoveries, and has also furnished such a luminous development of the difficulties of the Novum Organum, as has been vainly hoped for in former times.—HALLAM.

The American Shepherd;

being a History of Sheep, with their Breeds, Management, and Diseases. By L. A. MORRELL. Illustrated with Portraits of different Breeds, Sheep Barns, Sheds, &c. With an Appendix, embracing upward of Twenty Letters from eminent Wool-growers and Sheep-Fatteners of different States, detailing their respective Modes of Management. Engravings. 12mo, Paper, 75 cents; Muslin, 90 cents; Sheep extra, $1 00.

It has been the design of the author of this work to produce a treatise which should be authentic in every particular, worthy to be trusted and appealed to upon every question of importance to the wool-grower. That he has succeeded in this endeavor is abundantly shown by the testimonials of the New York State Agricultural Society, who recommend the work in the highest terms. Its value is much enhanced by the portraits of the principal varieties of sheep, which are pronounced by competent judges to be entirely accurate.

History of Spain and Portugal.

By DUNHAM. 5 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 50.

This is pronounced by Mr. Prescott to be a work of "singular acuteness and information."

Story on the Constitution of the United States.

A familiar Exposition of the Constitution of the United States. Designed for the use of School Libraries and General Readers. With an Appendix, containing important public Documents illustrative of the Constitution. By Judge STORY. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This work is of great interest to the student of history as well as to the lawyer. With vast learning, strong sense, great industry, reasoning powers of a high order, and accurate taste, his memory is said to have been so retentive that a single and hasty reading was quite sufficient to make him familiar with almost any author. Perhaps none of the distinguished jurists of his day could be compared with him for extent of acquisition.—Prose Writers of America.

History of Italy and the Italian Islands.

By WILLIAM SPALDING. Map and Engravings. 8 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 85.

A standard work upon Italian history, written with ability, discrimination, and candor. It presents, at a single glance, a general picture of the fortunes of the different Italian states.

History of Poland.

By JAMES FLETCHER. Portrait of Kosciusko. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

In writing the history of this unfortunate country, the author displays much learning, candor, and industry. He has drawn his information from every accessible source, and imparts it in a lucid and vigorous style. It is a history of deep and painful interest to every lover of freedom.

Johnson's Economy of Health.

The Economy of Health; or, the Stream of Human Life from the Cradle to the Grave. With Reflections, Moral, Physical, and Philosophical, on the Septennial Phases of Human Existence. By JAMES JOHNSON, M.D. 18mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

This volume contains many striking and original remarks upon the maintenance of health, especially upon the moral and physical changes which take place at the different marked periods of human life.

Ruins of Ancient Cities;

with General and Particular Accounts of their Rise, Fall, and Present Condition. Containing Sketches of Alexandria, Athens, Babylon, Carthage, Corinth, Herculaneum, Memphis, Nineveh, Palmyra, Persepolis, Pompeii, Sidon, Thebes, Tyre, and others. By CHARLES BUCKE. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

These volumes contain copious and interesting descriptions of some sixty or seventy of the most famous cities of antiquity, which are now fallen into decay. To obtain the materials for his work, the author has made free use of the labors of the most celebrated travelers and historians, thus producing a work of absorbing interest as well as high value.

Bucke's Beauties of Nature.

Beauties, Harmonies, and Sublimities of Nature. By CHARLES BUCKE. Edited by WILLIAM P. PAGE. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Franklin's Life, Illustrated.

Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin. With a Sketch of his Public Services, by Rev. H. H. WELD. With numerous exquisite Designs, by JOHN G. CHAPMAN. 8vo, Muslin, $2 00; Sheep, $2 25; Half Calf, $2 50.

This splendid pictorial edition of the life of Franklin has been pronounced to be in all respects worthy of the advanced state of art in this country, as well as of the fame of the distinguished patriot, printer, and philosopher.

Franklin's autobiography is one of the most delightful specimens of this class of writings ever produced. It charms by its simplicity and clearness, while the great lessons of industry and perseverance were never more powerfully inculcated. Every young man should read, again and again, that biography of the mechanic, philosopher, and statesman. His miscellaneous writings and letters are not less admirable in their way. They are perfect models of style. He excels Addison in force and clearness, while he is his equal in wit, humor, and elegance.

Life of Benjamin Franklin,

by Himself. With his most interesting Essays, Letters, and Miscellaneous Writings; Familiar, Moral, Political, Economical, and Philosophical. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Anecdotal Olio:

containing Anecdotes, Literary, Moral, Religious, and Miscellaneous. By Rev. Messrs. HORN and WAY. 8vo, Muslin, $1 00.

Landers' Expedition.

Journal of an Expedition to Explore the Course and Termination of the Niger. With a Narrative of a Voyage down that River to its Termination. By R. and J. LANDER. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

To the brothers Lander belongs the credit of being the first discoverers of the course of the Niger, which had long baffled the efforts of travelers. Their account of their African journeys is very interesting.

Illustrations of Mechanics.

By Prof. MOSELEY. Edited by JAMES RENWICK, LL.D. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This work is intended mainly for the use of those who wish to acquire a knowledge of civil engineering and mining, and is especially adapted for self-instruction in these important branches. It consists of a series of practical illustrations in mechanics, arranged in the order in which the elements of the science succeed each other, connected by such explanations as will enable the student to embrace and combine the whole.

History of Arabia,

Ancient and Modern. Containing a Description of the Country—an Account of its Inhabitants, Antiquities, Political Condition, and early Commerce—the Civil Government and Religious Ceremonies of the Modern Arabs—Origin and Suppression of the Wahabees—the Institutions, Character, Manners, and Customs of the Bedouins, &c. By ANDREW CRICHTON. Map and Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

These volumes give a full account of the country, its inhabitants, antiquities, political and commercial condition, from the earliest times, together with a history of Mohammed and his followers in the portions of the world to which they carried their dominion. The manners and customs of the modern Arabs are described with great minuteness and accuracy.

Scandinavia,

Ancient and Modern: being a History of Denmark, Sweden, and Norway; comprehending a Description of these Countries—an Account of the Mythology, Government, Laws, Manners, and Institutions of the early Inhabitants—and of the present State of Society, Religion, Literature, Arts, and Commerce; with Illustrations of their Natural History. By A. CRICHTON and H. WHEATON. Map and Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

The subject of Scandinavian history has much in it that deserves the attention of American readers. This work is the joint production of two eminent scholars, who have made the history of the northern nations of Europe a matter of special study. Mr. Wheaton, in particular, while American Minister at Copenhagen, enjoyed peculiar facilities for prosecuting his researches. These volumes present altogether the best view extant of northern Europe.

Russell's Ancient and Modern Egypt.

View of Ancient and Modern Egypt. By M. RUSSELL, LL.D. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The object of this volume is to present a condensed view of the ancient and modern state of Egypt. In a small compass is presented an immense mass of useful and attractive information. There are few who read this work but will wish to complete their knowledge of the ancient Egyptians by perusing the more elaborate work of Sir Gardner Wilkinson, described on page 7 of this Catalogue.

Russell's Palestine.

History of Palestine; or, the Holy Land. By M. RUSSELL, LL.D. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This work contains much information throwing light upon the Holy Scriptures. It gives not only a description of Palestine in ancient times, but as it exists at the present day.

Russell's Barbary States.

History of the Barbary States: comprehending a View of their Civil Institutions, Antiquities, Arts, Religion, Literature, Commerce, Agriculture, and Natural Productions. By M. RUSSELL, LL.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The Barbary States, comprising Algiers, Tripoli, and Tunis, present many features of striking interest. As the residence of those corsairs who so long laid Christendom under tribute, and as the seat of white slavery for so many years, their history is well worth perusal.

Russell's Nubia and Abyssinia.

History of Nubia and Abyssinia: comprehending their Civil History, Antiquities, Arts, Religion, Literature, and Natural History. By M. RUSSELL, LL.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

These countries, known to the ancients as "Ethiopia above Egypt," were regarded by the poets and historians of Greece as the birth-place of the arts, civilization, and religion. This volume contains an interesting sketch of the past history and present state of these remarkable regions.

Russell's Polynesia.

History of Polynesia; or, an Historical Account of the principal Islands in the South Sea, including New Zealand; the Introduction of Christianity; and the actual Condition of the Inhabitants in regard to Civilization, Commerce, and the Arts of Social Life. By M. RUSSELL, LL.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Russell's Oliver Cromwell.

Life of Oliver Cromwell. By Rev. M. RUSSELL. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

The history of the Lord Protector of England is exceedingly interesting. The strange anomaly which his success introduced into the line of rulers in England, the influence of that success upon other countries, and especially upon succeeding generations, his ideas of liberty, and his plan for effecting a public good, are all well worthy of attention.

Circumnavigation of the Globe.

An Historical Account of the Progress of Discovery in the Pacific Ocean, from the Voyage of Magellan to the Death of Cook. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This volume comprises the history of maritime enterprise in the South Seas during a period of almost three hundred years. The account of the voyages of Cooke, being by far the most important of all, is given in more detail than any of the others.

Barrow's Arctic Voyages.

Voyages of Discovery and Research within the Arctic Regions, from the Year 1818 to the present Time; under the Command of the several Naval Officers employed by Sea and Land in search of a Northwest Passage from the Atlantic to the Pacific; with two Attempts to reach the North Pole. Abridged and arranged from the Official Narrative, with occasional Remarks. By Sir JOHN BARROW, F.R.S. Map. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This work is a résumé of the most important facts and incidents connected with the voyages that have from time to time been made, in the furtherance of an attempt to discover a northwest passage from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It contains two charts, the one of the Polar regions, and the other of Simson's Straits. The volume is replete with interest, being the substance of six or seven large quarto, and several smaller volumes, and the compiler has very happily arranged the subject in a most attractive manner. The London Examiner, speaking of this work, says: "It is a record of enterprise and endurance, of resolute perseverance, and of moral and physical courage unparalleled; nor could it have found an historian of higher capability."

Life of Peter the Great.

By JOHN BARROW. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This is unanimously admitted to be the best account of the strange life and character of the great founder of the Russian empire that has appeared in any language. It presents a vivid portraiture of that remarkable man, who, combining in his own character all the characteristics of the civilized man and the savage, impressed his own mixed character upon the institutions which he established.

Pitcairn's Island

and its Inhabitants. With an authentic Account of the Mutiny of the Ship Bounty, and of the subsequent Fortunes of the Mutineers. By Sir JOHN BARROW, F.R.S. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A portion of the crew of the English ship Bounty rose against their officers, and sent them adrift upon the sea in an open boat. The mutineers, with a number of native women, at length took possession of an uninhabited island, and in the course of a year or two almost all of them perished in quarrels among themselves. The sole survivor of the mutineers now repented of his evil courses, and became the religious instructor of the native women and their children. After many years the island was accidentally visited by an English vessel, who found the inhabitants grown up into a well-ordered community. This volume narrates the perilous adventures of the officers who were put adrift, and the conduct of the mutineers and their peaceful descendants. The whole story is full of interest.

Curran and his Contemporaries.

By CHARLES PHILLIPS. 12mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

Curran, the celebrated Irish orator, was a man of rare genius and endowments; he formed the centre around which were gathered a number of noticeable men. No one who wishes to gain an insight into the character of the leading men of Ireland during the last generation should fail to read this brilliant book, which Lord Brougham has characterized as "one of the most extraordinary pieces of biography ever produced."

Life of Mohammed.

By Prof. G. BUSH. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A clear and succinct account of the life of the great false prophet. In this work the various chapters of the Koran are carefully collated with the events of the narrative.

Life of the Chevalier Bayard.

By W. GILMORE SIMMS. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Bayard, the "chevalier without fear and without reproach," was one of those noble and chivalrous natures which are sometimes produced in troublous times. Trained up from his earliest years to the profession of arms, living among scenes of rapine and bloodshed, he breathed a spirit of gentleness and courtesy rarely manifested even in the sphere of quiet life. He was one of those rare personages whose lives throw a brightness and glory over our common humanity.

Life of Mozart,

including his Correspondence. By EDWARD HOLMES. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Mozart was the most astonishing musical genius that has ever lived. With such a man as his subject, an enthusiast like the author of this life could not well fail to make a readable volume.

Two Years Before the Mast.

A Personal Narrative of Life at Sea. By R. H. DANA, Jr. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The author of this work is now an eminent lawyer of Boston. Some years ago he shipped as a sailor before the mast on board a vessel bound to California for a cargo of hides. His account of a sailor's every-day life is the most graphic and accurate any where to be found. The British Government were so sensible of the rare merits of this volume, that they caused it to be reprinted in England, and distributed a large edition gratuitously among the sailors. The voyage was made long before the discovery of gold in California; and it is not a little curious to compare the present condition of that country with the aspect it formerly presented.

Segur's Expedition to Russia.

History of the Expedition to Russia, undertaken by the Emperor Napoleon in the Year 1812. By Count PHILIP DE SEGUR. Maps. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Count Segur's history of the invasion of Russia by Napoleon has stood the test of the most searching scrutiny and criticism, and is now acknowledged to be in the main a faithful and accurate account of that memorable undertaking, which was the cause of the ruin of the great emperor

Fenelon's Ancient Philosophers.

Lives of Ancient Philosophers. By M. FENELON. Translated from the French, with Notes, and a Life of the Author, by Rev. JOHN CORMACK. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The biography of some of the most celebrated philosophers of antiquity, written by one who was himself a great philosopher, and whose works have immortalized his name.

Plutarch's Lives.

Translated from the original Greek, with Notes and a Life of Plutarch, by JOHN LANGHORNE, M.D., and WILLIAM LANGHORNE, A.M. Portrait. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 25.

The same Work, printed in large type, 4 vols. 12mo, Sheep extra, $3 50.

Plutarch's lives of the great men of antiquity have charmed generation after generation of readers. They are among the earliest, and at the same time, they take rank among the best specimens of biographical composition ever produced. They have served as models for succeeding writers of every age.

Modern British Plutarch;

or, Lives of Men distinguished in the recent History of England for their Talents, Virtues, or Achievements. By W. C. TAYLOR. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Plutarch's Lives have been the delight of readers for almost two thousand years. In this volume a successful attempt is made to do for the moderns what Plutarch did for the ancients. It contains biographical sketches of nearly forty persons. Among them are HOWARD, the philanthropist; JENNER, who disarmed the small-pox of almost all its terrors; COOKE, the great navigator; BURKE, CHATHAM, Fox, and CANNING, the statesmen; NELSON, the greatest naval commander who ever lived; BYRON, SCOTT, and COWPER; SMEATON and WATT, the eminent mechanics; besides a host of warriors, orators, statesmen, and men of letters.

History of Ireland,

from the Anglo-Norman Invasion to the Union of the Country with Great Britain. By W. C. TAYLOR. With Additions, by WILLIAM SAMPSON. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Oregon and California in 1848.

With an Appendix, including recent and authentic Information on the Subject of the Gold Mines of California, and other valuable Matter of Interest to the Emigrant. By Judge THORNTON. With Illustrations and a Map. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

It presents a more fully descriptive account of the country, its resources, natural history, and geology, than any other work yet before the public; while its narrative of the sufferings and perilous adventures of a party of emigrants to California, in thrilling interest exceeds any thing of the kind extant. In addition to an account of an eventful journey across the continent to Oregon, and thence by sea to the United States via California, during the years 1846-7-8, the Appendix to the work comprehends a mass of valuable recent information respecting the California gold mines, together with instructive hints to emigrants, &c.

Hewe's Eminent Mechanics.

Lives of Eminent Mechanics; comprising Memoirs of the most Eminent American Mechanics; also, Distinguished European Mechanics; together with a Collection of Anecdotes and other Miscellaneous Matter relating to the Mechanic Arts. By HENRY HOWE. Illustrated with 50 Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Among the American mechanics whose biographies are comprised in this volume are those of JOHN FITCH, who first conceived the idea of navigation by steam; ELI WHITNEY, whose cotton-gin has multiplied many times over the value of the great Southern staple; SAMUEL SLATER, "the Father of the Cotton Manufacture in America;" HENRY ECKFORD, the celebrated ship-builder, who became chief naval constructor to the Sultan of Turkey. The list of European mechanics comprises many equally eminent. There are, in all, the lives of about thirty individuals, not one of which can be perused without instruction and profit—showing, as they all do, that an honorable place in society may be attained by the cultivation of the arts of peace as well as by that of war.

Fraser's Persia.

Historical and Descriptive Account of Persia, with a detailed View of its Resources, Government, Population, Natural History, and the Character of its Inhabitants, particularly of the Wandering Tribes: including a Description of Afghanistan and Beloochistan. By J. BAILLIE FRASER. Map and Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Besides a detailed view of the resources, government, population, and natural history of Persia, this volume presents a striking picture of the manners and customs of the wandering tribes who roam over the country. It abounds in amusing and instructive anecdotes.

Fraser's Mesopotamia and Assyria.

History of Mesopotamia and Assyria, from the earliest Ages to the present Time. By J. B. FRASER. Map and Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The connection of these countries with Biblical history, invests them with a peculiar interest. The present volume gives a spirited view of these regions as they existed in the days of their splendor, and as they now are, when fallen into ruin and decay.

Border Wars of the American Revolution.

Including the Life of Joseph Brant, the Indian Chief. By Col. W. L. STONE. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

The story of the wars carried on upon our borders during the American Revolution is full of the most exciting incidents. No man was better qualified to do justice to this subject than the author of this volume. He was thoroughly acquainted with the fierce encounters carried on in what was, at that time, the Far West, between the early settlers and their savage foes, and has embodied the results of his researches in these two attractive volumes.

Religion in America;

including a View of the various Religious Denominations in the United States. By ROBERT BAIRD, D.D. 8vo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

Thatcher's American Revolution.

The American Revolution; being rare and remarkable Passages of the History of the War of 1776. By B. B. THATCHER. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

This is altogether the most pleasing of the productions of the late estimable and accomplished Mr. Thatcher, of Boston, whose Indian Biography is better known, yet, perhaps, scarcely inferior in merit to the above work.

Thatcher's Boston Tea Party.

Traits of the Boston Tea Party: being a Memoir of George R. T. Hewes, one of the last of its Survivors. With a History of that Transaction; Reminiscences of the Massacre and the Siege; and other Stories of Old Times. By B. B. THATCHER. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

Thatcher's Indian Biography.

Biography of Distinguished Indians; or, an Historical Account of those Individuals who have been distinguished among the North American Indians as Orators, Warriors, Statesmen, and other remarkable Characters. By B. B. THATCHER. Portrait of Red Jacket. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

The extensive popularity of these biographies is one of the strongest evidences of their merit. Within a very few months after the publication a large edition was disposed of, and the work was established as a standard. Previous to their appearance there was no authentic or satisfactory account of the Indians. Notices of a few of the most distinguished among them in earlier times were to be found scattered through the pages of various historical works, but the number was very limited, and it might be said that all knowledge of their true character, and the traits for which they were renowned, existed only in oral tradition.

Thatcher's Indian Traits.

Indian Traits: being Sketches of the Manners, Customs, and Character of the North American Natives. By B. B. THATCHER. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 70 cents.

A work which will be valuable to the young, and to all who wish for a concise and just delineation of what is most desirable to be known respecting the character and customs of the natives of North America.

The American Poulterer's Companion.

A Practical Treatise on the Breeding, Rearing, Fattening, and general Management of the various Species of Domestic Poultry. By C. N. BEMENT. With Illustrations, and Portraits of Fowls taken from Life. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A book that has already received hearty commendation from all quarters. Its new improvements entitle it still more strongly to general favor. Whoever raises poultry ought to procure it, as it would save him ten times its price every year.

Life of John Calvin.

Compiled from authentic Sources, and particularly from his Correspondence. By T. H. DYER. Portrait. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Neal's Puritans.

History of the Puritans, or Protestant Non-conformists; from the Reformation in 1518 to the Revolution in 1688; comprising an Account of their Principles, Sufferings, and the Lives and Characters of their most considerable Divines. By DANIEL NEAL, M.A. With Notes, by J. O. CHOULES, D.D. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $2 75; Sheep extra, $3 00; Half Calf, $3 50.

A valuable and interesting work developing the causes of the primitive settlement of the colonies of New England, and containing the most compendious view of the United States in their early provincial dependence which can be found. The history is judicious, impartial, and unimpeachably accurate and authentic. Few men possessed more of the requisite qualifications for producing a work of this character than were enjoyed by Mr. Neal for ascertaining the whole truth upon the momentous subject which he describes.

Schiller's Thirty Years' War.

History of the Thirty Years' War. By FREDERICK SCHILLER. Translated from the German by the Rev. A. J. W. MORRISON. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A succinct and vivid insight into the religious wars of Germany during the fifteenth century, growing out of the great improvements of the Reformation era. It is replete with information of a period concerning which the religious community are now evincing unwonted interest.

Schiller's Revolt of the Netherlands.

History of the Revolt of the Netherlands; Trials and Execution of Counts Egmont and Horn, and the Siege of Antwerp. By FREDERICK SCHILLER. Translated from the German by the Rev. A. J. W. MORRISON, M.A.. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This esteemed work of Schiller portrays one of the most remarkable political events—the severing of the United Netherlands from the Spanish Crown—that can engage the student of history. The "Revolt of the Netherlands" has been pronounced an admirable work—as good, though not so well known, as the author's "Thirty Years' War." The memorable struggle with oppressive intolerance, detailed in the present work, ranks among those great crises that rendered the fifteenth century among the brightest of the world's epochs.

Life and Poems of Schiller.

By Sir E. BULWER LYTTON. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents; Half Calf, $1 40.

Bonnechose's Reformers.

The Reformers before the Reformation. The Fifteenth Century. John Huss and the Council of Constance. By EMILE DE BONNECHOSE. Translated from the French, by CAMPBELL MACKENZIE, B.A. An Introduction to D'Aubigné's "History of the Reformation." 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.

Paulding's Washington.

Life of Washington. By JAMES K. PAULDING. Engraving. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

No biographer of the "Father of his Country" has succeeded as well as Mr. Paulding in portraying the simplicity and grandeur of his character. The style of these volumes is appropriate to their subject—grave, dignified and earnest, as befits the memoirs of one of the noblest of soldiers, statesmen, and Christians.

Paulding's John Bull and Brother Jonathan.

12mo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

Paulding's Letters from the South.

2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

Salmagundi;

or, the Whim Whams and Opinions of Launcelot Langstaff and others. By JAMES K. PAULDING and WASHINGTON IRVING. 4 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 50.

Koningsmarke;

or, Old Times in the New World. By JAMES K. PAULDING. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

Paulding's Tales of the Good Woman,

by a Doubtful Gentleman. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

Paulding's Dutchman's Fireside.

2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

Paulding's Book of St. Nicholas.

Translated from the original Dutch of Dominie Nicholas Aegidius Oudenarde. 12mo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

Paulding's Three Wise Men of Gotham.

12mo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

Paulding's Westward Ho!

2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

The Battle of Buena Vista, with the Operations of the "Army of Occupation" for one Month. By Captain CARLETON. 12mo, Muslin, 70 cents.

The Conquest of Canada.

By the Author of "Hochelaga." 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 70.

Neander's Life of Christ.

Life of Christ; in its Historical Connection and its Historical Development. By AUGUSTUS NEANDER. Translated from the Fourth German Edition, by Professors MCINTOCK and BLUMENTHAL, of Dickinson College. 8vo, Muslin, $2 00; Sheep extra, $2 25.

This great work of Dr. Neander's, now first translated, forms a necessary introduction to his General History of the Christian Religion and Church. Its reputation in Germany is too well known for it to need commendation here. Independently of its value as an antidote to the modern skeptical criticism, whether of the rationalistic or the mythical school, the work has taken its place as a standard authority on many points of chronology and interpretation, and is, indeed, regarded by many as the best commentary upon the four Gospels now extant. To those who have been accustomed only to expository works of the English school of theology, it will open an entirely new view of the life of the Savior, while, at the same time, its profound spirituality, breathing the very spirit of religion and humility, can not fail to render it as serviceable to the cause of practical holiness as of scientific theology.

Lieber's Great Events.

Great Events described by distinguished Historians, Chroniclers, and other Writers. By FRANCIS LIEBER, LL.D. A new Edition. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The compiler's design in this work is to afford means of forming strong character, awakening generous impulses, and invigorating the mind for future action, by encouraging an early familiarity with great events, and with those prominent men whose bold deeds and persevering exertions were crowned with lasting effects, or whose loftiness of purpose renders them inspiring examples. He has, therefore, brought together in this volume the record of fifteen great events, from the battle of Thermopylae, before Christ 480, to the siege of Saragossa, by Wellington, in 1808. The narrators of these events embrace many distinguished historians—Herodotus, Plato, Pliny, Gibbon, Bentivoglio, Southey, Napier, &c. The work is well conceived, and must be very useful.

Lieber on Property and Labor.

Essays on Property and Labor, as connected with Natural Law and the Constitution of Society. By F. LIEBER. With a Preliminary Essay, by Rev. Dr. POTTER. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Letters like those contained in this volume are always seasonable. In this age, pre-eminently devoted to industrious enterprise, they are especially needed, and it is much to be desired that they may be widely circulated.

The Philosophy of Mystery.

By WALTER COOPER DENNY. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This is a book for the lovers of marvels and of mysteries. It contains an immense collection of anecdotes of spectral apparitions, of illusions of vision or of hearing, of striking phenomena exhibited in dreams, in insanity, in trance, or in magnetism, and furnishes many valuable hints to aid in the solution of these mysteries, by which so many have been bewildered or affrighted. It is written in a style of great ease and elegance, and can not fail to always have a very wide circle of readers.

Lives of Celebrated Travelers.

Containing Memoirs of William de Rubruquis, Marco Polo, Ibn Batuta, Leo Africanus, Pietro Della Valle, Jean Baptiste Tavernier, François Bernier, Sir John Chardin, Englebert Kämpfer, Henry Maundrel, Joseph Pitton de Tournefort, Dr. Thomas Shaw, Frederic Hasselquist, Lady Wortley Montague, Richard Pococke, John Bell, John Ledyard, George Forster, James Bruce, Jonas Hanway, Antonio de Ulloa, Mungo Park, Peter Simon Pallas, Carsten Niebuhr, Choiseul-Gouffier, John Lewis Burkhardt, Volney, Edward Daniel Clarke, François le Vaillant, Belzoni, Dominique Vivant Denon, Reginald Heber. By JAMES A. ST. JOHN. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 25.

These volumes comprise the lives of more than thirty of the most celebrated travelers, from the time of Rubruquis and Marco Polo, who brought back such strange stories about the Tartar Khans, down to the better-informed voyagers of our own days, who have undertaken to explore the still more mysterious countries of Central Africa. The reader will here find the substance of many ponderous volumes, to be met with only in great libraries—all the more valuable because of the omission of many trifling or unreliable facts.

History of the Bible.

By Rev. G. R. GLEIG. Map. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 80 cents.

Perhaps the most elaborate and able examination of the various objections urged against the Scriptures that has ever been written ; and, at the same time, one of the clearest and most satisfactory expositions of the whole Bible, not only as the foundation of our faith, but also as a history. In the performance of his task, Mr. Gleig has exhibited equal piety and learning, and his work is calculated to facilitate, in a remarkable degree, both the comprehension and enjoyment of the inspired writings.

A True Story of the Battle of Waterloo.

By Rev. G. R. GLEIG. 12mo, Paper, 75 cents ; Muslin, 90 cents.

A very complete, pains-taking, well-arranged, and interesting narrative, embracing all the collateral points of the subject, as well as its main features. The arrangement, indeed, is its first excellence. We have never met with so complete and well-arranged a view of the "Story of the Hundred Days."—London Spectator.

This account is instinct with spirit, and many are the striking and touching anecdotes which add to its interest. It is likely to become one of the most popular productions.—Literary Gazette.

The Juvenile Budget Opened ;

being Selections from the Writings of DR. JOHN AIKIN. Edited by MRS. S. J. HALE. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

His writings are the reflections of his spirit, and accordingly abound in all that refine and elevate. There is abundant evidence of this in this little volume.

The Juvenile Budget Reopened ;

being further Selections from the Writings of DR. JOHN AIKIN, with copious Notes. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

His juvenile writings have exerted the widest and happiest influence, and should be the most highly cherished of all his productions.—Mrs. S. J. Hale.

Dick's Improvement of Society.

The Improvement of Society by the Diffusion of Knowledge. By THOMAS DICK, LL.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

There are many things here more entertaining by far than any thing to be found in the pages of fancy or fiction. This entertainment and instruction will be found in Dr. Dick's very delightful communications regarding the wonder and beauties of creation, both animate and inanimate.

Dick's Celestial Scenery.

Celestial Scenery; or, The Wonders of the Planetary System displayed; illustrating the Perfections of Deity, and a Plurality of Worlds. By THOMAS DICK, LL.D. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This work is designed as initiatory to the sublime study of Astronomy; the author's aim has been to avoid entering on the more abstruse and recondite portions of the science, and to confine the attention of the reader to the exhibition of facts, the foundation on which they rest, and the reasonings by which they are supported. All the prominent facts and discoveries connected with descriptive astronomy, in so far as they relate to the planetary system, are here recorded, and many of them exhibited in a new point of view; while several new facts and observations are detailed which have hitherto been either unnoticed or unrecorded.

Dick's Sidereal Heavens.

The Sidereal Heavens, and other Subjects connected with Astronomy, as illustrative of the Character of the Deity, and of an Infinity of Worlds. By THOMAS DICK, LL.D. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

In the present volume the author has grouped together and presented in a popular and intelligible manner the great leading facts connected with a survey of the sidereal heavens, so that those who possess little or no knowledge of mathematical science may easily comprehend his details. As in his previous writings, the author has embodied with his descriptions such remarks and moral reflections as were naturally suggested by the grandeur of his subject.

Dick's Practical Astronomer.

The Practical Astronomer; comprising Illustrations of Light and Colors, practical Descriptions of all Kinds of Telescopes, the use of the Equatorial Transit, Circular, and other Astronomical Instruments, a particular Account of the Earl of Rosse's large Telescopes, and other Topics connected with Astronomy. By THOMAS DICK, LL.D. Illustrated with 100 Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

An extremely interesting, valuable, and useful book. It is a treatise on the properties of light; and the author, in his usual clear style and pleasant manner, discusses the general qualities of light, its refraction, its colors, &c. The volume contains a particular account of Lord Rosse's mammoth telescope, and a description of the various astronomical instruments now in use. The title of the book, indeed, gives an excellent idea of its scope and character. It is one of the most useful volumes, for practical use, extant.

Bacon and Locke's Essays.

Essays, Moral, Economical, and Political. By FRANCIS, LORD BACON. And The Conduct of the Understanding. By JOHN LOCKE. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

In these essays, the superiority of his genius appears to the greatest advantage, the novelty and depth of his reflections often receiving a strong relief from the triteness of his topic. They may be read from beginning to end in a few hours, and yet, after the twentieth perusal, one seldom fails to remark in them something overlooked before. This, indeed, is a characteristic of all of Bacon's writings, and is only to be accounted for by the inexhaustible aliment they furnish to our thoughts, and the sympathetic activity they impart to our torpid faculties.—DUG-ALD STEWART.

Dymond's Principles of Morality.

Essays on the Principles of Morality, and on the Private and Political Rights and Obligations of Mankind. By JONATHAN DYMOND. With a Preface and Notes, by Rev. GEORGE BUSH. 8vo, Muslin, $1 00.

The author of these essays was removed from life before he had reached the period of middle age. His station in the world was apparently little favorable to the cultivation of high intellectual powers; yet he has left behind him a monument more durable than brass in this much-esteemed volume; of which Professor Bush, who has added a preface and notes to the American edition, says that, "whether we regard the soundness of his reasonings, the temper, candor, and wisdom of his conclusions, the elegance of his style, the felicity of his illustrations or the singularly excellent spirit which pervades the whole, it is entitled to rank high in the highest class of ethical productions."

Democracy.

By G. SIDNEY CAMP. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This little volume fills a vacuum in popular literature. It ought to be in the hands of every American citizen. Its object is to elucidate the theory of self-government, and to exhibit the principles of free elective institutions, the prerogatives of a republican government, &c.

The Arabian Nights' Entertainments.

Translated and arranged for Family Reading, with Explanatory Notes, by E. W. LANE. Illustrated with 600 Engravings, by HARVEY. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 75; Muslin, gilt edges, $3 00; Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, $5 00.

These world-renowned Oriental tales are among the most cherished of our literary stores. The delight with which all classes of readers seize upon the fascinating tissue, is no whit less than that which enchains a circle of Arabs, as they sit round their fire in the desert, forgetting the toils and hardships of the day in the splendid creations of Oriental fancy. Stories of genii and afrites, enchanted horses, and women whose beauty causes the beholder to faint away, are as easy to believe as ever, and possess a power over the imagination which will last as long as human nature. This superbly embellished edition presents an unrivaled specimen of the typographical art.

Change for the American Notes,

in Letters from London to New York, by a Lady. 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents.

Duer's Constitutional Jurisprudence.

A Course of Lectures on the Constitutional Jurisprudence of the United States. By WILLIAM A. DUER, LL.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

I have passed rapidly through it, and that rapid glance has satisfied me of the value of the work, and the correctness of its principles and statements.—Chief-justice MARSHALL.

It is a work of great use.—EDWARD LIVINGSTON.

Lord Chesterfield's Works.

Including his Letters to his Son, complete. With a Memoir. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Half Calf, $2 00.

There is not a book extant in our own, or, perhaps, in any other language, which contains such a fund of useful practical knowledge as Lord Chesterfield's letters to his son.—Dr. GREGORY.

Natural History of Selborne.

By Rev. GILBERT WHITE. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

White's Selborne lays bare the greater part of a life devoted to literary occupations and the study of nature. His minute and interesting facts, the entire consecration of the amiable author to his subject, and the easy elegance and simplicity of his style, render White's history a universal favorite—something like Izaak Walton's book on angling, which all admire and hundreds have endeavored to copy. The retired naturalist was too full of facts and observations to have room for sentimental writing, yet in many passages we may trace no common power of picturesque painting.—CHAMBERS.

Mechanism of the Hand, and its vital Endowments, as evincing Design. By Sir CHARLES BELL, F.R.S. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

This work forms one of the distinguished productions approved by the committee appointed on the Bridgewater series—a collection characterized by classical elegance of style, as well as by the highest scientific acquirements. The author's high professional reputation renders further comment needless.

Letters of the British Spy.

By WM. WIRT. To which is prefixed a Sketch of the Author's Life. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

One of the most elegant writers, as well as one of the most finished orators and lawyers, of our country. His "British Spy," a series of essays written in early life, as well as his life of Patrick Henry, will remain as monuments of his genius. These elegant letters are celebrated for the purity of their style, as well as for the faithful picture which they give of manners and scenery in Virginia.

Bell's Life of Canning.

Life of the Rt. Hon. George Canning. By R. BELL. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Hopkins's Confessional.

History of the Confessional. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Natural History of Birds.

Their Architecture, Habits, and Faculties. By Prof. RENNIE.
With numerous Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This delightful little work, written by Prof. Rennie, of King's College, London, and originally published under the auspices of the British Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, presents a complete view of the habits, peculiarities, and natural history of the feathered tribes in all their variety and interest. It is almost impossible to select a more charming volume.

Natural History of the Elephant,

as he exists in a wild State, and as he has been made subservient, in Peace and in War, to the Purposes of Man. By Prof. RENNIE. Illustrated with Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Natural History of Quadrupeds.

By Prof. RENNIE. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

History of the Reformed Religion in France.

By Rev. EDWARD SMEDLEY. Portrait. 8 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 40.

This work supplies a deficiency which has long been acknowledge in our information respecting a great chain of events, the consequences of which are interwoven with the destinies of the world. With respect to the progress of the Reformation on the Continent of Europe, particularly in France, where so many of its important events occurred, we have been comparatively without the means of correct information. This Mr. Smedley has ably supplied.

Sketches from Venetian History.

By Rev. EDWARD SMEDLEY. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Few have the knowledge, the time, and means to explore for themselves the treasures of the Italian Chronicles. The author of this work has laid open their stores for the benefit of English readers, gleaning from them the most characteristic incidents and amusing stories and anecdotes ; while, at the same time, he has sustained all the dignity of historical research.

Discovery and Adventure in Africa.

By Professor JAMESON, JAMES WILSON, and HUGH MURRAY. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

In this volume is recorded every thing that is known of the interior of that dangerous continent which has been for so many ages a terra incognita, and proved the grave of so many enterprising travelers. The plan of the work consists of condensed abstracts of the narratives of modern travelers, in which every thing important or interesting is preserved, while minor details have been so abbreviated as to bring the substance of each account within convenient limits.

History of the National Constituent Assembly,

from May, 1848. By J. F. CORKRAN, Esq. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

or, The Uses of Orphanage. By JOSEPH ALDEN, D.D. Engravings.
18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 45 cents.

Elizabeth Benton;

or, Religion in Connection with Fashionable Life. By JOSEPH ALDEN, D.D. 18mo, Paper, 25 cents; Muslin, 37½ cents.

This is a beautifully-written tale; it is an essay to illustrate the appropriate use of the imagination, proving that it is susceptible of being the medium of yielding much innocent enjoyment, as well as of illustrating and enforcing important truths.

The Lawyer's Daughter.

By JOSEPH ALDEN, D.D. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents, Muslin, gilt edges, 45 cents.

Dr. Alden is achieving quite a reputation as a successful writer in field of apparent ease and insignificance, but of real importance and difficulty. If he occupies a seat with Peter Parley, and some other pleasant instructors of youth, he will have got a good immortality; nor is he unbending his professional dignity, for Walter Scott has written Tales of a Grandfather.—Literary World.

The Schoolmistress.

By JOSEPH ALDEN, D.D. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 45 cents.

The Dying Robin, and other Tales.

Distinguished Females.

Lives of Distinguished Females. Containing those of Lady Jane Grey, Queen Elizabeth, Queen Mary, Queen Christina, Lady Rachel Russell, Elizabeth Smith, Lucretia Maria Davidson, Mrs. Isabella Graham, Mrs. Judson. Written for Girls, with a View to their Mental and Moral Improvement. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

This is a pleasing and instructive series of memoirs of eminent women of various countries and ages of the world, whose heroism and intellectual acquirements, or virtue and piety, have immortalized their names and embalmed their memories; and whose brilliant example can not fail of exerting, especially on the minds of the young, a beneficial influence.

Bangs's Arminius.

Life of James Arminius, D.D., formerly Professor of Divinity in the University of Leyden. Compiled from his Life and Writings, as published by Mr. James Nichols, by NATHAN BANGS, D.D. 18mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

Carlyle's French Revolution.

History of the French Revolution. Newly revised by the Author, with Index, &c. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00; Half Calf, $3 00.

A book which, beyond any other history of that eventful period, gives an intelligible, clear-sighted view of the causes and facts of the French Revolution.—Commercial Advertiser.

Carlyle's Oliver Cromwell.

Letters and Speeches of Oliver Cromwell. With Elucidations and Connecting Narrative. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00; Half Calf, $3 00.

A work more valuable as a guide to the study of the singular and complex character of our pious revolutionist, our religious demagogue, our preaching and praying warrior, has not been produced.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Carlyle's Past and Present,

Chartism, and Sartor Resartus. A new Edition. Complete in 1 vol. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00; Half Calf, $1 50.

Lives of Distinguished Men of Modern Times.

With Portraits. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

A series of complete and authentic biographies, referring to fuller sources of information, of one hundred and sixty-eight persons, of all countries, illustrious as great originators or inventors in arts, sciences, and literature, and of statesmen and warriors who have had the greatest influence on the destinies of mankind. These biographies have been considered a valuable acquisition to literature; and although the critical observations will render them valuable to the student of the arts, yet, as being free from the dry details and technicalities of virtu, and abounding throughout with personal anecdote, they are not less alluring than instructive to the ordinary reader.

Bayle's Anatomy.

An Elementary Treatise on Anatomy. By A. L. S. BAYLE, M.D. Translated from the French by A. SIDNEY DOANE, M.D. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

The chief merits of this manual are its great accuracy and conciseness of description, combined with a happy arrangement of the subject—advantages which have secured for the work an extensive patronage at home and abroad.

Cook's Voyages.

Voyages of Captain Cook round the World. With an Account of his Life during the previous and intervening Periods, by Dr. KIPPIS, F.R.S. 18mo, Half Roan, 87½ cents.

Is there a heart but what alternately glows with transport and melts with pity at the spirit, disinterestedness, penetration, energy, and untimely death of Captain James Cook?—DIBDIN.

German Criminal Trials.

By ANSELM R. VON FEUERBACH. Translated by Lady DUFF GORDON. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Beck's Botany of the United States.

The Botany of the United States, north of Virginia; comprising Descriptions of Flowering and Fern-like Plants hitherto found in those States, arranged according to the Natural System. With a Synopsis of the Genera according to the Linnæan System, a Sketch of the Rudiments of Botany, &c. By LEWIS C. BECK. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25; Sheep, $1 50.

This work contains scientific and popular descriptions of the flowering and fern-like plants found in the United States north of Virginia, with their English names, brief notices of their uses, &c. The arrangement is according to the natural system, which the author introduced to the notice of American botanists in the first edition, published several years since, and which is now generally adopted. But in order to secure all the advantages of the Linnæan system, a synopsis of the genera in accordance with it is prefixed, containing references to the natural orders, and to the page where the species are described. And, fully to carry out the design of the work, and to render it as well a class-book for the beginner as a convenient manual for the more advanced botanist, there have also been added a sketch of the rudiments of botany, a glossary of botanical terms, and a table explanatory of the Linnæan classes and orders.

The Heir of Wast-Wayland.

By MARY HOWITT. 12mo, Paper, 37½ cents; Muslin, 45 cents.

Who shall be Greatest?

By MARY HOWITT. 18mo, Muslin, 38 cents.

Tales in Verse.

By MARY HOWITT. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 30 cents.

Tales in Prose.

By MARY HOWITT. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 30 cents.

Tales from Natural History.

By MARY HOWITT. 18mo, Muslin, 30 cents.

The Peasant and his Landlord:

translated by MARY HOWITT. Paper, 50 cents; Muslin, 75 cents.

Spurzheim's Phrenology.

Phrenology; or, the Doctrine of the Mental Phenomena. By J. G. SPURZHEIM. A new revised Edition, with many Illustrations. Two Volumes in One. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50.

The distinguished reputation of this author will suffice to commend the present improved edition of his celebrated work on the study of mental phenomena, both in the physiological and philosophical part of phrenology. As the most thorough and profound treatise on the subject, this work has long retained the first rank; it illustrates the science by numerous facts cited from a variety of sources, of great value and interest, which render this production unique. The work is embellished by numerous engravings illustrative of the text, which are admirably executed on steel.

French Domestic Cookery,

combining Elegance with Economy; describing new Culinary Implements and Processes; the Management of the Table; Instructions for Carving; French, German, Polish, and Italian Cookery; in Twelve Hundred Receipts. Besides a variety of new Modes of Keeping and Storing Provisions, Domestic Hints, &c.; Management of Wines, &c. With many Engravings. 12mo, Paper, 50 cents; Sheep, 62½ cents.

Every head of a family who prefers to pay the butcher rather than the doctor should carry home with him a copy of this book. It is a work of which thirty editions have been printed in Paris, and 80,000 copies sold.—News.

History of the American Revolution.

Edited by Rev. J. L. BLAKE. Illustrated by Four Maps and Wood-cuts. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A concise and clear narration of the chief events of the American Revolution, sustaining, by the simple recital of facts, without adornment, unabated interest from beginning to end. Another thing in its favor is, that it was originally published under the supervision of the London Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge. The pictorial illustrations give interest to the work, and its numerous maps will greatly assist the scholar or reader in a perusal of its pages.

The Juvenile Companion

and Fireside Reader, consisting of Historical and Biographical Anecdotes, and Selections in Poetry. By Rev. J. L. BLAKE. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

The young person who can read this volume without becoming wiser and better from its perusal, have little taste and less good principle. It is a casket of bright records.

Lives of the Apostles and early Martyrs of the Church. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 25 cents.

The style is beautifully simple, and the narrative is interspersed with comments and reflections remarkable for their devout spirit, and for the clearness with which they elucidate whatever might appear to the mind either contradictory or unintelligible. It is impossible for any child to read these affecting histories without becoming interested; and the interest is so directed and improved as to implant and foster the purest principles of religion and morality.

Uncle John;

or, "It is too much Trouble." By MARY ORME. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

This little work will be read with deep interest and profit by all. The plot of the story is simple, and the incidents belong to the region of fact rather than of fancy; but the truthfulness of its description, its masterly delineations of character, and the liveliness of its style, render it highly piquant and agreeable, while the clearness with which it inculcates certain weighty truths, must commend it to the attention of all who desire the infusion of a truer spirit into the details of every-day life.

Temper and Temperament;

or, Varieties of Character. By Mrs. ELLIS. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Mrs. Ellis is one of the most popular female writers of the day. "Temper and Temperament," although characterized by less pretense than some other of her productions, is the best of them all. It is an excellent book for the family circle. It is simply, plainly, and even vigorously written.

Parental Instruction.

Designed for Young Persons of either Sex. Selected mainly from the Writings of an eminent Physician. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

The scope of this little book is excellent. It is an attempt to enlighten the heart as well as the mind of young people, by examples as well as precepts of virtue and religious purity. We can safely recommend the book for the young.—Christian Inquirer.

Hunter's Sacred Biography.

Sacred Biography; or, the History of the Patriarchs. To which are added the History of Deborah, Ruth, and Hannah, and also the History of Jesus Christ. By HENRY HUNTER, D.D. 8vo, Muslin, $1 75.

A truly fascinating work. Dr. Hunter was a man of learning; his writings are eloquent, and show how well he had studied human nature.—Dr. CHALMERS

Dwight's Theology.

Theology Explained and Defended, in a Series of Sermons. By TIMOTHY DWIGHT, LL.D. With a Memoir of the Life of the Author. Portrait. 4 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $6 00; Sheep extra, $6 50; Half Calf, $7 25.

As a work of systematic theology, this has no equal in the language. The admirable arrangement, the clear and eloquent style, the masterly and profound argument, and the spirit of piety and reverence which characterize its pages, have long since given it a character in this country and England that no other treatise has obtained. Dr. Dwight's fame is more widely extended than that of any other American divine, with perhaps the exception of Edwards. His discourses are familiar to theologians wherever the English language is spoken.

Life of Christ,

in the Words of the Evangelists. A complete Harmony of the Gospel History of our Saviour. For the Use of Young Persons, Illustrated by 30 fine Engravings by ADAMS, from Designs by CHAPMAN and others. 16mo, Muslin, gilt, 75 cents; Muslin, gilt edges, $1 00.

A Diatesseron, or combination of the Gospel narratives into one unbroken story, such as is here attempted, can not fail of interesting Christians of every class; concentrating, as it does, into one view the various inspired accounts of the life and actions of the Great Source of all their hopes. In the arrangement of the events, the compiler has consulted the best harmonists. The work, therefore, possesses additional value on this account.

The Comforter;

or, Consolation for the Afflicted. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Keith's Harmony of Prophecy.

The Harmony of Prophecy; or, Scriptural Illustrations of the Apocalypse. By Rev. ALEXANDER KEITH, D.D. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Keith's Evidence.

Evidence of the Truth of the Christian Religion, derived from the literal Fulfillment of Prophecy; particularly as illustrated by the History of the Jews, and by the Discoveries of recent Travelers. By ALEXANDER KEITH, D.D. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

The work is so justly appreciated in Edinburgh that it has passed through six editions, and parts of it have been published in tracts in English, French, and German.

Few more satisfactory works in confirmation of the inspiration of Scripture have appeared within our own time than that of Mr. Keith.—Rev. Dr. SHUTTLEWORTH, Warden of New College, Oxford.

Keith's Demonstration.

Demonstration of the Truth of the Christian Religion. By Rev. ALEXANDER KEITH, D.D. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 37½.

These three volumes by Dr. Keith hold a high rank among the historical elucidations and evidences of Christianity. They are filled with Scriptural illustrations, and shed new light upon many portions of Sacred Writ. As powerful aids to develope the purport of ancient prophecy, Dr. Keith's three volumes are equally adapted for the Biblical student and for the instruction of the private Christian.

Keith's Land of Israel.

The Land of Israel: according to the Covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. By Rev. ALEXANDER KEITH, D.D. Plates. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

The Little Savage.

Being the History of a Boy left alone upon an uninhabited Island. By Captain MARRYAT, R.N. 12mo, Paper, 37½ cents; Muslin, 45 cents.

The Children of the New Forest.

By Captain MARRYAT, R.N. 12mo, Paper, 37½ cents; Muslin, 45 cents.

Capt. Marryatt was never more entertaining, or more felicitous in his subject, than when he commenced writing for young persons. The perspicuity of his language, and his great natural powers of description, make themselves sensibly felt in such a work as this.

D'Israeli's Amenities of Literature.

Amenities of Literature, consisting of Sketches and Characters of English Literature. By I. D'ISRAELI, D.C.L., F.S.A. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50; Half Calf, $2 50.

Russell's Modern Europe.

History of Modern Europe, with a View of the Progress of Society, from the Rise of Modern Kingdoms to the Peace of Paris in 1763. By W. RUSSELL. With a Continuance of the History, by WM. JONES. Engravings. 3 vols. 8vo, Sheep, $4 50; Half Calf, $5 50.

The history of modern Europe, by Dr. Russell, has always been prized for its comprehensiveness. It includes the most important period in the annals of mankind, as the author's narrative introduces the era when the renovation of society commenced, after the protracted continuance of that mental gloom which, during several centuries, covered the civilized world. Says Chambers of this work, "It is a production at once so succinct, yet so perspicuous, comprehensive, and entertaining, that all rivalry appears to be precluded."

Tales from American History.

By Miss E. ROBINS. Engravings. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 00.

American Biography.

By JEREMY BELKNAP, D.D. With Additions and Notes by F. M. HUBBARD. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 35.

The established reputation of this valuable series of American biography has long imparted to it a high authority. Derived from accredited, in many instances from rare and inaccessible sources, Dr. Belknap's work will ever be regarded as of great historical value. These distinguished biographies include all the leading illustrious names known to the early history of the country, many of which have shed lustre on its national records.

Belknap's Life.

Life of Jeremy Belknap, D.D., the Historian of New Hampshire. With Selections from his Correspondence and other Writings. Collected and Arranged by his Grand-daughter. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Bell's Mary Queen of Scots.

Life of Mary Queen of Scots. By H. G. BELL. Portraits. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 85 cents.

Mr. Bell has undertaken the vindication of Queen Mary; and, having investigated the facts with uncommon industry and patience, he has succeeded in establishing a conviction of her entire innocence. The sympathy excited by the story of her beauty and her misfortune is now heightened by the assurance of her wrongs. Mr. Bell's is considered the most effective, as well as the most impartial life that has been written, next to the one in Miss Strickland's admirable work, "The Queens of Scotland," described in another part of this Catalogue.

Life and Writings of Cassius M. Clay.

Including Speeches and Addresses. Edited, with a Preface and Memoir, by HORACE GREELEY. With a Portrait. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50.

Washingtonii Vita.

Life of Washington, in Latin Prose. By FRANCIS GLASS. Edited by J. N. REYNOLDS. Portrait. 12mo, Muslin, \$1 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ .

Washington's Religious Opinions.

Religious Opinions and Character of Washington. By E. C. M'GUIRE. 12mo, Paper, 35 cents; Muslin, 60 cents.

The author has placed the question of Washington's religious opinions and character in a satisfactory point of view as a man of faith and prayer, as humble, constant, and watchful in his religious duties, as he was honest in purpose, sagacious in counsel, and mighty in the battle-field. The subject is one which can never cease to be attractive to American Christians.

Jacobs's Adventures in the Pacific Ocean.

Scenes, Incidents, and Adventures in the Pacific Ocean; or, the Islands of the Australasian Seas, during the Cruise of the Clipper Margaret Oakley, under Captain Benjamin Morrell. By THOMAS JEFFERSON JACOBS. With numerous Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

The writer of the above narrative, having had the fortune to attend the expedition referred to in these pages, from its commencement to its termination, has herein presented a graphic and simple statement of the scenes and incidents of the voyages through which they passed, with sketches of character and other local descriptions.

Sforzosi's Compendius History of Italy.

Translated from the Italian, by NATHANIEL GREENE. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Siebold's Japan and the Japanese.

Manners and Customs of the Japanese in the Nineteenth Century. From the Accounts of recent Dutch Residents in Japan, and from the German Work of Dr. PH. F. VON SIEBOLD. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Wrangell's Expedition to the Polar Sea.

Narrative of an Expedition to the Polar Sea, in the Years 1820, 1821, 1822, and 1823. By Admiral FERDINAND WRANGELL, Russian Navy. Map. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This volume, comprising an account of a Russian Exploring Expedition along the northern coasts of Siberia, is full of curious and valuable information, which can not but prove peculiarly interesting to the American reader. The work was originally published in the German, under the editorial auspices of Professor Ritter, of Berlin, from the documents of M. Wrangell, of the Russian imperial navy.

Cobbett's Life of Jackson.

Life of Andrew Jackson, Seventh President of the United States of America. By WILLIAM COBBETT. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Uncle Philip's Evidences of Christianity;

or, Conversations about the Truth of the Christian Religion.
18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

In this excellent little work a very difficult task has been undertaken, and successfully accomplished—that of making both attractive and intelligible to the minds of the young the great and striking evidences by which the truth of our Divine religion is established. The manner in which the subject is treated is both novel and ingenious; and so much of narrative is mingled with the argument as to make it not only impressive, but highly interesting.

Uncle Philip's Natural History;

or, Conversations with the Children about Tools and Trades among the Inferior Animals. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

This work deserves high praise. It displays much tact and ingenuity, guided by sound judgment, and controlled by fervent piety. Such books for the young are scarce, and likely to be so; for few are able to produce them. Children will delight in it, and profit by it.—The Churchman.

Uncle Philip's Virginia;

or, Conversations with the Children about the History of Virginia. With numerous Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

Uncle Philip is deservedly a great favorite. He tells his stories in a lively, agreeable manner, always watching for an opportunity to drop a word of wise counsel, which, coming at the right time, sinks as deeply into the heart as the most affecting incident of the story. The present work contains the history of Virginia, from the first attempts of the colony to the time of its independence, embracing the tragic story of Smith and Pocahontas. The book is suitable for family and district libraries.

Uncle Philip's New York;

or, Conversations with the Children about the History of New York. With numerous Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 70 cents.

Uncle Philip's New Hampshire;

or, Conversations with the Children about the History of New Hampshire. With numerous Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 70 cents.

Uncle Philip's Massachusetts;

or, Conversations with the Children about the History of Massachusetts. With numerous Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 70 cents.

Uncle Philip's Greenland;

or, Conversations with the Children about the Lost Colonies of Greenland. With numerous Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

Uncle Philip's American Forest;

or, Conversations with the Children about the Trees of America.
Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

The productions of Uncle Philip are all distinguished for that familiar, easy style of composition so peculiarly adapted to children, and which conveys information through a channel so pleasing as to make its acquisition a recreation rather than a task. The mind is entertained at the same time that it is enlightened, and the child has its amusement within the compass of its studies.

Uncle Philip's Whale Fishery;

or, Conversations with the Children about the Whale Fishery and the Polar Seas. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 70 cents.

Waddington's Church History.

History of the Church, from the earliest Ages to the Reformation.
By Rev. GEORGE WADDINGTON, M.A. 8vo, Muslin, $1 75.

The work was expressly written for and published by the Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge, a sufficient guarantee for value and soundness of opinion, even had not the amazing sale of above one hundred thousand copies in England given it the surest proof of general approbation. It is recognized generally by theologians as most clear, accurate, and comprehensive; and the arrangement is esteemed particularly judicious.

Biographical History of Congress:

comprising Memoirs of Members of the Congress of the United States, together with a History of Internal Improvements, from the Foundation of the Government to the present Time. By HENRY G. WHEELER. With Portraits and Fac-simile Autographs. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $3 00 per Volume.

It is the design of the above work to present a series of biographical sketches of the members of Congress, divested of party bias, and drawn from authentic sources; thus embodying in a succinct and attractive form much of the contemporary history and political progress of the country. The absence of any permanent and accredited record of the actions and personal traits of those who have contributed to the national advancement has been the subject of frequent regret; and it is to this cause that the above literary enterprise owes its origin. From its extended range of interest, it will be found a work essential to the completeness of every gentleman's library.

Seymour's Mornings among the Jesuits.

Mornings among the Jesuits at Rome. Being Notes of Conversations held with certain Jesuits on the Subject of Religion in the City of Rome. By Rev. M. HOBART SEYMORE, M.A. 12mo, Paper, 62½ cents; Muslin, 75 cents.

The Philosophy of Living; or, the Way to enjoy Life and its Comforts. By CALEB TICKNOR, A.M., M.D. Engravings. 18mo. Muslin, 45 cents.

This little work, as its title designates, is upon the science of living, or living well, being composed of dissertations upon diet, dress, occupation, and amusements. It is written in a frank, open style, with considerable energy, and many of the vices of the age are lashed with unsparing severity.

Smith's Consular Cities of China.

A Narrative of an Exploratory Visit to each of the Consular Cities of China, and to the Islands of Hong Kong and Chusan, in behalf of the Church Missionary Society, in the Years 1844-46. By Rev. G. SMITH. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

The primary object of this interesting narrative of a tour among the newly-opened cities of China has been to explore the ground, and exhibit the real condition of the country at the present day. The work is especially valuable as supplying important data for rightly estimating the moral, social, and political condition of that peculiar people. In addition to the above, Mr. Smith's connection with the existing British missionary operations in the Chinese Empire has enabled him to collect a valuable store of information respecting that interesting religious enterprise. The embellishments to the work are unusually effective, novel, and interesting.

Sismondi's Italian Republics.

History of the Italian Republics, being a View of the Rise, Progress, and Fall of Italian Freedom. By J. C. L. SIMONDE DE SISMONDL. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

As an historian, Sismondi is distinguished for his full and accurate narrative, drawn with great scrupulousness from original sources; and his works are replete with instruction in regard to facts, and in their pictures of the changes in their social condition.

Sismondi's Literature.

Historical View of the Literature of the South of Europe. By J. C. L. SIMONDE DE SISMONDL. Translated, with Notes, by THOMAS ROSEC. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 80.

A work written in that flowing and graceful style which distinguishes the author, and succeeding in all that it seeks to give—a pleasing and popular, yet not superficial or unsatisfactory, account of the best authors in the southern languages.—HALLAM.

Life of Alexander the Great.

By Rev. J. WILLIAMS, A.M. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This volume fills a blank in the historical library, and furnishes a capital manual for the scholar. It is not confined to the mere exploits and adventures of the Macedonian hero, but contains a masterly view of the times in which he lived, and of the manners, customs, &c., of the Greeks, Persians, Arabs, and Indians, and other nations whom he conquered or visited. The whole story is told in a manner calculated to stimulate the curiosity and rouse the reflection of the reader.

Cobb's Lexicon.

A Miniature Lexicon of the English Language. By LYMAN COBB, M.A. Portrait of the Author. 48mo, Muslin, 50 cents; Pocket-book form, $1 00; Calf or Morocco, gilt edges, $1 25.

A convenient little manual; clear in the typography, and so small that it may be carried in the pocket. It contains copious definitions, syllabic divisions, and the accentuation of each word: each page is surrounded by sound maxims. It is, in truth, "multum in parvo."

Thirlwall's Greece.

History of Greece. By Rev. CONNOP THIRLWALL, D.D. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $2 75; Sheep extra, $3 00; Half Calf, $3 50.

If my early friend Dr. Thirlwall's "History of Greece" had appeared a few years earlier, I should probably never have conceived the design of the present work at all. Having studied, of course, the same evidences as Dr. Thirlwall, I am better enabled than others to bear testimony to the learning, the sagacity, and the candor which pervades his excellent work.—Preface to Grote's "History of Greece."

"Bishop Thirlwall's singularly accurate and learned History of Greece," is the first work on Grecian history which we can declare in all respects satisfactory. The numerous and important discoveries made by German genius and erudition are faithfully methodized and incorporated into the narrative; and it is no mean share of learning that the ablest Hellenist of his day at Cambridge has himself brought to the execution of his task. His work is candid, learned, and honest; and it is to be hoped that the convenience of a text-book so valuable may tend to the diffusion of a more general acquaintance with the life, character, and career of the ancient Greeks.—Southern Quarterly Review.

Glimpses of Spain;

or, Notes of an unfinished Tour in 1847. By S. T. WALLIS. 12mo, Paper, 75 cents; Muslin, $1 00.

A work which is characterized by a close observation of all material facts and incidents, a liberal view of existing institutions, and a style easy, graceful, and readable in a high degree. It has attained a high position among the best books of travels.

Voyages round the World, from the Death of Captain Cook to the present Time; including Remarks on the social Condition of the Inhabitants in the recently discovered Countries; their Progress in the Arts, &c. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This volume contains the researches of circumnavigators, and is admirably written, presenting in every page matter of the most interesting and valuable kind.

History of the American Bible Society.

from its Organization in 1816 to the present Time. By Rev. W. P. STRICKLAND. With an Introduction, by Rev. N. L. RICE, and a Portrait of Hon. E. BOUDINOT, LL.D., first President of the Society. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Sheep extra, $1 75.

This work is full of most valuable and interesting information, and written in admirable style and spirit. It can not but be welcome to the friends of the Bible.

Old Hicks the Guide;

or, Adventures in the Camanche Country in Search of a Gold Mine. By C. W. WEBBER. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

A book to stir a fever in the blood of age; full of wild adventure, and running over with life.—Graham's Magazine.

Masse's Anatomical Atlas.

A Pocket Anatomical Atlas of the Descriptive Anatomy of the Human Body. By J. N. MASSE, M.D. Translated from the last Paris Edition, and Edited by G. S. PATTERSON, M.D. Illustrated by 442 Figures engraved on Steel and beautifully colored. 12mo, Muslin, $7 50. The same Work, with Plates uncolored, $3 00.

Here is a work which may be carried in the pocket, taken into the anatomical theatre and the dissecting-room. It will also be highly useful to the surgeon who has no means of referring to the subject previous to an operation; and the physician, also, when meeting with symptoms which can not be explained, by examining the position of the organs, and studying their relations and nervous supply, as beautifully delineated in these plates, may find many of his difficulties removed, and thus be able to practice his art with more satisfaction to himself as well as benefit to his patients.—New York Journal of Medicine.

Kitchiner's Cook's Oracle.

The Cook's Oracle and Housekeeper's Manual; containing Receipts for Cookery, and Directions for Carving. With a complete System of Cookery for Catholic Families. By WILLIAM KITCHINER. 12mo, Sheep extra, 87½ cents.

This work is the ne plus ultra of the culinary art, its very acme of excellence.—London New Monthly Magazine.

Kitchiner's Directions for Prolonging Life.

Directions for Invigorating and Prolonging Life; or, the Invalid's Oracle. By WILLIAM KITCHINER, M.D. With Improvements, by T. S. BARRETT, M.D. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

Biblical Legends of the Mussulmans.

The Bible, the Koran, and the Talmud. Compiled from Arabic Sources, and compared with Jewish Traditions. By DR. G. WEIL. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This is a very curious book, exhibiting in a very striking and forcible manner the antiquity and worth of our Scriptures, in contrast with the pious inventions and perversions of a later age. The legends exhibit all the magnificent and gorgeous extravagance of the Orientals, and to the young will furnish all the fascination of romance.

Invitations to True Happiness, and Motives for becoming a Christian. By REV. JOEL PARKER, D.D. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

The Clergyman's Orphan;

The Infidel Reclaimed; and Jane Clark, the Orphan. By a Clergyman. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 85 cents.

The author of this interesting narrative states that with most of the characters whose romantic history is here recorded he was personally acquainted: the events depicted, although of remarkable character, are therefore vouched for as authentic. The object of the work is to strengthen in the minds of the young the conviction of a special superintending Providence.

Blair's Sermons.

Sermons of Rev. HUGH BLAIR, D.D. To which is prefixed the Life and Character of the Author, by JAMES FINLAYSON, D.D. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50.

The writings of this eminent scholar and divine have long been regarded as among the purest models of English style ; terse, polished, and perspicuous, they exhibit the true and perfect standard of pulpit eloquence. No person can peruse these masterly productions without having his understanding invigorated, and his love for the true and beautiful matured.

Observations in Europe, principally in France and Great Britain. By Rev. J. P. DURBIN, D.D. Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

This is a curious and amusing book of American travel, replete with anecdote and remarkable details. Wherever it is read it will give the reader much information and amusement, and increase his stock of general knowledge.

Observations in the East.

By Rev. J. P. DURBIN, D.D. Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

Equal in interest and graphic effect to the best books of modern travel. There is an off-hand frankness and spirit about the author's sketches, which are always marked by caution and discrimination, so that his statements are as reliable as they are attractive and interesting.

The Child's Friend.

Being Selections from the Writings of M. BERQUIN. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

The productions of M. Berquin are so charming and easy of comprehension by children, that few, if any, of our writers may be considered his superior. Those who have been once familiar with this choice little work in their youth will not easily lose the recollection of its fascinating pages.

Arthur Martin :

or, the Mother's Trials. By CHARLES BURDETT. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 45 cents.

There is a vein of benevolence, purity, and kindness running through this work that commends it to the heart. These moral tales are calculated to do much good; they awaken the finer feelings of our nature, and call forth generous and ennobling acts. Every family should be supplied with this admirable story.

Mary Grover.

By CHARLES BURDETT. 16mo, Paper, 30 cents; Muslin, 40 cents.

Altowan :

or, Life and Adventure in the Rocky Mountains. By an Amateur Traveler. Edited by JAMES WATSON WEBB. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

Boarding Out;

or, Domestic Life. By the Author of "Keeping House and House-keeping." 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Belongs to that class of tales for domestic life to which Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Stowe, Miss Sedgwick, and other of our fair countrywomen have made so many choice contributions.

Keeping House and Housekeeping.

A Story of Domestic Life. Edited by Mrs. S. J. HALE. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A very amusing little work, depicting the various casualties, mishaps, and minor moralities of housekeeping and housekeepers.

Aaron Burr's Memoirs, with Miscellaneous Correspondence. By M. L. DAVIS. Portraits. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $3 00.

The extraordinary history of Aaron Burr is here displayed by Mr. Davis with great integrity and ability. The work is full of instruction to public men. Perhaps no one has illustrated in a more striking manner the fate of unprincipled ambition, the prostitution of great talents, the work of a splendid career. To the common reader the memoirs have much of the interest of tragedy.—GRISWOLD.

Aaron Burr's Private Journal,

during his Residence in Europe; with Selections from his Correspondence. Edited by M. L. DAVIS. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $4 50.

The Twin Brothers;

or, Lessons in Charity. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Caroline Westerley;

or, the Young Traveler from Ohio. By Mrs. PHELPS. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

This work will prove instructive as well as attractive to young persons. In its pages genius, nature, morality, and religion have been brought into happy combination. It is replete with sound and rational piety, judicious remark, and right feeling.

The Fireside Friend;

or, Female Student: being Advice to Young Ladies on the important Subject of Education. With an Appendix on Moral and Religious Education, from the French of Madame de Saussure. By Mrs. A. H. L. PHELPS. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This excellent manual is designed for perusal in the family circle. It combines a circle of knowledge, or rather a series of hints and valuable suggestions regarding the various branches of a liberal education. As an induction to general knowledge, it will be esteemed, perhaps, unexcelled by any work of the kind.

Ford's Plays.

The Dramatic Works of John Ford. Adapted for Family Reading. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 85 cents.

Fisk's Travels.

Travels in Europe; viz., in England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Italy, Switzerland, some parts of Germany and the Netherlands. By Rev. WILBUR FISK, D.D. Engravings. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 25.

Dr. Fisk's volume of the observations which he made on society during his tour in Europe comprises a variety of information, written in an elegant style, and marked with the acute discrimination of a scholar to whom the scenes presented all the charms of novelty. Among works of its class Dr. Fisk's Travels hold a distinguished rank; and in reference to the countries which he visited, and the peculiar subjects which are included in his survey, it may be regarded as of high merit.

Holdich's Life of Fisk.

Life of the Rev. Dr. Wilbur Fisk, first President of the Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut. By Prof. HOLDICH. 8vo, Muslin, $2 00.

The Rev. Dr. Wilbur Fisk was one of the most eloquent, accomplished, and pious divines of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and his life, as written by his friend, Prof. Holdich, of the Wesleyan University, is among our best specimens of religious biography. It is worthy of a place with the memoirs of Henry Martin and Dr. Payson.

Brougham's Pleasures of Science.

The Pleasures and Advantages of Science. By Lord BROUGHAM, Prof. SEDGWICK, Dr. VERPLANCK, and ALONZO POTTER, D.D. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Ruxton's Mexico.

Adventures in Mexico and the Rocky Mountains. By GEORGE F. RUXTON. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Mr. Ruxton belongs to the fraternity of dashing travelers, whose touches fall on the paper oftentimes at random, but never without the bold and clear mark which bespeaks strength and animal spirits, and powers of observation in a healthy state.—London Athenaeum.

Ruxton's Far West.

Life in the Far West. By GEORGE F. RUXTON. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

Daniell's Philosophy.

Familiar Illustrations of Natural Philosophy. Selected principally from DANIELL's Chemical Philosophy. By JAMES BENWICK, LL.D., Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy and Chemistry in Columbia College. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

History of Louisiana,

from its Discovery and Settlement to the present Time. By E. BUNNER. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Hooper's Medical Dictionary.

Lexicon Medicum; or, Medical Dictionary: containing an Explanation of the Terms in Anatomy, Botany, Chemistry, Materia Medica, Midwifery, Mineralogy, Pharmacy, Physiology, Practice of Physic, Surgery, and the various Branches of Natural Philosophy connected with Medicine. Selected, arranged, and compiled from the best Authors. By ROBERT HOOPER, M.D. Sixteenth American from the last London Edition, with Additions from American Authors on Botany, Chemistry, Materia Medica, Mineralogy, &c., by SAMUEL AKERLY, M.D. 8vo, Sheep extra, $2 50.

This standard medical dictionary contains an account of every article connected with the study of medicine, derived from numerous existing authorities. The volume is esteemed as indispensable to the completeness of a medical library, comprising, in a compendious form, a prodigious amount of important and valuable information not to be found in other works.

Hooper's Vade Mecum.

The Physician's Vade Mecum; or, a Manual of the Principles and Practice of Medicine. By ROBERT HOOPER, M.D. Considerably enlarged and improved, with an Outline of General Pathology and Therapeutics, by WILLIAM AUGUSTUS GUY, M.B. With Additions, by JOHN STEWART, A.M., M.D. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00; Sheep extra, $1 25.

This standard work affords a very extensive view of the Materia Medica and Pharmacy of all ages. Great care has been taken to mention the doses and modes of administering medicines, in order to render that part as useful as possible.

We have looked over the volume carefully, and while we are prejudiced against epitomes, and are not at all partial to "royal roads to learning," we must confess that we are much pleased with this work. It contains a large amount of valuable and useful information, and every physician would do well to keep it on his table for purposes of constant reference. The object of the author has been to render the work eminently practical.—St. Louis Medical Journal.

Story of the Peninsular War.

By General CHARLES W. VANE, Marquis of Londonderry, &c. New Edition, revised, with considerable Additions. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

This compact history of one of the most remarkable of military contests, is the fruit of a thorough revision and condensation of the original work, by the Marquis of Londonderry, down to the period of the capture of Ciudad Rodrigo, to which a sketch of the subsequent events of the war has been appended by the present editor, thus rendering the work the only complete, reliable, and convenient history of that great epoch.

Keppel's Expedition to Borneo.

The Expedition to Borneo of H. M. S. Dido, for the Suppression of Piracy; with Extracts from the Journal of James Brooke, Esq., of Sarawak, now Agent for the British Government in Borneo. By Captain HENRY KEPPEL, R.N. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Paley's Evidences of Christianity.

A View of the Evidences of Christianity. By Rev. WILLIAM PALEY, D.D. 18mo, Half Roan, 37½ cents.

In this lumineous and comprehensive work, the historical evidence for the truth of our Scriptures is arranged with clearness, and stated to the reader with the utmost force and precision.—Rev. R. LYNAM, M.A.

The most clear, satisfactory statement of the historical proofs of the Christian religion in any age or country.—ROBERT HALL.

Paley's Theology.

Natural Theology. By Rev. WILLIAM PALEY, D.D. With illustrative Notes, &c., by Lord BROUHAM, F.R.S., and Sir CHARLES BELL, F.R.S., and Preliminary Observations and Notes, by A. POTTER, D.D. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

The same Work, edited by D. E. BARTLETT. Copiously illustrated. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

The writings of Paley are so greatly and so worthily distinguished as to be translated into every language of Europe. In the English universities they are used as text-books, as the ground of the theological student's system.

Paley's Philosophy.

Principles of Moral and Political Philosophy. With Questions for the Examination of Students. By WILLIAM PALEY, D.D. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

Paley's works have done more for the moral improvement of mankind than perhaps the writings of any other man that ever existed. The doctrines laid down and established by this wise and able writer may be considered as the principia of moral philosophy.

Life in Prairie Land.

By MRS. FARNHAM. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Western life. The heart of the fair authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her as she, in her amusing, off-hand style, delineates the scenery, manners, and peculiarities of the great West. It is a well-written, spirited, personal narrative, which interweaves descriptions of persons and places so as to give us a true idea of life in a new country.

Greek Concordance of the New Testament.

The Englishman's Greek Concordance of the New Testament; being an Attempt at a Verbal Connection between the Greek and the English Texts; including a Concordance to the Proper Names, with Indexes, Greek-English and English-Greek. 8vo, Muslin, $3 50; Sheep extra, $4 00; Half Calf, $4 25.

No book has been published for many years which will be so welcome to Biblical students as this. Especially will those who have but a limited knowledge of the Greek language find it to supply a want which they have long felt. The simplicity of the plan is only surpassed by its excellence. It presents, in alphabetical succession, every word which occurs in the Greek New Testament, with the passage in which they occur in the English version.—Methodist Quarterly Review.

Forecastle Tom;

or, the Landsman turned Sailor. By MRS. MARY S. B. DANA. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

A delightful little domestic story, portraying the adventures of a sailor's life. It commands itself strongly to the attention of the reader by its unaffected simplicity. It inculcates morality, religion, and temperance in a most attractive manner.

Forster's Celebrated British Statesmen.

Lives of Celebrated British Statesmen. The Statesmen of the Commonwealth of England; with a Treatise on the popular Progress in English History. By JOHN FORSTER, D.D. Edited by Rev. J. O. CHOULES. Portraits. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 50.

An entertaining and useful work. There is no period in the history of mankind more truly interesting to every intelligent American than that of the Commonwealth of England; and there is no form in which it can be so perfectly attained as in the personal history of the great leaders of that age and movement.

Eminent Individuals.

Lives of Eminent Individuals celebrated in American History. With Portraits of Robert Fulton, Sebastian Cabot, and Sir H. Vane; and Autographs of most of the Individuals. 3 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 25.

These three elegant volumes comprise the lives of some of the most remarkable men whose names adorn the history of our country. The memoirs are written by individuals little less distinguished than those whose histories they record—such as Everett, Sparks, Peabody, Upham, and Channing. A work of this kind will be found vastly advantageous to the young men of America.

Ellen Herbert;

or, Family Changes. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 45 cents.

Mosheim's Ecclesiastical History,

Ancient and Modern; in which the Rise, Progress, and Variation of Church Power are considered in their Connection with the State of Learning and Philosophy, and the Political History of Europe during that Period. Translated, with Notes, &c., by A. MACLAINE, D.D. A new Edition, continued to 1826, by C. COOTE, LL.D. 2 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 00; Half Calf, $3 50.

Truly excellent; his erudition it would be superfluous to commend, and to his fidelity I can bear full testimony.—SOUTHHEY.

The author's ingenious illustrations of the sacred writings, his successful labors in defense of Christianity, and the light he has cast upon the history of religion and philosophy by his researches, appear in these volumes, which are deservedly placed among the most valuable treasures of sacred and profane literature; and this learned and judicious work has rendered his name illustrious in the records of religion and letters.

Memoirs of the Duchess D'Abrantes

(Madame Junot). Portrait. 8vo, Muslin, $1 37½.

Brown's Bible Dictionary.

A Dictionary of the Holy Bible: containing an Account of the Persons, Places, and other Objects, whether Natural, Artificial, Civil, Religious, or Military; and an Explanation of the appellative Terms mentioned in the Old and New Testaments. With a Life of the Author, and an Essay on the Evidences of Christianity. By Rev. JOHN BROWN. 8vo, Sheep extra, $1 75.

The well-deserved and long-established reputation of this valuable companion and key to the Sacred Scriptures renders it almost superfluous to add any thing respecting the purpose and aim of the work. It is the life-labor of a devoted and learned Biblical scholar, who combined profound erudition, and knowledge of Oriental language and literature, with equal piety. Perhaps there is no work of its size more useful in the study of the Scriptures. It will be found peculiarly useful to students of divinity and theologians, as well as for family reference. This edition, it should be remembered, is a faithful reprint of the last authorized and corrected copy, first by the author, and afterward by his sons.

Brown's Concordance.

Pocket Concordance to the Holy Bible. By Rev. JOHN BROWN. 32mo Roan, 30 cents.

The smallest form in which this well-known Concordance has ever been printed. It is perfect, however, and the type is so clear that it can be easily read.

D'Aubigne's Discourses and Essays.

Translated from the French, by CHARLES W. BAIRD. With an Introduction, by Rev. Dr. BAIRD. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

No one can read a page of this work without being struck with their dissimilarity to American sermons. There is a vivacity and point in the style, a condensed and penetrating statement of the leading ideas, a rapid discussion of each topic, and an abrupt dismissal of it, which are unknown in the American pulpit. A perusal of these admirable discourses will prove not only profitable, but very interesting.—Cincinnati Atlas.

Martha:

a Memorial of an only and beloved Sister. By Rev. ANDREW REED, D.D. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

In this attractive volume, Dr. Reed delineates a Christian character of great excellence, as developed in the ordinary relations of life. Though enlivened by no thrilling incidents, it will be read with great interest. It is beautifully written. The graces of an only and beloved sister, and the affectionate sensibilities of the brother, are eloquently impressed on almost every page, in a spirit which is delightful to contemplate.

No Fiction:

a Narrative founded on Recent and Interesting Facts. By Rev. ANDREW REED, D.D. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

"No Fiction" is a very interesting tale. The object of the writer, as set forth in his preface, has been to "promote the improvement of the youthful character, to impart a relish for the beauties of nature; to aid the mind in discriminating between passion and principle; and to impress the heart with the importance, sublimity, and blessedness of genuine piety."

Sacred Philosophy of the Seasons :

illustrating the Perfections of God in the Phenomena of the Year.
By Rev. HENRY DUNCAN, D.D. Edited by Rev. HENRY GREENWOOD. 4 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $3 00.

The combination of facts and arguments, of physical and moral truths, is very ingenious ; and besides the excellent moral impression which the work leaves, there is hardly any work of its size which gives a more ample and accurate survey of the field of natural science.

Dante's Divine Comedy :

the Inferno. A literal Prose Translation, with the Text of the Original, collated from the best Editions, and Explanatory Notes. By JOHN A. CARLYLE, M.D. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

We are not acquainted with a more conscientious performance in all respects than this literal prose translation of Dante's Inferno. It is a solid contribution to the study of Italian literature, and a means of comprehending even the manner of the wonderful poet of the Middle Ages, which merely English readers have not possessed till now.—London Examiner.

The Trees of America,

Native and Foreign, Pictorially and Botanically Delineated, and Scientifically and Popularly Described; being considered principally with reference to their Geography and History; Soil and Situation; Propagation and Culture; Accidents and Diseases; Properties and Uses; Economy in the Arts; Introduction into Commerce; and their Application in Useful and Ornamental Plantations. By D. J. BROWNE. Illustrated by numerous Engravings. 8vo, Muslin, $4 50.

Every page is replete with gratifying information. The article on The Vine, and its treatment, is of itself alone a treasure of great public value.—Extract of a Letter of General Talmadge.

This book conveys a great deal of information in a moderate compass, plainly and simply treated, and illustrated by neat, characteristic engravings.

The Family Instructor ;

or, a Manual of the Duties of Domestic Life. By a Parent. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.

The Pilgrim's Progress. By JOHN BUNYAN. With a Life of the Author, by ROBERT SOUTHEY, LL.D. Illustrated with 50 Engravings by ADAMS. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A household book wherever the English language is known. One of the wonders of genius, a book which charms the child before he can comprehend its meaning, which delights and instructs the experienced Christian, and which, in despite of its subject, excites the admiration of the man of letters. To have such a book, with its thousand beautiful and refining influences, placed in any family, is a lasting good.—Biblical Repository.

Montgomery's Lectures.

Lectures on General Literature, Poetry, &c., with a Retrospect of Literature, and a View of Modern English Literature, as delivered in 1830 and 1833. By JAMES MONTGOMERY. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

"Though they have less of that gorgeous finery of diction which distinguishes Johnson—less of that masterly power of discrimination, so imposing and captivating in Hazlitt, and less of that magic harmony of language which has made Campbell's critical prose only excelled by the sweetness of his poetry ; still they have a touching felicity of illustration more palpable than all—they bring the triumphs of poetry home to the feelings, and reconcile its mysterious fascination with nature and the heart."

Prideaux's Connection.

Connection of the Old and New Testaments, in the History of the Jews and neighboring Nations, from the Declension of the Kingdoms of Israel and Judah to the Time of Christ. By HUMPHREY PRIDEAUX, D.D. 2 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 00 ; Half Calf, $3 50.

A standard book in theological literature ; there are some works, especially, without the knowledge of which the Scriptures can not be profoundly or accurately comprehended, and Prideaux's is one of them. We know not how to express our high opinion of the value of this production, especially for students and ministers.—Methodist Quarterly Review.

It contains a large mass of erudition, and accurate information on every topic of Jewish history and antiquities. It is indispensable to the Biblical, and interesting to the general scholar.—ORME.

American Adventure by Land and Sea.

Being remarkable Instances of Enterprise and Fortitude among Americans; Indian Captures, Shipwrecks, Adventures at Home and Abroad, &c. By EPES SARGENT. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

The narratives here presented are well fitted to impress upon the mind the importance of heroic virtue, self-possession, and fortitude, in times of extreme peril. They aptly illustrate the apothegm that Providence helps those who help themselves.

The Philosophy of Magic, including Prodigies, Apparent Miracles, and other Occult Sciences. By EUSEBE SALVETE. Translated from the French, with Notes, Illustrative, Explanatory, and Critical, by ANTHONY TODD THOMSON, M.D. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

Two curious and entertaining volumes on a subject which has engaged the attention of philosophers and historians in all past ages, and has not lost its hold on the popular mind even in the present.

Zion's Songster;

or, a Collection of Hymns and Spiritual Songs usually sung at Camp-meetings, &c. By THOMAS MASON. 82mo, Sheep, 25 cents.

Beauties of French History.

By JOHN FROST, LL.D. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Beauties of English History.

By JOHN FROST, LL.D. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Two exceedingly interesting little volumes, which will be very acceptable to those who have not the time or inclination for extended historical reading. They present the prominent events and characters which belong to the annals of these two nations in a simple but attractive manner, and, for the young, perhaps no more valuable and interesting books could be selected.

The American Poultry-book;

being a practical Treatise on the Management of Domestic Poultry. By MICAJAH R. COCK. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

This is a condensed manual of hints and instructions on the rearing and management of poultry. The Board of Agriculture of the American Institute have, by a committee, examined this work, and recorded their opinion in the following terms: "We are happy to assure the agricultural community of New York and the United States that this valuable work exactly supplies a deficiency which has long been felt in this department; we have no doubt it will soon find its place in every farm-house, and wherever a taste exists for rural habits."

Copland's Medical Dictionary.

A Dictionary of Practical Medicine: comprising General Pathology, the Nature and Treatment of Diseases, Morbid Structures, and the Disorders especially incidental to Climates, to the Sex, and to the different Epochs of Life; with numerous Prescriptions for the Medicines recommended. A Classification of Diseases according to Pathological Principles; a copious Bibliography, and an Appendix of approved Formulae. The whole forming a Library of Pathology and Practical Medicine, and a Digest of Medical Literature. By JAMES COPLAND, M.D., F.R.S. Edited, with Notes and large Additions, by CHARLES A. LEE, M.D. To be completed in 3 large 8vo Volumes. Vols I. and II. now ready, $5 00 per Volume; Sheep extra, $5 50 per Volume.

An encyclopedia, embracing the whole range of medical science. Dr. Copland, by his individual effort, sustained by the force of great learning and extensive experience, has succeeded in the production of a work unequalled by the labor of many. It has been pronounced by critics, both in England and America, to be altogether unrivaled in medical literature. The indefatigable compiler has devoted over twenty years of arduous labor to his subjects, collating the experience and authorities of the leading European practitioners and medical writers of the age; and in this American republication are incorporated those of our own country. The information amassed in these volumes is literally enormous; the whole of the materials have been most carefully selected, patiently studied, valued, winnowed, digested, elaborated, and arranged into compact and simple forms, easily accessible, and readily available. It is not easy to point out, in the whole range of medical literature, any work by a single hand so much calculated to excite admiration of the industry and talents of the author.—British and Foreign Medical Review.

Parry's Voyages.

Three Voyages for the Discovery of a Northwest Passage from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and Narrative of an Attempt to reach the North Pole. By Sir W. E. PARRY, R.N. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

The history of these enterprises will be found exceedingly interesting; much curious and valuable information is also given in relation to the dreary and inhospitable regions of Northern Siberia, and the various tribes that inhabit them.

Woman in America;

being an Examination into the Moral and Intellectual Condition of American Female Society. By Mrs. A. J. GRAVES. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Northern Coasts of America.

Historical View of the Progress of Discovery on the more Northern Coasts of America. By P. F. TYTLER, F.R.S., F.S.A. With Sketches of the Natural History of the North American Regions, by JAMES WILSON. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The present volume exhibits a full and accurate view of all that is important in modern knowledge of the most remote territories of North America, and may be considered as forming a sequel to the "Polar Seas and Regions," and as furnishing all that was wanting to a complete account of the whole series of northern discoveries by land and water. The recent movements to Oregon give to the work a new interest and value.

Life of Lord Byron.

By JOHN GALT. 18mo, Muslin, 40 cents.

The splendor of Lord Byron's fame, and the interest attendant upon the story of his eventful life and early death, have combined to render his biography a work of more than usual attraction. Mr. Galt enjoyed the advantages consequent upon a long and intimate acquaintance with the noble poet, and has given a striking and satisfactory description of his character. One of the greatest merits of the work is its strict impartiality; the writer is evidently free from prejudice, either favorable or adverse to his subject, and tells what he knows or believes to be the truth without bias.

Monette's Valley of the Mississippi.

History of the Discovery and Settlement of the Valley of the Mississippi, by the three great European Powers, Spain, France, and Great Britain; and the subsequent Occupation, Settlement, and Extension of Civil Government by the United States, until the Year 1846. By JOHN W. MONETTE. Maps. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $5 00; Sheep extra, $5 50.

This is a very important, elaborate, and valuable book. The author has devoted many years and immense labor to the collection of materials for its preparation, and has produced the only authentic and extensive record of the early history and progress of that country that has appeared. It abounds in incidents of the most thrilling character, and exhibits instances of endurance, courage, and adventure, which can scarcely be paralleled in any other portion of the history of the world.

Croly's George IV.

Life of George IV., with Anecdotes of Distinguished Persons.
By Rev. GEORGE CROLY. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This work is written throughout with great animation and elegance, and contains many light and pleasing sketches of the characters of those men whose great qualities of mind and heart made those days illustrious in England's annals. The names of Pitt, Fox, Burke, Sheridan, Canning, Grattan, and Curran appear in the historic narrative in their various degrees of celebrity, and are characterized always with force and freedom of style.

Vegetable Substances

used for the Food of Man. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Gieseler's Ecclesiastical History.

A Compendium of Ecclesiastical History. From the Fourth Edition, revised and amended. Translated from the German, by SAMUEL DAVIDSON, LL.D. Vols. I., II., and III., 8vo, Muslin, $4 50; Sheep extra, $5 25; Half Calf, $6 00.

A work which will be highly esteemed by men of learning interested in the religious history of the past. It is marked by a principled and vigorous impartiality on the part of the author, by great copiousness of reference and quotation, and by the singular brevity of its statements. As a text-book, it is invaluable. No student's library should be without it.

Loiterings in Europe;

or, Sketches of Travel in France, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Prussia, Great Britain, and Ireland. With an Appendix, containing Observations on European Charities and Medical Institutions. By J. W. CORSON, M.D. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Among the "legion" of books descriptive of European scenery and manners, we have found none more graphic, and few so fresh and captivating, as Dr. Corson's volume.—Commercial Advertiser.

The Poetical Works of John Milton.

With a Memoir and Critical Remarks on his Genius and Writings, by JAMES MONTGOMERY. Illustrated by 120 Engravings, from Drawings by WILLIAM HARVEY. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $3 00; Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, $5 00.

Above all the poets of this age, and, in the whole range of English poetry, inferior only to Shakspeare. The first two books of his great epic are especially remarkable for their grandeur and sublimity: he invested his creations with the classic spoils of the mythology and superstitions of the ancient pagans, commingling with them the truths of the Christian religion. Milton has drawn the characters of our first parents with such surpassing art and beauty, and has decked their residence in Paradise with such an accumulation of charms, that our sympathy with them is strong and unbroken; more perfect and entire sympathy could not be excited by any living agent. In these tender and descriptive scenes, the force and occasional boldness of his style, and the march of his stately, sonorous verse, are tempered and modulated with exquisite skill.—CHAMBERS.

Thomson's Seasons.

The Seasons. By JAMES THOMSON. With engraved Illustrations, by E Bookhout, from Designs drawn on Wood by John Bell, Sculptor, C. W. Cope, Thomas Creswick, J. C. Horsley, J. P. Knight, A.R.A., R. Hedgrave, A.R.A., Frank Stone, C. Stonehouse, Frederic Tayler, H. J. Townshend, and Thomas Webster, A.R.A.; and with the Life of the Author, by PATRICK MURDOCH, D.D., F.R.S. Edited by BOLTON CORNEY. 8vo, Muslin, gilt edges, $2 00; Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, $3 25.

These splendid designs are in accordance with the spirit of the author; they are exceedingly beautiful: the book has been well edited, and is therefore entitled to a place on the library shelf as well as on the drawing-room table.

Cowper's Poetical Works.

The Poetical Works of William Cowper. With a Biographical and Critical Introduction, by the Rev. THOMAS DALE. With 75 Illustrations, engraved by E. Bookhout, from Drawings by John Gilbert. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, gilt edges, $3 00; Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, $5 00.

One of the most delightful of poets, as he was the most affectionate and just-hearted of men. His feeling of social beauty and enjoyment is not surpassed, perhaps not equaled by any poet in the language: his sense of natural imagery unerringly true; his feeling of domestic comfort gave him a wonderful power of domestic pathos.—S. C. HALL.

Darwin's Voyage of a Naturalist.

Journal of Researches into the Natural History and Geology of the Countries visited during the Voyage of H. M. S. Beagle round the World, under the Command of Captain Fitzroy, R.N. By CHARLES DARWIN, M.A., F.R.S. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

These volumes are not composed of dry, technical details, but of those pleasant, popular descriptions which bring the works of nature before the eye, and are suited to all readers who have an eye for such contemplations. The volumes of Darwin are as interesting as the most popular romances of the day, while they convey solid information of the most desirable kind.

Perilous Adventures;

or, Remarkable Instances of Courage, Perseverance, and Suffering. By R. A. DAVENPORT. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

In collecting so many tales of woe and enterprise, the author disclaims the mere vanity of having produced a work of amusement; he seeks to inculcate the salutary lesson, "that there are few things that may not be accomplished by perseverance and courage, accompanied by self-command and presence of mind."

Urquhart's Pillars of Hercules.

The Pillars of Hercules; or, a Narrative of Travels in Spain and Morocco in 1848. By DAVID URQUHART, M.P. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 70.

Georgia Scenes.

With original Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

"Georgia Scenes is among the happiest pictures of society produced in the present age, and it ranks with 'Knickerbocker' or 'Salmagundi' as a work of humor. Judge Longstreet, its accomplished author, has placed himself among the classics of his department. One of the most laughter-moving volumes extant."

Life of Frederic the Great,

King of Prussia. By Lord DOVER. Portrait. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

A most delightful and comprehensive work. Judicious in selection, intelligible in arrangement, and graceful in style, these attractive volumes well deserve the pains bestowed on their completion by their accomplished author. The Life of Frederic deserves a high place in public favor.

Head's Home Tour.

A Home Tour through the Manufacturing Districts of England.
By Sir G. HEAD. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The Emigrant.

By Sir. F. B. HEAD. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

"A more vigorous and fascinating writer does not live. One who more thoroughly appreciates the beauty of nature and art it would be impossible to find. He looks upon the earth with an eye of originality, and describes the bright spots that he meets there in syllables as fresh. His penciling is distinct—his coloring rich. There is nothing of the craft about him; every thing is of the master."

Life of Bruce,

the African Traveler. By Sir F. B. HEAD. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

These travels are very interesting. He was an intrepid and faithful traveler, and modern writers bear testimony to his general accuracy.—CHANCELLOR KENT.

I have conversed with the inhabitants of Abyssinia, who confirm all that Bruce has said in his travels, which proves, beyond doubt, that his writings are not only correct as to the observance of truth, but that few travelers have written with more veracity than he has done; all the French travelers in Upper Egypt give praise and credit to his work. He is not only accurate in general facts, but in all the minute circumstances deduced from them.—Dr. E. D. CLARKE.

Good's Study of Medicine.

The Study of Medicine. By JOHN MASON GOOD, M.D., F.R.S. Improved from the Author's Manuscripts, and by reference to the latest Advances in Physiology, Pathology, and Practice, by SAMUEL COOPER, M.D. With Notes, by A. S. DOANE, A.M., M.D. To which is prefixed a Sketch of the History of Medicine, from its Origin to the Commencement of the Nineteenth Century, by J. BOSTOCK, M.D., F.R.S. 2 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 00.

We have no hesitation in pronouncing the work, beyond all comparison, the best of the kind in the English language.—Medico-Chirurg. Review.

As a work of reference, at once systematic and comprehensive, it has no rival in medical literature.—London Medical Gazette.

History of China.

A general Description of the Empire of China and its Inhabitants. By JOHN DAVIS, F.R.S. Map and Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

We can safely recommend this as the very best book on China.—Quarterly Review.

My information is derived from Mr. Davis's able and lucid work on China.—The Duke of WELLINGTON.

Days of Queen Mary.

Engravings. 12mo, Paper, 25 cents.

This interesting work has been prepared with great care from authentic and valuable documents, and issued under the authority and sanction of the London Religious Tract Society. No similar work has obtained a more extensive circulation in Great Britain.

Domestic Duties;

or, Instructions to Young Married Ladies on the Management of their Households, and the Regulation of their Conduct in the various Relations and Duties of Married Life. By MRS. W. PARKER. 12mo, Half Sheep, 75 cents.

This volume is a perfect vade mecum for the young married lady, who may resort to it on all questions of household economy and etiquette. There is nothing omitted with which it behoves a lady to be acquainted.

Kendall's Santa Fe Expedition.

Narrative of the Texan Santa Fé Expedition: comprising a Description of a Tour through Texas, and across the great South-western Prairies, the Camanche and Caygüa Hunting-grounds, &c. By G. W. KENDALL. With a Map and Illustrations. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 50.

It has seldom fallen to our lot to read so interesting and touching a narrative of travel as abound in these volumes; we were not prepared to find in them reading so very attractive, nor could we form any idea that such a narrative of toils and sufferings as are here detailed by the sufferer himself would probably present so many points of instruction to the general reader.—Methodist Quarterly Review.

Vestiges of the Natural History of Creation.

With a Sequel, containing an Explanation and Defense of the Work. 18mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

William the Cottager.

By the Author of "Ellen Herbert." Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents; Muslin, gilt edges, 45 cents.

History of the Netherlands,

to the Revolution of 1830. By THOMAS C. GRATTAN. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

We have seldom perused a volume of history more pregnant with interesting matter, or more enlivened by a style combining vigor, ease, and sobriety.

Sunday Evenings.

Comprising Scripture Stories. Engravings. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 93½ cents.

Besides supplying a series of narratives in a connected view in the easy language of the Scripture story, the author has endeavored to incorporate such notices of the countries spoken of, together with references to the New Testament, and practical remarks, as would tend to increase both the interest, utility, and value of the book.

Miss Pardoe's Louis the Fourteenth.

Louis the Fourteenth, and the Court of France in the Seventeenth Century. By Miss PARDOE. Illustrated with numerous Engravings, Portraits, &c. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $3 50; Half Calf, $4 50.

Miss Pardoe has here produced two delightful volumes. She has been fortunate in the choice of her subject; the reign of Louis XIV. may be said to include all that was interesting in the seventeenth century. Frederic the Great, in sober earnestness, declared that the "petticoat history of the seventeenth century remained to be written." We rejoice that the task has been undertaken by a lady, since to a feminine mind alone could the mysterious motive and agencies engaged be at all intelligible.—London Athenaeum.

Summerfield's Sermons.

Sermons of Rev. John Summerfield, D.D. With an Introduction by Rev. T. E. BOND, M. D. 8vo, Muslin, $1 75; Half Calf, $2 25.

Montgomery, after alleging that "Summerfield was a fervent, fearless, and self-sacrificing preacher, the delight of wondering, weeping, and admiring audiences wherever he went," adds, "on reading his manuscript sermons, in one main point I was disappointed. The Sermons of Summerfield are less calculated for instantaneous effect than for abiding usefulness." They are peculiarly characterized by elegance, originality, Scriptural phraseology, and the holy, melting, persuasive eloquence of "words that breathe and thoughts that burn." By powerful arguments they convince the judgment, and by servid appeals to the conscience arouse the heart.

Mrs. Gove's Anatomy.

Lectures to Women on Anatomy and Physiology, with an Appendix on Water-cure. By MARY S. GOVE. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Her pen seems to be driven by an earnest, bold spirit, and she handles with masculine grasp the fashionable follies of the time, which sow the seeds of that ghastly train of female disorders which haunt the abodes of civilized and conventional life. Young mothers would profit greatly by the suggestions and advice found in this book.

Massinger's Plays.

The Dramatic Works of Philip Massinger. Adapted for Family Reading, and the Use of Young Persons. Portrait. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 85.

Murray's British America.

Historical and Descriptive Account of British America; comprehending the Canadas, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, the Bermudas, and the Fur Countries: their History from the earliest Settlement—their Statistics, Topography, Commerce, Fisheries, Social and Political Condition; also, an Account of the Manners and present State of the Aboriginal Tribe. By HUGH MURRAY. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

The author, in tracing the condition and history of the aboriginal tribes, has had access to extensive works in the French language, to which former writers appear to have been strangers.

British India.

Historical and Descriptive Account of British India. By HUGH MURRAY, JAMES WILSON, R. K. GREVILLE, LL.D., W. AINSLIE, M.D., WM. REIND, Prof. JAMESON, Prof. WALLACE, and Captain CLARENCE DALRYMPLE. Engravings. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 35.

The history of British India is uncommonly interesting. The whole work bears the impress of impartiality, fidelity, research, and accuracy. These volumes present a mass of information ably compiled from the most authentic records, and to be found in no other volumes of six times their number. It is the joint production of men distinguished alike for learning, ability, and industry.

The Novitiate;

or, a Year among the English Jesuits: a personal Narrative. With an Essay on the Constitutions, the Confessional Morality, and History of the Jesuits. By ANDREW STEINMETZ. 18mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

The work has all the interest of a romance. The author writes well, and the picture he draws of Jesuitism is a fearful one. The reader will find abundant matter for grave consideration in this most singular and striking volume.

Philanthropy;

or, my Mother's Bible. Founded on an Incident which happened in New York. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Exceedingly well adapted to impress the minds of youth with sentiments of morality and a love of virtue. The author has most happily blended simple but thrilling incidents with excellent religious principles and motives, in a manner which can not fail to recommend the work to public favor.

Principles of Eloquence.

By Abbé MAURY. With an Introduction by Bishop POTTER. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This manual is decidedly the best which has yet appeared upon the subject, and is, as it were, an excellent emblem of the oratory on which it chiefly dwells: admirable in its arrangement, full of good sense in much of its detail, with a felicitous and judicious application of the principles of Cicero and Quintilian to his subject.

Life of Baron Cuvier.

By Mrs. R. LEE. 12mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

An entertaining work by Mrs. R. Lee, an intimate of his family for several years, and written, as she expresses herself, for the purpose of "laying open to the world the noblest part of the gifted individual—his heart."

Life of Cranmer.

By CHARLES W. LE BAS, M.A. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Mr. Le Bas had many excellent qualities for doing justice to the shining character he has chosen to delineate. One of the most accomplished scholars in Cambridge, his mind was imbued with the fine genius of Cranmer's age; an age illustrious for classic learning and for mighty minds; while his imagination, touched with a kindred feeling for his subject, and stored with an accuracy of historical knowledge which at once corrected and gave it tone, has enabled him to give his theme, notwithstanding its difficulties, a new interest and a peculiar grandeur.

Life of Wiclf.

By CHARLES W. LE BAS, M.A. Portrait. 18mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

The object of the author has been to produce, within a reasonable compass, the substance of the information which has been preserved to us relative to this very extraordinary man—a man whose strength of character made an impression on the mind of his country which has never been effaced.

Perils of the Sea.

Being authentic Narratives of remarkable and affecting Disasters upon the Deep. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 85 cents.

A collection of remarkable disasters and preservations compiled with great care from authentic sources. In making the selection, attention has been paid to the combination of interest, with illustrations of piety and fortitude in suffering, and of the power and goodness of Providence in rescuing from destruction when, to all appearance, there were no means or prospect of deliverance. The collection embraces narratives of the loss of the Kent, the Empress, the Lady Hobart, the Essex, the Halsewell East Indiaman, the steam-packet Rothsay Castle, of five Wesleyan missionaries, &c., &c.

The Sufferings of Christ.

By a Layman. 12mo, Muslin, 50 cents. (A new Edition, revised.)

The discussion of the subject is conducted with evident ability, and the author has brought to bear upon it a large amount of biblical learning and criticism. The perusal of this work is likely to prove a highly intellectual treat to the theologian and scholar.

How to Observe.

Morals and Manners. By Miss H. MARTINEAU. 12mo, Muslin, 42½ cents.

The object of the present volume is to afford a series of hints for travelers and students, calling their attention to the points necessary for inquiry or observation.

Letters on Mesmerism.

By Miss H. MARTINEAU. 8vo, Paper, 6½ cents.

History of Education.

Part I. History of Education, Ancient and Modern. Part II. A Plan of Culture and Instruction, based on Christian Principles, and designed to Aid in the right Education of Youth, Physically, Intellectually, and Morally. By H. I. SCHMIDT, A.M. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The following exhibits a brief analysis of this work : Its first part comprises an abridgment of the great work of Schwartz on the history of Education, in the preparation of which the translator has aimed to preserve, in all its integrity, the spirit and value of the original ; incorporating much collateral matter tending to the greater completeness and elucidation of the historic sketch. The second portion presents an original plan of mental culture, in which the various aspects of the subject—its physical, moral, and intellectual phases—are fully discussed. This division of the work has been based upon notes taken by the editor in short-hand at the time, while attending the lectures of a distinguished German professor on pedagogics ; to which other valuable additions have been made on physical education, &c.

History of the World :

from the earliest Period to the Year of our Lord 1783, with particular Reference to the Affairs of Europe and her Colonies. By JOHN VON MULLER. Compared throughout with the Original, revised, corrected, and illustrated by a Notice of the Life and Writings of the Author, by ALEXANDER EVERETT. 4 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $3 00.

Muller, notwithstanding the claims of many able writers who have succeeded him, among whom Niebuhr and Heeren occupy prominent positions, is still considered as the first among the historians of his country. His "History of the World" is admitted to possess most of those characteristics which unite in forming a classical work of permanent authority and value. The outline of this great subject is sketched with a bold pencil, yet with a measure of success never before attained in a history of the same size ; while the details are presented in sufficient relief to arrest the attention and fix themselves permanently in the memory.

Parrot's Ascent of Mount Ararat.

The Ascent of Mount Ararat. By DR. FRIEDRICH PARROTT. Translated by W. T. COOLEY. Map and Wood-cuts. 12mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Hardly a subject could have been selected more stirring in its character. Held in equal veneration by Jew, Christian, and Mohammedan, and regarded with superstitious feelings even by the pagan, that mountain has always enjoyed a degree of celebrity denied to every other. Sinai, and Horeb, and Tabor may have excited holier musings, but Ararat, "the mysterious"—Ararat, which human foot had not trod after the restorer of our race, and which, in the popular opinion, no human foot would be permitted to tread till the consummation of all things—Ararat the holy, which winged cherubim protected against the sacrilegious approach of mortals, and which patriarchs only were permitted to revisit—appeared in many respects an object of curiosity as unique as it was exciting.—Athenaeum.

Wood's Gold Diggings.

Sixteen Months at the Gold Diggings. By DANIEL B. WOODS. 12mo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

Michelet's Modern History.

Elements of Modern History. By M. MICHELET. Translated from the French, with an Introduction, Notes, &c., by Rev. Dr. PORTER. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Michelet is one of the most learned and eloquent of the living historians of France, and in such historians no country is so rich. No one since Bossuet has sketched Universal History with so bold and graphic a pen.

History of Scotland.

By Sir WALTER SCOTT. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 20.

A beautiful illustration of the grace and effect which sober reality assumes when treated by the pencil of genius. In no work with which we are acquainted is the progress of manners painted with more historic fidelity, or with half so much vividness of coloring. This, the great charm of the work, will insure it a lasting popularity.

Letters on Demonology and Witchcraft, addressed to J. G. Lockhart. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 40 cents.

No subject could have been better adapted to the taste and reading of the lamented author of Waverley than "the history of that dark chapter of human nature" to which this volume is devoted. Sir Walter Scott has given sufficient evidence in his inimitable novels and romances of his intimate acquaintance with the superstitions of our own and remoter times. In this volume he has laid open the stores of his memory and reading, has condensed and elucidated the subject; in many cases explaining, by natural causes, occurrences supposed to be supernatural. The subject is most alluring, and the manner in which it is handled, magical.

History of Festivals, Games, and Amusements,

Ancient and Modern. By HORACE SMITH. With Additions, by SAM. WOODWORTH, of New York. The following Subjects are contained in this work, viz.: Festivals, Games, and Amusements of the Ancient Jews and Greeks; Ancient Greek and Roman Drama; Public Games of the Grecians; the Olympic Games; Games of the Ancient Romans; Gladiatorial Games; Holiday Notices; Field Sports, Hawking, Archery; Bull-fights and Baiting of Animals; Dancing; the Morris-dancers; Jugglers; Sedentary Amusements, Music, Minstrels, Playing-cards, Chess; English Drama; Play-house Notices. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

The subjects considered in the present volume have been so thoroughly sifted by professed antiquarians, that the task devolved upon the author consisted mainly in the compilation and selection of his superabundant materials, derived from numerous erudite sources.

Miss Smith's American Cookery.

Modern American Cookery: with a List of Family Medical Receipts, and a valuable Miscellany. By Miss P. SMITH. 16mo, Muslin, 40 cents.

History of Christianity,

from the Birth of Christ to the Abolition of Paganism in the Roman Empire. By Rev. H. H. MILMAN. With Notes, &c., by JAMES MURDOCK, D.D. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Half Calf, $2 00.

A work evincing great research, and exhibiting profound knowledge of the subject; it breathes a spirit of tolerance and conciliation which are the characteristics of true Christianity. The author's narratives are often brilliant and impressive, and his researches are, in many instances, marked by great acuteness and originality.

History of the Jews,

from the earliest Period to the present Time. By Rev. H. H. MILMAN. With Maps and Engravings. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 20.

This work is written in a very interesting manner, in a more philosophical spirit, and with more depth of reflection than is generally found in histories of this nature. It is not wanting in historical condensation, and the coloring of the style is lively and picturesque. It is the most complete and compact Jewish history extant.

Polar Seas and Regions.

Discovery and Adventure in the Polar Seas and Regions. By Professors LESLIE and JAMESON, and HUGH MURRAY. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This book contains a succinct account of the most recent improvements and discoveries in Northern Seas. The Polar Seas and Regions have been most fertile in results through the enterprise and perseverance of a Ross, a Franklin, and a Parry, and their investigations are described in this work, which is one of the most interesting and instructive works of the kind.

Saurin's Sermons.

Sermons of Rev. JAMES SAURIN, D.D. Translated by Rev. ROBERT ROBINSON, Rev. HENRY HUNTER, D.D., and Rev. JOSEPH SUTCLIFFE. A new Edition, with additional Sermons. Revised and corrected, by Rev. SAMUEL BURDER, A.M. With a Preface, by Rev. J. P. K. HENSHAW, D.D. Portrait. 2 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $3 00; Half Calf, $3 50.

Saurin was a distinguished French Protestant divine, and is considered "le meilleur prédicateur de son parti." His sermons are still in much estimation for "beaucoup de force, de génie, et d'éloquence."—VENTOUILAC.

The plainness of Tillotson, the unction of Massillon, the richness of Barrow, the power of Horsley, and the evangelical faithfulness of Du Bosc are all, in a degree, mingled and concentrated in the sermons of our author.—Rev. Dr. HENSHAW.

Memoirs of the Empress Josephine.

By JOHN S. MEMES, LL.D. With Portraits. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

One of the most delightful biographies; it possesses a beauty of language, a fascination of style, and a depth of interest which few works of this kind can claim.

The Ornaments Discovered.

By Mrs. HUEHN. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

The author glances at some interesting portions of Natural History ; but the prominent object is so strikingly to contrast selfishness and ingratitude with disinterestedness and its attendant virtues, as shall force us to abhor the deformity of the one, and urge us forward in the pursuit of the other.

Letters and Journals of Lord Byron.

With Notices of his Life. By THOMAS MOORE. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75 ; Half Calf, $2 75.

Considered merely as a composition, it deserves to be classed among the best specimens of English prose which our age has produced. Of the deep and painful interest which this book excites, no abstract can give a just notion. So sad and dark a story is scarcely to be found in any work of fiction ; and we are little disposed to envy the moralist who can read it without being softened.—MACAULAY.

Schlegel's Philosophy of Life.

The Philosophy of Life and Philosophy of Language, in a Course of Lectures. By FREDERIC VON SCHLEGEL. Translated from the German, by the Rev. A. J. W. MORISON, M.A. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

This book by Schlegel is a sound, elaborate, and valuable work ; certain to be every where prized by the reflecting reader. The reputation of the distinguished author as a profound philosopher, most astute thinker, and learned critic, renders it needless to offer any criticism upon the above work.

Natural History of Insects.

Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

A charming manual on natural history, from the attractive and accomplished Professor Rennie. This study, at all times pleasing and instructive, has been in the present work rendered doubly captivating by the style in which it is presented.

Scott's Luther and the Reformation.

Luther and the Lutheran Reformation. By Rev. J. SCOTT. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This work is designed to present, in a popular and convenient form, the substance of the information collected by Milner and others relative to the most remarkable period, and the most important event, which has occurred in the history of the Church since the Apostles' days. It possesses some striking and important features, which peculiarly adapt this succinct history of the Reformation to the perusal of youth.

Noel's Christian Baptism.

Essay on Christian Baptism. By Rev. BAPTIST W. NOEL, M.A. 18mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

Noel's Church and State.

Essay on the Union of Church and State. By Rev. BAPTIST W. NOEL, M.A. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

Humboldt's Cosmos.

A Sketch of a Physical Description of the Universe. By ALEXANDER VON HUMBOLDT. Translated from the German, by E. C. OTTE. 4 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $3 40.

Here is a work which unites the grandeur and extent of early speculations with the fullness and precision of modern science. Akin to the Timaeus of Plato in its artistic repose, in solemn earnestness, and calm magnificence of diction, its most astonishing speculations are based upon severe and rigorous investigation. We are equally surprised at the fullness and minuteness of his knowledge, and the masterly clearness with which his facts are arranged. Indeed, Cosmos is a work of art almost as much as of philosophy; and we know not where to point out its fellow as a composition. Written in the evening of a long life, it has the mellowed light of the setting sun.—London Spectator.

Humboldt's Travels and Researches.

Being a condensed Narrative of his Journeys in the Equinoctial Regions of America, and in Asiatic Russia; together with Analyses of his more important Investigations, by W. MACGILLIVRAY, A.M. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Lives of the Humboldts.

Lives of the Brothers Humboldt, Alexander and William. Translated and arranged from the German of KLENCKE and SCHLESIER, by JULIETTE BAUER. With Portraits. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

This is a most valuable contribution to biographical literature. William Humboldt was connected with the most eminent men of his age in politics and literature, and his life is a lucid commentary on the intellectual development of Germany. Alexander Humboldt, in spite of his great age (nearly 90 years), is still actively engaged in the loftiest intellectual pursuits completing his great work, Cosmos.

Consistency of Revelation

with Itself, and with human Reason. By PHILIP N. SHUTTLEWORTH. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

This is a calm but masterly treatise. The writer is a philosopher and a Christian. Though having unshaken faith in Scriptural authorities, our author has not taken shelter under the banner of inspired writers; but, resting on himself and his noble cause alone, comes boldly forward to meet the infidel on his own ground, and in an unimpassioned but persuasive argument to prove that the doctrines set forth in Revelation wear the proud authority of truth, and are consistent with the human understanding.

Life of Napoleon Bonaparte.

By J. G. LOCKHART. With Portraits. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

It is an epitome of all that has been proved to be true concerning the career of the most extraordinary man of the last thousand years. The work is written with fairness and impartiality, free from all tinge of party spirit, and the author has been at the pains of interweaving with his narrative all the new illustrations and anecdotes furnished by Bourrienne and other biographers.

Lives of Celebrated Female Sovereigns.

Containing Memoirs of Semiramis, Queen of Assyria; Cleopatra, Queen of Egypt; Zenobia, Queen of Palmyra; Joanna I., Queen of Naples; Joanna II., of Naples; Isabella of Castile; Mary, Queen of Scots; Queen Elizabeth; Christina, Queen of Sweden; Anne, Queen of Great Britain; Maria Theresa, Empress of Germany and Queen of Hungary; and Catharine II., of Russia. By Mrs. JAMESON. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 80 cents.

Many a more ambitious history has been executed with less talent and happy candor than these moral and picturesque sketches. The Lives form an admirable illustration of the female character, and the lessons they furnish abound with instruction; while the incidents recorded are interesting, not only in themselves, but as authentic details of remarkable personages whom circumstances or personal qualities have invested with claims to our attention.

Schmucker's Psychology.

Psychology; or, Elements of a new System of Mental Philosophy, on the Basis of Consciousness and Common Sense. Designed for Colleges and Academies. By S. S. SCHMUCKER, D.D. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

This production, the fruit of some twenty years' scholastic experience, avowedly owes its existence to the desire of the author to promote the cause of truth and science. It exhibits in a lucid manner the analysis of mental philosophy as the basis of metaphysical science and religious belief.

History of England,

to the Seventeenth Century. By Sir JAMES MACKINTOSH. 3 vols. 18mo, Muslin, $1 50.

Contains more thought and more lessons of wisdom than any other history with which we are acquainted. The most candid, the most judicious, and the most pregnant with thought, and moral and political wisdom, of any in which our domestic story has ever yet been recorded.—Edinburgh Review.

Owen's Voyages.

Voyages to Explore the Shores of Africa, Arabia, and Madagascar: performed under the Direction of Captain W. F. W. OWEN, R.N. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 12*½*.

Captain Owen was sent out by command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to explore a part of the coast of Africa which was but imperfectly known, with instructions, also, to collect information of the numbers and characters of the natives, their occupations and modes of subsistence, the nature of the soil, &c. The result of the expedition is recorded in this volume, which forms a valuable and interesting addition to our stores of geographical information.

Letters from Abroad

to Kindred at Home. By Miss C. M. SEDGWICK. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 90.

Miss Sedgwick, says the London Athenaeum, has far exceeded her predecessors: for they only described characters and scenes, while she has carried her researches into the parlors, nay, to the very pantries of individuals. Miss Sedgwick occupies a high position in America, not merely as an ornament of its world of light literature, but as a moral teacher.

History of the State of New York.

By JOHN ROMEYN BRODHEAD. First Period, 1609-1664. 8vo, Muslin, $8 00; Half Calf, $3 50.

In this elaborate volume, Mr. Brodhead has supplied the want of a thorough history of New York, with a completeness and accuracy of research, a genuine historical acumen, and a lucidity and vigor of style which at once elevate his work to the rank of a standard and classical authority on the subject. Mr. Brodhead has investigated the subject, to a great extent, by the aid of original materials. His pages not only bear the marks of extensive research, but of conscientious impartiality, excellent judgment, and refined and liberal scholarship.

Works of Charles Lamb.

Comprising his Letters, Poems, Essays of Elia, Essays upon Shakespeare, Hogarth, &c., and a Sketch of his Life, with the Final Memorials, by T. NOON TALFOURD. Portrait. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00; Half Calf, $3 00.

Charles Lamb is an old and valued friend to all true lovers of the beautiful, the quaint, and the quiet of literature. Let those who have not read him do so at once, but not hurry through the pages, expecting to find excitement and incident in every paragraph. They must read as one angles—placidly, lazily, and patiently, and they will not be disappointed. Charles Lamb has justly been considered by some as the model essayist: his pleasantries and true gentleness have rendered his productions universal favorites. His delicious "Essays" are full of wisdom, pregnant with genuine wit, abound in true pathos, and have a rich vein of humor running through them all.—HALL.

Travels beyond the Rocky Mountains.

Account of the Expedition of Captains LEWIS and CLARKE across the Rocky Mountains, and to the Mouth of the Columbia River. Prepared from the Original Edition, with an Introduction and Notes, containing Notices of Recent Travelers, and a View of the present Condition of Oregon Territory, by ARCHIBALD M'VICKAR. Engravings. 2 vols. 18mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

A circumstantial detail of the progress of the exploring party, a description of the countries through which they passed, an account of the nations who inhabit them, their manners and customs, &c., and of all the most remarkable of their animal, vegetable, and mineral productions. Captains Lewis and Clarke, in the course of little more than two years, completed a laborious, and, in a geographical view, a most important expedition of about 8000 miles.

Dr. Oldcook's Receipt-book:

with Notes for the Preservation of Health. 12mo, Paper, 25 cents.

The most inexperienced can cook from these receipts, and to each there is appended explanatory notes as to the qualities of the viands, which notes have been collected from the highest medical authorities. The physical welfare of children is had in view throughout the work; and to the dyspeptic it will prove a treasure, as it shows how many of the best dishes can be so made as to be as wholesome as a bran biscuit, while the latent harm of every dish is pointed out.

Beauties of the Bible :

selected from the Old and New Testaments, with various Remarks on Dissertations. By EZRA SAMPSON. 18mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

This book is designed for the use of Christians of all denominations, the notes and comments being free from all sectarian bias. The remarks in general have a three-fold object: first, to inculcate the several divine virtues, and religion in general, from Scripture history and example; second, to afford a compendious view of the great evidences of the truth of Christianity; third, to illustrate the unequalled beauties of the Sacred Writings. The selections are of a kind likely to interest as well as instruct the youthful reader.

Sketches in Ireland ;

Dublin, the Shannon, Limerick, Cork, and the Kilkenny Races; the Round Towers; the Lakes of Killarney; the County of Wicklow; O'Connell and the Repeal; Belfast and the Giant's Causeway. By J. G. KOHL. 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents.

Mr. Kohl's work on Ireland, says the Times, is, beyond all comparison, the most succinct and faithful that has ever been published. It exhibits the lamentable condition of that country in a light in which none but a foreigner, or, at least, a sagacious traveler, could paint it. His testimony is doubly valuable from the weight of experience and authority which his name carries with it. Making due allowance for national prejudices, it must be confessed that no modern traveler has more minutely and accurately depicted the social condition of the countries he has visited.

Marco Polo's Travels, greatly amended and enlarged from valuable early Manuscripts recently published by the French Society of Geography, and in Italy by Count Baldelli Boni. With copious Notes, illustrating the Routes and Observations of the Author, and comparing them with those of more recent Travelers, by HUGH MURRAY, F.R.S.E. Maps and a Vignette. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

A romantic and interesting work, which has maintained its place for five centuries, while subsequent works of the kind have rather tended to increase than diminish its value—no trifling evidence of its great merit. It is one of the great literary performances that originated within the walls of a dungeon, Marco Polo being, at the time of its composition, imprisoned at Pisa. This enterprising traveler explored more in the very heart of the Chinese empire, and acquired more intimate knowledge of the wandering Tartars of Asia than any one of his predecessors, and indeed, it may be added, his successors, for in the thirteenth century he enjoyed the immunity, since denied, of visiting Pekin with his eyes open; his description, therefore, can not but be interesting and valuable, especially at the present day.

Travels in the United States.

By LADY EMELINE WORTLEY. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

This work belongs to the amusing order of travels, and makes no pretensions to intense gravity or profound wisdom. One reads it as he would listen to the rattling talk of the author, pleased with its vivacity and unstarched grace, with its off-hand descriptions of comical adventures, and its glowing pictures of natural scenes.

Mrs. Marsh's Novels.

Beyond most modern writers, the author seems to have an instinctive perception of human impulses, and an unsurpassed power of drawing delicate shades of character. Her works may worthily take place among the best modern fictions.

—London Critic.

	Castle Avon. 8vo, Paper, 37½ cents.
	Aubrey. 8vo, Paper, 37½ cents.

A large number of the above, neatly bound in 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, Price $3 00.

Shipwreck of Sir Edward Seaward, and consequent Discovery of certain Islands in the Caribbean Sea, with Details of his Residence there, and of various extraordinary and highly interesting Events of his Life. Edited by Miss JANE PORTER. 18mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

This is a very attractive personal narrative, pronounced by the London Spectator to be the most curious and instructive work that has appeared since the first dawn of discovery and the history of navigation.

Magendie's Physiology.

A Treatise on Human Physiology, on the Basis of the Précis Élementaire de Physiologie. By F. MAGENDIE. Translated, enlarged, and illustrated with Diagrams and Cuts. Especially designed for the use of Students of Medicine. By J. REVERE, M.D. 8vo, Muslin, $2 00 ; Sheep extra, $2 25.

The original work of Magendie has enjoyed a most flattering reputation as a standard production in France ; the author is regarded as the leading writer of the age on physiology, none having contributed so largely to the present improvements of the science as Magendie. The work is remarkable for its conciseness, vivid descriptions, and its admirable arrangement. It has been much benefited by the notes and illustrations of Professor Revere.

Memoir of Bickersteth.

A Memoir of the late Rev. Edward Bickersteth, Rector of Watton. By Rev. T. R. BIRKS, M.A. With a Preface, &c., by Rev. STEPHEN H. TYNG, D.D., of New York. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

A genuine piece of old-fashioned religious biography, prepared by the eldest daughter of Mr. Bickersteth and her husband. The present edition contains an introduction by the Rev. Dr. TYNG of New York. The work has been compiled with discrimination and care, free use being made of the voluminous correspondence of Mr. Bickersteth. It affords many curious and suggestive illustrations of human nature.

Alton Locke,

Tailor and Poet. An Autobiography. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A political and religious novel. It purports to be the history of a youth of genius doomed to struggle with the most abject poverty, and forced by the necessity of his position to become a Chartist and a Radical. The book abounds with weighty suggestions, urgent appeals, vivid pictures of popular wretchedness, deep sympathy with suffering, and a pure devotion to the finer and nobler instincts of humanity.

Yeast.

A Problem. By the Author of "Alton Locke." 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Under this quaint title the author of "Alton Locke" has collected into a volume a series of papers which abound in passages of singular beauty and heart-rending pathos, with some delineations of character, which, for originality of conception and force of coloring, can rarely be matched in contemporary literature.

The Country Year Book;

or, the Field, the Forest, and the Fireside. By WILLIAM HOWITT.
12mo, Muslin, 87½ cents.

Filled with charming descriptions of country life, redolent of the perfumes of bean-fields and hedge-rows, overflowing with the affluent treasures of the four seasons, rich in quaint, expressive sketches of old-fashioned manners, and pervaded by a generous zeal in the cause of popular improvement.

Howitt's Homes and Haunts.

Homes and Haunts of the British Poets. By WILLIAM HOWITT.
With numerous Illustrations. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 50; Half Calf, $3 50.

These delightful volumes contain many charming descriptions of localities rendered famous for having been the Homes and the Haunts of the British poets. The details are very curious and interesting. It would be easy to quote from the work a hundred different anecdotes, interesting either in themselves or from their relation to interesting persons. The volumes are richly embellished with woodcuts.

Howitt's Priestcraft.

History of Priestcraft in all Ages and Countries. By WILLIAM HOWITT. 12mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

"Mr. Howitt is a Quaker, and, consequently, treats all forms with but little respect. But the statements which he has collected with regard to priestcraft from the early ages, among pagan and Christian nations, we presume to be authentic."

Dealings with the Inquisition;

or, Papal Rome, her Priests, and her Jesuits. With important Disclosures. By Rev. GIACINTO ACHILLI, D.D., late Prior and Visitor of the Dominican Order, &c. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A work which has attracted great attention on account of its relation to the Roman Catholic controversy. Falling under the suspicion of heresy, the author was subjected to the power of the Inquisition. His book is full of curious disclosures.

Railway Economy;

a Treatise on the new Art of Transport, its Management, Prospects, and Relations, Commercial, Financial, and Social, with an Exposition of the practical Results of the Railways in Operation in the United Kingdom, on the Continent, and in America. By DIONYSIUS LARDNER, D.C.L. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A work overflowing with scientific, statistical, and practical details, and which will be considered as essential to all who wish to comprehend the subject in its various bearings, whether engineers, stockholders, or travelers, as fire and water to the locomotive.

The Bards of the Bible.

By GEORGE GILFILLAN. 12mo, Muslin, 35 cents.

This volume exhibits the characteristics of fervor, liveliness of fancy, and affluence of illustration which distinguish the writings of the author, with a greater coherence and depth of thought than is to be found in his literary portraiture. The union of devotional sentiment and poetic fancy must recommend the work to lovers of holy writ as well as to readers of cultivated taste.

The Whale and his Captors;

or, the Whaleman's Adventures and the Whale's Biography, as gathered on the Homeward Cruise of the "Commodore Prebble."

By Rev. H. T. CHEEVER. Engravings. 18mo, Muslin, 60 cents.

Mr. Cheever writes from personal observations. It would be difficult to obtain information on the subject of the whale in less compass and in a more readable form.

The Island World of the Pacific:

being the Personal Narrative and Results of Travel through the Sandwich or Hawaiian Islands and other parts of Polynesia. By Rev. H. T. CHEEVER. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Designed to present a correct picture of the best part of Polynesia. The most popular works on the subject refer to a much earlier date, while changes are effected with such rapidity in that part of Polynesia which is the subject of this volume that revolutions may take place in the lapse of seven years. This book, accordingly, meets a general want of the times, by giving a true and life-like exhibition of the island-world of the Pacific at the close of the first half of the nineteenth century.

Cheever's Captain Obadiah Congar.

Journal and Memorials of Captain Obadiah Congar, for Fifty Years Mariner and Shipmaster from the Port of New York. By Rev. H. T. CHEEVER. 18mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

Ripley's War with Mexico.

The War with Mexico. By R. S. RIPLEY, U.S.A. With Maps, Plans of Battles, &c. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $4 00; Sheep extra, $4 50; Half Calf, $5 00.

Carpenter's Adventures in Mexico.

Travels and Adventure in Mexico, in the Course of Journeys of upward of 2500 miles performed on foot, giving an Account of the Manners and Customs of the People, and the Agricultural and Mineral Resources of the Country. By WILLIAM W. CARPENTER, late of the U. S. Army. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A record of military service and wanderings on foot by a soldier in our Mexican War, describing the manners and customs of the people of Mexico, and the agricultural and mineral resources of that country. The narrative is drawn up from notes taken on the spot, and is marked by a high degree of frankness and simplicity.

The Irish Confederates,

and the Rebellion of 1798. By Rev. HENRY M. FIELD. Portraits and Map. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents.

A lively historical sketch of the movements of the Irish patriots in behalf of the freedom of their nation, toward the close of the last century. The volume opens with a rapid survey of Irish history, traces the love of liberty among the people, describes the causes of their national characteristics, and minutely portrays the events of the fruitless struggle, which terminated in the complete subjection of their beautiful island to the British crown. Among the biographical sketches, those of Curran, Tone, Lord Edward Fitzgerald, the Emmets, M'Nevin, and Sampson, of course occupy a prominent place.

Harper's Erie Rail-Road Guide.

New York and Erie Rail-Road Guide-Book: containing a Description of the Scenery, Rivers, Towns, Villages, and most important Works on the Road. Embellished with 136 Engravings on Wood, by LOSSING and BARRETT, from original Sketches made expressly for the Work. 12mo, Paper, 50 cents; Muslin, 62½ cents.

An indispensable appendage to the preparations of the pleasure-hunter who is about to view the magnificent scenery of this great public avenue. It contains nearly a hundred and fifty engravings from original sketches made expressly for the work. The letterpress descriptions are written in a lively and pleasing style, and furnish a great amount of geographical and local information with regard to the interior of the Empire State.

Lord Holland's Foreign Reminiscences.

Edited by his Son HENRY EDWARD, LORD HOLLAND. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A book of interest to all lovers of political anecdote. It is filled with rapid, gossiping notices of the principal European celebrities of the past generation, and devotes a large space to personal recollections of the Emperor Napoleon.

Rule and Misrule of the English in America.

By the Author of "Sam Slick in America," "Attaché," "The Letter Bag," "Old Judge," &c. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A work written in the interests of monarchical government, taking the United States as a warning against the evils of democracy.

The Nile Boat;

or, Glimpses of the Land of Egypt. By W. H. BARTLETT. Illustrated with a fine Steel Engraving, and numerous Wood-cuts. 8vo, Muslin, $2 00; Muslin, gilt edges, $2 25; Morocco, gilt edges, $4 00.

An agreeable volume on the manners and customs of the Orientals, illustrated with a profusion of engravings from drawings made on the spot by the author, many of them with the camera lucida. Mr. Bartlett's first point is Alexandria, from whence he departs for Cairo, whence he passes up the Nile, visits Thebes, Esneh, and Edsou, ascends the cataracts, and explores the weird ruins of Philæ.

Forest Life and Forest Trees:

comprising Winter Camp-life among the Loggers, and wild-wood Adventure. With Descriptions of Lumbering Operations on the various Rivers of Maine and New Brunswick. By J. S. SPRINGER. With Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A genuine American work, redolent of the pine forests of Maine, and filled with fresh and glowing descriptions of the life of a New England backwoodsman. The work is divided into three parts, viz.: The Trees of America; The Pine-tree, or Forest Life, and River Life.

Creasy's Fifteen Decisive Battles.

The Fifteen Decisive Battles of the World; from Marathon to Waterloo. By E. S. CREASY, A.M. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Among the decisive battles embraced in this work, those of Marathon, of Arbela, of Hastings, of the Spanish Armada, of Blenheim, of Saratoga, and of Waterloo, are described with picturesque felicity, and their consequences to the fortunes of the civilized world are traced out in the genuine spirit of a sound philosophical historian. Professor Creasy's observations connected with the battle of Saratoga, in regard to the position of America in modern history, are just and impartial.

Wesley and Methodism.

By ISAAC TAYLOR. With a new Portrait. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

In the present work Mr. Taylor discusses the origin, the progress, the actual condition, and the future application of Wesleyan Methodism as an instrument, under Providence, for the spiritual elevation of mankind. The first, and by far the most interesting portion of the volume, is occupied with a description of the founders of Methodism, including the two Wesleys, John and Charles, Whitfield, Fletcher, Coke, and Lady Huntingdon. In the remainder of the volume, Mr. Taylor considers the primary elements of Methodism, its relations to society, and its position in the future.

Madame Pfeiffer's Voyage.

A Lady's Voyage round the World. By Madame IDA PFEIFFER. Translated from the German, by Mrs. PERCY SINNETT. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

Madam Pfeiffer's work is replete with valuable information, while its perpetual good-humor, sagacious observation, and sound common sense, sustain an unflagging interest in its perusal.

Stephen on the History of France.

Lectures on the History of France. By Sir JAMES STEPHEN, K.C.B.
8vo, Muslin, $1 75; Half Calf, $2 25.

These lectures comprise a series of brilliant, discursive commentaries on the salient points of French history, from the time of Charlemagne to that of Louis XIV. Of the twenty-four lectures which compose the volume, three are devoted to the "Power of the Pen in France," and discuss in a masterly style the character and influence of Abelard, Bernard, Montaigne, Descartes, Pascal, and other eminent French writers.

Recollections of a Literary Life;

or, Books, Places, and People. By MARY RUSSELL MITFORD. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A work of peculiar interest to American readers. In addition to a rich store of delightful personal reminiscences, genial and graceful criticisms on old English authors, as well as on contemporary celebrities, and copious selections from their choicest productions, Miss Mitford presents several agreeable sketches of American authors and other distinguished men, including Daniel Webster, Halleck, Hawthorne, Whittier, Wendell Holmes, &c. She shows a sincere love for this country, and a cordial appreciation of its institutions and its literature.

The Private Life of Daniel Webster.

By CHARLES LANMAN. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

In these pages we see the great Webster at home, inhaling the pure breezes of the mountain or the sea, courting the pleasures of country life with the first breath of the morning, sitting under the shade of his ancient elms, raising his solemn eyes to the sublime heights of Kearsarge, listening to the ocean's roar, as it broke against the rocky shores of Plymouth; admiring the symmetry of his noble herds, indulging in tender reminiscences of his "dear kindred blood," or conversing with the gray-haired cultivators of the soil, with whom he sported in his boyish days, as he revisited the hallowed spot where "the rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep."

Webster's Official Papers.

Diplomatic and Official Papers of DANIEL WEBSTER while Secretary of State. With Portrait. 8vo, Muslin, $1 75.

Stiles's Austria.

Austria in 1848 and 1849: being a History of the late Political Movements in Vienna, Milan, Venice, and Prague; with Details of the Campaigns of Lombardy and Novara; a full Account of the Rise, Progress, and Conclusion of the Revolution in Hungary; and Historical Sketches of the Austrian Government and the Provinces of the Empire. By WILLIAM H. STILES, late Chargé d'Affaires at the Court of Vienna. With Portraits of the Emperor, Metternich, Radetzky, Jellacic, and Kossuth. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $3 50; Half Calf, $4 50.

The London Athenaeum says of this work, that "it may be recommended as a plain, continuous, and conscientious narrative to all those who would like to have the events to which it refers brought before them in the compass of one book, so as to be saved the trouble of turning over many."

Woman's Record;

or, Biographical Sketches of all Distinguished Women, from the Creation to the present Time. Arranged in Four Eras, with Selections from Female Writers of each Era. By Mrs. SARAH JOSEPHA HALE. Illustrated with more than 200 Portraits, engraved by BENSON J. LOSSING. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $ ; Half Calf, $ ; Morocco, gilt edges, $ .

Many years have been devoted to the preparation of this comprehensive work, which contains complete and accurate sketches of the most distinguished women in all ages, and, in extent and thoroughness, far surpasses every previous biographical collection with a similar aim. Mrs. Hale has ransacked the treasures of history for information in regard to the eminent women whom it commemorates; few, if any, important names are omitted in her volumes, while the living celebrities of the day are portrayed with justness and delicacy. The picture of woman's life, as it has been developed from the time of the earliest traditions to the present date, is here displayed in vivid and impressive colors, and with a living sympathy which could flow only from a feminine pen. A judicious selection from the writings of women who have obtained distinction in the walks of literature is presented, affording an opportunity for comparing the noblest productions of the female mind, and embracing many exquisite gems of fancy and feeling. The biographies are illustrated by a series of highly-finished engravings, which form a gallery of portraits of curious interest to the amateur, as well as of great historical value.

Liberia;

or, Mr. Peyton's Experiments. Edited by Mrs. S. J. HALE, Author of "Woman's Record." 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

In the form of a fictitious narrative, although evidently founded on facts, Mrs. Hale here brings her practiced pen to the illustration of the difficulties experienced by the colored people of this country in the attainment of social position and prosperity; and she argues in behalf of the colonization enterprise, as affording the most effectual remedy for the acknowledged evils of the case.

Corneille and his Times.

By M. GUIZOT. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00; Half Calf, $1 50.

Distinguished by the weight of thought, temperance of expression, and various learning, characteristic of the historical productions of M. Guizot, this volume will be found an indispensable aid in the study of French literature. The merits of the great dramatist and his leading contemporaries are discussed with rare critical discrimination and winning felicity of language.

Shakspeare and his Times.

By M. GUIZOT. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00<sup>4</sup>; Half Calf, $1 50.

The views presented by Guizot in this work are the fruit of profound study and reflection. Acute, logical, and unimpassioned, he subjects the immortal productions of Shakspeare to a rigid analysis. As the deliberate judgment of one of the most discreet and intelligent writers in French literature, on numerous important questions of dramatic art, this volume must be regarded as a most acceptable contribution to Shaksperian criticism.

History of Connecticut, from the first Settlement to the present Time. By THEODORE DWIGHT. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.

Bunsen's Niebuhr.

Life and Letters of Barthold George Niebuhr. With Essays on his Character and Influence. By the Chevalier BUNSEN, and Professors BRANDIS and LORBELL. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25; Half Calf, $1 75.

A sketch of the life of the celebrated Roman historian, with copious selections from his familiar letters on a great variety of literary and personal topics. In his correspondence, his private feelings, his studies, his literary projects, his plans of life, are all described without reserve. The work is rich in sketches of contemporary literary men and politicians, presenting, in fact, a lucid commentary on the development of German culture during the last half century.

Richardson's Arctic Expedition.

The Arctic Searching Expedition: a Journal of a Boat-voyage through Rupert's Land and the Arctic Sea, in search of the Discovery Ships under Command of Sir John Franklin. With an Appendix on the Physical Geography of North America. By Sir JOHN RICHARDSON, C.B., F.R.S. Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

This volume comprises a copious journal of a boat voyage through Rupert's Land and the Arctic Sea in search of Sir John Franklin, a variety of interesting details concerning the savages of that region, and an elaborate treatise on the physical geography of North America. The work presents a lively picture of the manners of the Indians, and the physical phenomena of the icy North.

Parisian Sights and French Principles, seen through American Spectacles. With Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

This is one of the most graphic descriptions of life in the French metropolis which have yet been given by any English or American traveler. The author blends reflection and narrative in a very effective manner, depicting the prominent features of French society with a vivid pencil, and deducing the inferences suggested by his varied experience. Short of a personal visit to the great focus of European fashion, there is no way in which one can obtain such a mass of information on the subject, and in so agreeable a manner, as by reading this lively volume.

American Missionary Memorial :

including Biographical and Historical Sketches. Edited by H. PIERSON, A.M. With numerous Illustrations. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75; Muslin, gilt edges, $2 00; Morocco extra, gilt edges, $5 00.

A work devoted to the memory of American missionaries. It is introduced with a historical essay from the pen of the Rev. Dr. WORCESTER, of Salem, Massachusetts, describing the origin of American missions, and presenting many valuable reminiscences of the pioneers in that sacred enterprise. The biographies of the deceased missionaries of various Christian denominations are here given by writers well qualified to do justice to the task. In a religious point of view, the volume possesses remarkable interest, and, irrespective of this, it must attract the attention of the general reader, because it opens a new chapter in the history of American enterprise.

Layard's Nineveh.

A Popular Account of the Discoveries at Nineveh. By AUSTEN HENRY LAYARD. Abridged by him from his larger Work. With numerous Wood Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The London Examiner pronounces this a "charming volume, to which we may safely promise a circulation without limit, and as unbounded popularity. The great feature of the abridgement is, the introduction of the principal Biblical and historical illustrations (forming a separate section of the original work) into the narrative, which, without sacrificing any matter of importance, makes the story more compact, useful, and, indeed, complete in its abridged than it was in its original form."

Layard's Fresh Discoveries.

Fresh Discoveries in Nineveh and Babylon; with Travels in Armenia, Kurdistan, and the Desert: being the Result of a Second Expedition, undertaken for the Trustees of the British Museum.

By AUSTEN HENRY LAYARD, M.P. With all of the Maps and Engravings in the English Edition. 8vo, Muslin, $2 25.

This deeply interesting volume describes the result of a second expedition, devoted to exploring the remains of the ruined cities of the East. The discoveries are related with graphic beauty, and are equally striking with those before published, and throw new light on many obscure passages of Holy Writ, as well as on the social and domestic characteristics of numerous Oriental regions, concerning which we know comparatively little.

Interviews, Memorable and Useful.

From Diary and Memory Reproduced. By Rev. Dr. SAMUEL H. COX. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Dr. Cox has here presented to the public personal reminiscences, describing scenes and conversations with various distinguished personages in which he took part, and accompanied with appropriate reflections and inferences in the peculiar vein of humor which has given the author so much celebrity.

Countess D'Arbouville's Tales.

Christine van Amberg, Resignation, and the Village Doctor. By the Countess D'ARBOUVILLE. Translated from the French, by MAUNSELL B. FIELD, M.A. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

The present tales, entitled "Christine Van Amberg," "Resignation," and "The Village Doctor," are scarcely inferior to Paul and Virginia in tenderness and pathos. Free from the unnatural sentiment and immoral tendencies of a large portion of modern French romance, they exhibit an inimitable portraiture of refined and beautiful passion, in a style of singular sweetness, simplicity, and power.

The Bourbon Prince.

The History of the Royal Dauphin, Louis XVII. of France. Numerous Engravings. 16mo, Muslin, 62½ cents.

This little work gives the history of the Royal Dauphin, Louis XVII., of France. The account of his brief, eventful life possesses the charm of a romance in the touching beauty and tragic pathos of its narrative.

Sir William Hamilton's Works.

Discussions on Philosophy and Literature, Education and University Reform. Chiefly from the Edinburgh Review. Corrected, vindicated, enlarged, in Notes and Appendices. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50; Half Calf, $2 00.

In the present state of metaphysical inquiry, the writings of Sir William Hamilton are indispensable for reference, if not for authority. The portion of the volume relating to education possesses the greatest interest for the general reader, while the student of the history of philosophy will find in the papers devoted to that subject an overflowing treasury of learning, ample quotations from writers eminent in their day, but now little read, and a store of critical suggestions. The present edition is prefaced by an appropriate Essay by Robert Turnbull, D.D., presenting a luminous view of the progress of philosophical speculation from the dawn of philosophy among the nations of the East to its latest developments in Continental Europe.

Memorials of the English Martyrs.

By Rev. C. B. TAYLER. Beautifully Illustrated. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

The author devoted himself with untiring diligence to the examination of local English antiquities which preserve the memory of the Protestant martyrs, and has here set forth the fruit of his researches in an eloquent and impressive manner. Among the places to which he made a pious pilgrimage, Smithfield, Lutterworth, Gloucester, and Oxford are most conspicuous.

History of Sandford and Merton.

By THOMAS DAY. 18mo, Half Bound, 87½ cents.

This well-known and popular work has been read by many a boy with delight and instruction, and will continue to communicate equal delight to those that are to follow. It was the object of the author to convey to the youthful mind such useful impressions as were calculated to promote the formation of a generous, a contented, and a manly character; and it is even more adapted to the state of society at present than it was at the period when it was written.

Beauchesne's Louis XVII.

His Life, his Suffering, his Death: the Captivity of the Royal Family in the Temple. Translated and Edited by W. HAZLITT, Esq. Embellished with Vignettes, Autographs, and Plans. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

A complete English translation, presenting a full history of the unfortunate Dauphin, from his birth to his imprisonment in the Temple, and his subsequent death. The author is an earnest partisan of the old French monarchy; the horrors of the Revolution have acted powerfully upon his imagination; he is alive to every romantic element in the fortunes of the falling dynasty; but he has evidently investigated his subject with discrimination and good faith; no circumstance, however trivial, is permitted to escape his attention; and, writing with united judgment and enthusiasm, he has produced a narrative of rare beauty, as well as touching pathos.

A Second Visit to the United States.

By Sir CHARLES LYELL, F.R.S. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

Lady Blessington's Memoirs.

The Literary Life and Correspondence of the Countess of Blessington. Compiled and Edited by R. MADDEN, Esq. With Portrait. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

During the last fifty years there have been few books of such peculiar interest to the literary and political world. It has contributions from every person of literary reputation—Byron, Sir E. Bulwer (who contributes an original poem), James, D'Israeli, Marryatt, Savage Landor, Campbell, L. E. L., the Smiths, Shelley, Jenkyn, Sir W. Gell, Jekyll, &c., &c.; as well as letters from the most eminent statesmen and foreigners of distinction—the Duke of Wellington, Marquis Wellesley, Marquis Douro, Lords Lyndhurst, Brougham, Durham, Abinger, &c., &c.

Maury's Geography of the Sea.

The Physical Geography of the Sea. By M. F. MAURY, Lieut. U. S. Navy. With Wood cuts and Charts. 8vo, Muslin, $1 25.

A philosophical account of the winds and currents of the ocean—of its depth and temperature, of the wonders that are hidden in its bosom, and of the phenomena that are exhibited at its surface. The economy of the sea and its adaptations its salts, its waters, its inhabitants—also pertain to the subject, and are amply treated in the present volume. The discussion, it will be perceived, is of a unique character, and opens details that are rarely touched in the records of science. In the hands of Lieutenant Maury it assumes a popular interest, no less than scientific importance. His descriptions of the phenomena of the Gulf Stream, of the currents of the sea, and other cognate topics, are singularly graphic in their style, besides containing a rich fund of curious and valuable information. It is rarely that a treatise on any branch of physical science is so attractive in its details or so fruitful in its instructions as this volume. It can not fail to awaken universal interest and admiration.

History of the Captivity of Napoleon

at St. Helena; from the Letters and Journals of the late Lieut.-Gen. Sir Hudson Lowe, and Official Documents not before made Public. With Portrait and Map. By WILLIAM FORSYTH, M.A. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

A complete narrative of the Emperor Napoleon's life at St. Helena, founded on the letters and other posthumous documents of the late Sir Hudson Lowe. It defends the conduct of Sir Hudson in the treatment of his illustrious captive. The work is important as a contribution to the history of one of the most remarkable political measures of modern times. No one who pretends to the exercise of impartiality in his judgment of Napoleon will fail to examine the interesting evidence presented in these volumes.

The Czar and the Sultan;

or, Nicholas and Abdul Medjid; their Private Lives and Public Actions. By ADRIAN GILSON. To which is Added, the Turks in Europe: their Rise and Decadence. By FRANCIS BOUVET. 16mo, Muslin, 50 cents.

This work gives an intelligent account of the lives and public actions of Nicholas and Abdul Medjid. A comprehensive essay on the rise and decadence of the Turks in Europe is added by another hand.

Harry's Ladder to Learning.

With 250 Illustrations. Square 8vo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A collection of world-famous nursery ditties and legends, presenting a tempting bait to the young idea as it begins to shoot. Its endless profusion of pictorial illustrations, executed in a most effective style, makes it an overflowing cornucopia of delight to young eyes.

Bulwer's Novels.

To Bulwer, the author of Pelham, The Caxtons, and My Novel, we assign the highest place among modern writers of fiction. There is always power in the creations of his fancy; he is always polished, witty, learned. Since the days of Scott were ended, there is, in our apprehension, no pinnacle so high as that on which we hang our wreath to Bulwer: like the Roman emperor, a prince among his equals, the first of his craft.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Pelham. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

The Disowned. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Devereux. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Paul Clifford. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Eugene Aram. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Last Days of Pompeii. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Rienzi. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Falkland. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Ernest Maltravers. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Alice; or, the Mysteries. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

The Last of the Barons. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Zanoni. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Night and Morning. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Lucretia. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.

Harold. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.

The Caxtons. 8vo, Paper, 37½ cents.

My Novel; or, Varieties in English Life. 8vo, Paper, 75 cents.

Godolphin. 2 vols. 12mo, 90 cents.

The Student. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, 80 cents.

Leilla; or, the Siege of Grenada. 12mo, Muslin, 37½ cents.

Calderon, the Courtier. 12mo, Paper, 25 cents.

Pilgrims of the Rhine. 8vo, Paper, 12½ cents.

A large portion of the above, neatly bound in 5 vols. 8vo, Muslin, Price $7 50.

Foster's First Principles of Chemistry.

Illustrated by a Series of the most recently Discovered and brilliant Experiments known to the Science. Adapted specially for Classes. 12mo, Sheep extra, 60 cents.

The Publishers are prepared to furnish a complete set of all the apparatus necessary to perform the experiments laid down in the work. The apparatus is manufactured expressly for this purpose by Dr. JAMES R. CHILTON. Price, neatly packed, $23 00.

The work consists of a series of brilliant experiments in chemical science, with ample illustrations of the leading theoretical principles. It is intended for the use of classes in common schools, and will be found admirably adapted to facilitate the progress of the learner in that branch of education.

Foster's Chart of the Organic Elements.

For the use of Schools and Academies. Beautifully colored, mounted on Rollers, with Cloth back, $4 00.

This is a large lithographic chart, 4½ by 6 feet in size, beautifully colored, and mounted on rollers. It shows at a glance the composition, proportion, and properties of the compound bodies of most frequent occurrence. Its simplicity adapts it especially to the use of common schools and academies.

The Posthumous Works of Dr. Chalmers.

Edited by his Son-in-law, Rev. WILLIAM HANNA, LL.D. Complete in 9 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00 each; Sheep extra, $1 25 each. Comprising DAILY SCRIPTURE READINGS, 3 vols.; SABBATH SCRIPTURE READINGS, 2 vols.; SERMONS, from 1798 to 1847, 1 vol.; INSTITUTES OF THEOLOGY, 2 vols.; PRELECTIONS ON BUTLER'S ANALOGY, PALEY'S EVIDENCES OF CHRISTIANITY, and HILL'S LECTURES ON DIVINITY, with two Introductory Lectures and four Addresses, delivered in the new College, Edinburgh, 1 vol.

A large portion of these volumes is devoted to a popular commentary on several of the books of Scripture, and is equally adapted to the wants of the clergyman, the theological student, and the private family. With an earnest devotion to the instructions of Holy Writ, a sagacious insight into their meaning, and a singular aptness of illustration, Dr. Chalmers was eminently qualified to present their contents in an edifying form, and to give the reader a fresh perception of their significance and value. The admirers of the theological writings of this great divine will find an ample fund of gratification in these characteristic posthumous remains.

Life and Writings of Dr. Chalmers.

Edited by his Son-in-law, Rev. WILLIAM HANNA, LL.D. 4 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00 per Volume.

The brave and magnanimous life of the distinguished Scottish preacher, professor, and philanthropist is described in glowing but faithful colors by the author of this work, whose position, as a near relation of Dr. Chalmers, and whose sympathy with his genius, are a guarantee of his ability to do justice to the subject. The details of his private life are related with beautiful simplicity, while the varied details of his public career are dwelt on with a minuteness corresponding to their importance. Few biographical productions are so well adapted to interest the intelligent and thoughtful reader as these memoirs of a man who has been rarely surpassed for sweetness of disposition, vigor of intellect, and fervor of piety.

Correspondence of Dr. Chalmers.

Edited by his Son-in-law, Rev. WILLIAM HANNA, LL.D. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

The letters in this interesting volume form an appropriate sequel to the biography of Dr. Chalmers, which has found such numerous readers on both sides of the Atlantic. They consist of selections from his extensive correspondence, for the most part on subjects connected with religion, and unfolding his private views and speculations in regard to those sublime themes which he set forth with such wealth of illustration and energy of rhetoric from the pulpit, the lecture-room, and the press.

Tricolored Sketches in Paris,

during the Years 1851-2-3. With numerous Illustrations.

12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

In this lively volume, the writer has given a complete and luminous view of the political state of France, from the accession of Louis Napoleon to the throne to a comparatively recent period, together with copious sketches of the domestic, secret, literary, and industrial life of Paris, and personal notices of the principal celebrities of that city. As a succession of panoramic pictures of eventful and exciting scenes, the work will compare favorably with any current American books of European travel.

Miss Strickland's Queens of Scotland.

Lives of the Queens of Scotland and English Princesses connected with the regal Succession of Great Britain. By AGNES STRICKLAND. 6 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00 per Volume.

The author of this great historical work combines a feminine susceptibility to moral worth with a masculine power of research and systematic narrative. She has spared no pains in the investigation of facts, ransacked rare archives and dusty depositaries for all accessible documents, and has presented the fruit of her labors in a style of equal force and gracefulness. Her sympathies always incline her to take sides with the beautiful, the oppressed, and the suffering, but she never permits the indulgence of her benevolent feelings at the expense of historical truth.

Jay's Works.

Complete Works of Rev. William Jay: comprising his Sermons, Family Discourses, Morning and Evening Exercises for every Day in the Year, Family Prayers, &c. Author's enlarged Edition, revised. 3 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $4 00; Sheep extra, $4 50; Half Calf, $5 25.

The devotional writings of the late William Jay have found intimate access to the hearts of the Christian world. His excellent influence will not soon pass away. Unequalled for his pious simplicity, his winning unction, his unaffected devotion, his apt use of Scriptural phraseology, and his genuine religious wisdom, he has left an enviable reputation, of which these volumes form an appropriate and interesting memorial. They will long hold a cherished place in the library of practical religious works, and prove equally acceptable to evangelical Christians of every name.

Jay's Morning and Evening Exercises

for the Closet, for every Day in the Year. Portrait. 8vo, Muslin, $1 25; Half Morocco, $1 50; Half Calf, $1 75.

Ranke's Civil Wars in France.

Civil Wars and Monarchy in France, in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries; a History of France principally during that period. By LEOPOLD RANKE, Author of "A History of the Popes in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries." Translated by M. A. GARVEY. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

This volume is devoted to the civil wars of France during the 16th and 17th centuries, and throws much light on the events of that important period. Professor Ranke is always discreet and cautious; his principles of historical research are sound; and he never fails to present the subject to which he devotes his attention in a new aspect.

Life's Lesson.

A Tale. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents.

A domestic story, abounding in natural sketches of character, and frequent pathetic and touching scenes. The volume is recommended by its air of reality, its excellent moral tone, and the flowing ease of its language.

Herman Melville's Works.

The new path struck out by Melville in Typee and Omoo has led to a wide and brilliant fame in a short space of time. Few of the younger American authoress are more extensively read or more universally admired. His pictures of primitive social life in the islands of the South Sea possess an irresistible charm. The works devoted to this subject are redolent of the spicy fragrance of the native forests, and glow with the splendid lights of a tropical sky. In his other productions, comic humor is admirably blended with powerful description, grave reflection, and exciting narrative. Surpassed in originality by no recent writer in literature, his works form an epoch in its progress, and are indispensable in every library.

Omoo;

a Narrative of Adventures in the South Seas. By HERMAN MELVILLE. 12mo, Paper, $1 00 ; Muslin, $1 25.

Typee;

a Peep at Polynesian Life, during a four Months' Residence in the Marquesas. By HERMAN MELVILLE. The revised Edition, with a Sequel. 12mo, Paper, 75 cents ; Muslin, 87½ cents.

Moby-Dick;

or, the Whale. By HERMAN MELVILLE. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50.

White-Jacket;

or, the World in a Man-of-War. By HERMAN MELVILLE. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

Redburn :

his first Voyage. Being the Reminiscences of the Son-of-a-gentleman in the Merchant Service. By HERMAN MELVILLE. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

Mardi ;

and a Voyage Thither. By HERMAN MELVILLE. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

Pierre ;

or, the Ambiguities. By HERMAN MELVILLE. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

Le Curé Manqué ;

or, Social and Religious Customs in France. By EUGÈNE DE COURCILLON. 12mo.

The autobiography of a young French peasant, who was trained for the Church. Its specific purpose is to give an account of the social and rural life and superstitions of the peasants of Normandy, and to show the relations existing between them and their priests. The author also describes, in a very interesting manner, the routine and customs of the French ecclesiastical seminaries.

Currer Bell's Novels.

The wondrous power of Currer Bell's stories consists in their fiery insight into the human heart, their merciless dissection of passion, and their stern analysis of character and motive. The style of these productions possesses incredible force—sometimes almost grim in its bare severity—then relapsing into passages of melting pathos—always direct, natural, and effective in its unpretending strength. They exhibit the identity which always belongs to works of genius by the same author, though without the slightest approach to monotony. The characters portrayed by Currer Bell all have a strongly marked individuality. Once brought before the imagination, they haunt the memory like a strange dream. The sinewy, muscular strength of her writings guarantees their permanent duration, and thus far they have lost nothing of their intensity of interest since the period of their composition.

Jane Eyre.

Edited by CURRER BELL. Library Edition. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents; Half Calf, $1 40.—Cheap Edition. 8vo, Paper, 37½ cents.

Shirley.

A Tale. By the Author of "Jane Eyre." Library Edition. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents; Half Calf, $1 40.—Cheap Edition. 8vo, Paper, 37½ cents.

Villette.

By the Author of "Jane Eyre" and "Shirley." Library Edition. 12mo, Muslin, 90 cents; Half Calf, $1 40.—Cheap Edition. 8vo, Paper, 50 cents.

Smith's History of Greece.

From the earliest Times to the Roman Conquest, with Supplementary Chapters on the History of Literature and Art. For Schools and Students. Illustrated with 100 Wood-cuts. Edited by Professor GREENE. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

This is not only the best school History of Greece now before the public, but the most suitable for popular reading. As a manual for common use, it must soon take the place of every other. It embodies the results of Mr. Grote's important investigations as well as of other modern writers. In the department of literature and art it is particularly rich. The style is lucid, elegant, and spirited. There can be no doubt that it will at once justify its claims to be a standard work on the subject.

In our opinion, it is the very best history of Greece for schools hitherto published. It is also equally well adapted for the private use of such as have neither means nor leisure to consult more elaborate works.—Zion's Herald and Wesleyan Journal.

It is superior to every work of its kind that we have ever seen.—Cour. and Enq.

Liddell's History of Rome.

A School History of Rome. By HENRY G. LIDDELL, M.A. With numerous Illustrations. Uniform with Smith's History of Greece. 12mo, Muslin. (In press.)

Nile Notes of a Howadji.

By G. W. CURRIS. 12mo, Muslin, 87½ cents; Half Calf, $1 38.

In this brilliant volume of Eastern travels, the genius of the youthful author, who has since attained such eminent distinction, was first revealed to the literary public. Written in a style which combines the voluptuous softness of an Oriental atmosphere with the sunny splendors of the tropics, it at once marked the writer as a new star in American literature. He takes the reader with him into rare and beautiful scenes of nature, unfolds the mysteries of Arabian life, and reproduces the strange incidents of a unique tour in language of wonderful vividness and force.

The Howadji in Syria.

By G. W. CURRIS, Author of "Nile Notes of a Howadji." 12mo, Muslin, 87½ cents; Half Calf, $1 38.

A second volume of Oriental travel, distinguished for the same bold and striking characteristics which give such a decided impress of beauty and power to the Nile Notes. It abounds in picturesque descriptions of the marvels of the Holy Land, throwing fresh light on ancient localities, and imbued with the spirit of sympathy and reverence for the sacred scenes which it calls forth from the dim oblivion of the past.

Lotus-Eating.

A Summer Book. By G. W. CURRIS, Author of "Nile Notes of a Howadji," "The Howadji in Syria," &c. Beautifully illustrated from Designs by Kensett. 12mo, Muslin, 75 cents; Half Calf, $1 25.

This delightful volume is a record of the summer rambles of the author, touching gracefully on many of the most interesting spots in American scenery, and giving a series of lively pictures of the celebrated places of fashionable resort. Humor, pathos, and sentiment are generally blended in its pages, its reflections are always suggestive, its narratives never pall upon the taste, its brilliant word-painting is relieved by an undercurrent of genuine feeling, and its fresh and glowing descriptions give a new charm to familiar objects.

Prescott's Miscellanies.

Containing Notices of Charles Brockden Brown, the American Novelist.—Asylum for the Blind.—Irving's Conquest of Grenada.—Cervantes.—Sir Walter Scott.—Chateaubriand's English Literature.—Bancroft's United States.—Madame Calderon's Life in Mexico.—Moliere.—Italian Narrative Poetry.—Poetry and Romance of the Italians.—Scottish Song.—Da Ponte's Observations.—Ticknor's Spanish Literature. By WILLIAM H. PRESCOTT. Portrait. 8vo, Muslin, $2 00; Sheep, $2 25; Half Calf, $2 50.

In addition to the matter published in the former editions of these "Miscellanies," will now be found an article of considerable length upon Spanish Literature. Many of the pieces are the result of more care than is usually bestowed on periodical writing, and they embrace a range of study very different from that by which Mr. Prescott has been generally known as an author. The London Literary Gazette, in speaking of the work, says, "All who love a light and pleasant style of observation thrown over topics of universal interest will find enough here to afford them acceptable information and rational pastime."

Bancroft's Miscellanies.

Literary and Historical Miscellanies. By GEORGE BANCROFT, 8vo, Muslin, $2 00; Half Calf, $2 50.

This volume comprises essays on several miscellaneous subjects, studies in German literature, with notices of the principal authors in that language, and poetical translations; studies in history, including various elaborate monographs on important topics; and occasional addresses, among which are a tribute to John Calvin, a eulogy on William Ellery Channing, and the recent discourse before the Historical Society, on the Progress of the Human Race. Embracing a series of compositions that spread over an interval of more than thirty-five years, and, of course, many of them written during the early youth of the author, as well as in the mature vigor of his manhood, the volume will afford an interesting illustration of the progress of his mind, the modes of his literary culture, and the development of his opinions, until the culminating-point of his brilliant career in that noble product of American literature, the History of the United States. The intrinsic value of its contents will make it welcome to all intelligent readers, while the lovers of literary history will follow, with curious interest, the course of study and of thought which has ripened into such a pure and exalted fame.

Hilliard's Speeches and Addresses.

Speeches and Addresses. By HENRY W. HILLIARD. 8vo, Muslin, $1 75.

The greater portion of this volume consists of speeches delivered in the United States House of Representatives, of which the author was a member during a most critical and eventful period. They are devoted to the discussion of the most important questions which have ever agitated the country; prominent among which are the sub-treasury scheme, the Mexican war, the peace which concluded this war, the form of government to be adopted for the newly-acquired territory, and the political aspects of the question of slavery. These are discussed in the light of principles of universal application, rather than on mere temporary and party grounds. Mr. Hilliard takes throughout high Southern views; but, however widely many readers may differ from him in sentiment and principle, no one can fail to recognize the dignified and courteous manner in which the discussion is conducted, and the profusion and aptness of the historical allusions with which the author's view is elucidated and enforced. The addressees of a literary character which are appended show that, in entering the stormy arena of political life, Mr. Hilliard has not neglected the pursuits of the accomplished scholar and thoughtful philosopher.

Hall's Works.

Complete Works of Robert Hall: with a brief Memoir of his Life, by DR. GREGORY, and Observations on his Character as a Preacher, by REV. JOHN FOSTER. Edited by OLINTHUS GREGORY, LL.D., and REV. JOSEPH BELCHER. Portrait. 4 vols. 8vo, Sheep extra, $6 00; Half Calf, $7 00.

The name of Robert Hall will be placed by posterity among the best writers of the age.—SIR JAMES MACKINTOSH.

Whoever wishes to see the English language in its perfection must read the writings of that great divine, Robert Hall. He combines the beauties of Johnson, Addison, and Burke, without their imperfections.—DUGALD STEWART.

I can do no better than refer the academic reader to the immortal works of Robert Hall. For moral grandeur, for Christian truth and sublimity, we may doubt whether they have their match in the sacred oratory of any age or country.—PROF. SEDGWICK.

Life and Correspondence of Hannah More.

By W. ROBERTS. Portrait. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 50; Half Calf, $2 50.

These volumes constitute a delightful memento of one of the most estimable and gifted women of her age; they also comprise a series of most charming and life-like portraits of her distinguished contemporaries, made up from the hitherto unpublished correspondence, &c. The work is a rich legacy to the reading world; abounding in earnest and lofty sentiment and feeling, and relieved by a choice selection of literary and characteristic anecdote and illustration.

The Complete Works of Hannah More.

Engravings. 8vo, Sheep extra, $2 50; 2 vols., $2 75. The same Work, printed from large Type, 7 vols. 12mo; Muslin, $5 25; Half Calf, $8 75.

How many have thanked God for the hour that first made them acquainted with the writings of Hannah More. She did perhaps as much real good in her generation as any woman that ever held the pen. It would be idle for us to dwell here on works so well known. They have established her name as a great moral writer, possessing a masterly command over the resources of our language, and devoting a keen wit and a lively fancy to the best and noblest of purposes.—Quarterly Review.

Horace Walpole declared that Hannah More was not only one of the cleverest of women, but one of the best. "Her writings," said he, "promote virtue, and their repeated editions prove their worth and utility."

Cœlebs I am really delighted with. I have been kept up night after night reading it after supper. I hope, too, that it will do as much good as such a composition, from its very nature, can do. It will, I trust, draw on to other and more serious studies.—WILBERFORCE.

Ross Browne's Yusef.

Yusef: a Crusade in the East. A Narrative of Personal Adventures and Travels on the Shores of the Mediterranean, in Asia Minor, Palestine, and Syria. By J. ROSS BROWNE. With numerous Engravings. 12mo, Muslin, $1 25.

A light, lively, agreeable narrative of an Oriental journey, containing a great deal of animated and picturesque descriptions, notes of habits, men, manners, and various incidents of travel. Mr. Browne is a good-natured tourist, sees every thing, however annoying, in the most agreeable light, writes in an easy and familiar style, and, while he interests the reader by lively sketches of what he saw and experienced, imparts to him a portion of his own cheerfulness and vivacity.

Etchings of a Whaling Cruise, with Notes of a Sojourn on the Island of Zanzibar. To which is appended a brief History of the Whale Fishery, its past and present Condition. By J. ROSS BROWNE. Illustrated by numerous Engravings on Steel and Wood. 8vo, Muslin, $2 00.

This work comprises the journal of a whale cruiser, vividly depicting the vicissitudes, infelicities, and toils of a whaling voyage. It is admirably written, and contains many passages of rich humor, and graphic pictures of maritime life. Among other features of novelty, it presents a striking description of the almost unknown island of Zanzibar, the residence of the Imaum of Muscat, together with some interesting and highly picturesque sketches along the African coast.

Miss Beecher's Letters to the People.

Letters to the People on Health and Happiness. By Miss CATHARINE E. BEECHER. 12mo. (In press.)

This work assumes that the American people are now pursuing a course in their own habits and practices that is destructive to health and happiness, and that they are systematically educating their children to become diseased, deformed, and miserable, as much so as if it was their deliberate aim. The work points out the methods by which this is pursued, gives statistics to show the shocking results, and then points out the remedies for the evils already done, and the methods of prevention for the future.

Miss Beecher's Physiology and Calisthenics.

First Book of Physiology and Calisthenics. By Miss CATHARINE E. BEECHER. 12mo. (In press.)

The object of this work is to introduce into schools and families a system of instruction for childhood and youth that shall train their bodies to strength, beauty, gracefulness, and perfect health. Methods for curing deformities will also be introduced. This is to be done scientifically, and in order to this the children are to be taught the construction of their own bodies, and the philosophy of all the methods pursued, so that they will understand the influence and benefits of all the exercises adopted. This portion will be prepared for regular lessons, to be recited to teachers, while at the same time the exercises are practiced. The work will be illustrated by over one hundred beautiful engravings.

Mountains and Molehills;

or, Recollections of a Burnt Journal. By FRANK MARRYATT. With numerous Illustrations, by the Author. 12mo.

The author of this work—a son of the celebrated novelist—spent nearly two years in California during the transition period of 1850-51. He gives an entertaining account of his experience as a hunter and squatter among the mountains, and of his various unsuccessful attempts to make a fortune in addition to his former adequate estate. In spite of the ill success of his own speculations, the tone of the book is good-humored and hopeful. His book, with its characteristic illustrations, is by far the most racy work which has yet appeared upon California. It derives additional advantage from its clever pictures of life among the Mexican Caballeros.

Webster's Encyclopedia of Domestic Economy:

comprising such Subjects as are most immediately connected with Housekeeping; as, the Construction of Domestic Edifices; Articles of Furniture; Animal and Vegetable Substances used as Food, and the Methods of preserving and preparing them by Cooking; making Bread; Materials employed in Dress and the Toilet; Business of the Laundry; Preservation of Health; Domestic Medicine, &c. By THOMAS WEBSTER. With Additions by an American Physician. With nearly 1000 Engravings. 8vo, Sheep, $3 00.

This is a valuable and truly useful work, comprising every thing needful to be known in domestic economy essential to the comfort, convenience, utility, and enjoyment of a family. In fact, there is nothing in the entire range of the domestic economy of a family that can not be found in this book. It contains nearly 1250 pages, with a copious index, and is profusely illustrated. It is a work which every husband should buy for his wife, and every father for his daughter.

Huc's Travels through the Chinese Empire.

A Journey through the Chinese Empire. By M. Huc, Author of "Recollections of a Journey through Tartary and Thibet." With a new and beautiful Map. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $2 00.

M. Huc enjoyed uncommon opportunities for observing the social institutions of China. He shows rare descriptive talent, sees the comic side of things, and deals largely in humorous and spicy sketches. The volumes are filled with curious and valuable information, and are eminently readable.

Buckingham's Autobiography.

Autobiography of James Silk Buckingham: including his Voyages, Travels, Adventures, Speculations, Successes, and Failures, faithfully and frankly narrated, interspersed with characteristic Sketches of Public Men with whom he has had Intercourse, during a Period of more than Fifty Years. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin.

This book will help to instruct the humblest of its readers in one of the most important lessons adapted to their condition, namely, that there is no obscurity of birth, no privation of property, and no opposition either of powerful individuals—or still more powerful public bodies and governments—that may not be overcome by industry, integrity, zeal, and perseverance; no depth of misfortune, from which the victim may not hope to emerge, by labor, economy, temperance, and that single-mindedness which regards the faithful discharge of duty as the great object to which all others must be made subordinate.

Sydney Smith's Life.

Memoirs of the Rev. Sydney Smith.

Nott's Counsels to Young Men.

Counsels to Young Men on the Formation of Character, and the Principles which lead to Success and Happiness in Life. By ELIPHALET NOTT, D.D. 18mo, Half Bound, 50 cents.

This volume of advice to young men comprises the monitions which Dr. Nott, as President of Union College, has imparted to the students who successively have retired from their literary pursuits to engage in the various avocations of society. The series is an admirable compend of sound wisdom and pure morals, conveyed in an eloquent style, and with the paternal solicitudes of a Christian guide and friend.

The Araucanians;

or, Notes of a Tour among the Indian Tribes of Southern Chili. By EDMOND REUEL SMITH, of the U. S. N. Astronomical Expedition in Chili. 12mo.

A very full and interesting description of the interior of South America is presented in this volume. It treats of the religion, political state, natural productions, and manners and customs of the country, in a lively and entertaining style. The narrative is diversified with a variety of incidents, adventures, and anecdotes, presented in an attractive manner. The information is recent, and can not be found in so interesting a form in any other book of travels. The illustrations are taken from drawings made by the author on his tour.

Waikna;

or, Adventures on the Musquito Shore. By SAMUEL A. BARD. With a Map of the Musquito Shore, and upward of Sixty original Illustrations. 12mo.

This is a narrative of adventure on that part of the Eastern coast of Central America known as the "Musquito Shore." It presents an animated and lively picture of the character and habits of the people and scenery of that coast, which lately had been invested with much interest on account of the pretensions set up there by Great Britain, and strenuously denied by the United States. A rapid sketch of the relations of the two countries is given in the Appendix. The artist has enriched and illustrated his descriptions with striking and characteristic sketches of scenery and incidents.

Bungener's Council of Trent.

History of the Council of Trent. From the French of L. F. BUNGENER, Author of the Priest and the Huguenot. Edited, from the second English Edition, by JOHN M'CLINTOCK, D.D.

Most persons know that the Council of Trent was a product of the Reformation, but comparatively few, we suspect, know much about its history. Those who wish to know (and it is a matter worth knowing) will find ample means of information in this volume. * * * He (the author) is clear in statement, subtle and consecutive in his logic, and steers as far from dullness as from sourness.—Perthshire Advertiser.

The Temporal Power of the Pope.

The Temporal Authority claimed by the Popes of Rome. A Review of the Speech of the Hon. J. R. Chandler, delivered in the House of Representatives, January 11, 1855. By JOHN M'CLINTOCK, D.D.

In this work no Protestant authors are cited.

Lever's Works..

The Martins of Cro' Martin.—The Dodd Family Abroad.—Sir Jasper Carew.—The Daltons.—Maurice Tiernay.—The Nevilles of Garrettstown.

* * Some of the above works, neatly bound in 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, Price $1 50.

We hardly know how to convey an adequate notion of the exuberant whim and drollery by which this writer is characterized. His works are a perpetual feast of gayety.—John Bull.

This well-known humorous and sparkling writer, whose numerous laughter-provoking novels have so often convulsed the reader by their drollery and rollicking wit, seems to possess an endless fund of entertainment.

Stilling's Autobiography.

Autobiography of Heinrich Stilling, late Aulic Counselor to the Grand-duke of Baden, &c. Translated from the German by S. JACKSON. 8vo, Paper, 25 cents.
